Wuffin Lodge No. 6, K. of P., meets every Friday evening, 8:00 o'clock in Odd Fellows Hall. Knightly welcome to visitors.

OUR LOCAL OPTIC.

Goldsboro and Vicinity History in Brief
Epitome of Sayings and Deeds, Wise and Otherwise, Run Down and Run In by Omnipresent Ubiquitous, Lees "Grand Kounds."

Miss Carrie McDuffie, of Wilmington, is in the city, visiting Miss Annie Lamb.

Mr. Charles A. Brown left yesterday afternoon for Bowden's on a visit to Mr. Arthur Weeks.

Mrs. M. H. Quinerly, of Greenville, and Miss Sallie Marshall, of Raleigh, are in the city the guests of Mrs. Thomas McGee.

The city tax books have been turned over to Mr. W. H. Collins and taxes for 1901 are now due and payable at his office, at city headquarters.

Mrs. Annie Sanford, of Carteret county, and Mrs. Josiah Wel's, of LaGrange, were in the city yesterday, visiting the family of Mr. John H. Wells.

Uncle Jimmie Scott was here this morning and said that his grapes are now ripening. The public are invited to go out at any time and visit "grape vine park."

Gov. Aycock and a party of friends, including Maj. W. H. Smith, Messrs. J. W. Grainger, T. W. Dewey, C. B. Braswell and others, are rusticating at Rural Retreat Hotel, Ninth Springs.

The Farmer's Warehouse had the largest sale of tobacco yesterday that has ever taken place in Goldsboro. Mr. J. J. Meador, the popular auctioneer for this warehouse, sold the whole lot at satisfactory prices to all their patrons.

Mr. F. C. Overman will turn the water from his mill pond on Wednesday, the 18th. This pond has not been turned off in several years and there is thought to be any quantity of fish. Rufe Howell has bought the output and those who desire to fish must see him.

The County Teachers' Institute closed at noon to-day. The attendance throughout the week has been full and constant and the deepest interest has characterized the work of both instructors and teachers in attendance and the result will be felt in the schools of the country for greater good the coming school season.

The well known Gordon setter "Don Galloway," the faithful dog that so affectionately looked after the younger children of Capt. A. J. Galloway's household, following their carriage about the streets with a persistency that was remarkable, is dead at length. The children saw that their faithful companion and friend was given a decent burial and tears of genuine sorrow were shed by them when "Don" was found dead, and at his burial.

Mr. G. M. Houston, who had a horse and buggy stolen from him near Chinquapin this week, an account of which appeared in the ARGUS, arrived in the city to-day and said that he was mistaken in the man who had done the stealing. From the description given him by the Chief of Police Mr. Houston thought that the thief was Will Gordon, a young white man who resides in his neighborhood, but on arriving back home he discovered his mistake and he came back to-day to request the ARGUS to correct his error. He has positive proof who the thief is, but on account of the young man's family Mr. Houston desires the name of the guilty party withheld.

THE VERY LATEST.

The President Resting Well But the Crisis May Not Be Reached in Two Or Three Days.

Special Telegram to the ARGUS.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 7.

3 p. m.—At 11 o'clock this morning President McKinley was resting well. His temperature was 102, pulse 146, respiration 24. Every symptom was favorable.

The second bullet, which passed through the abdominal cavity and lodged near the spine, has not yet been located, the surgeons being unable to locate it. Mrs. McKinley is very restless.

The city is in a state of intense excitement and martial law is practically declared. Secretaries Root, Knox and Wilson are here. Doctors fear shock and blood poison. The crisis may not be reached for two or three days.

New York, N. Y., Sept. 7.—A panic was narrowly averted on the stock exchange here to-day.

THE ARGUS EXTRA.

It Came Up to the Requirements Last Night and Was Met With Due Appreciation.

The efforts of the ARGUS last night to give publicity to the sad calamity that has befallen the nation met with due appreciation by our many constituents here in the city. The "Extra" which we issued bearing the sad intelligence of the shooting of our president was eagerly sought after, and it is with pardonable pride that we mention the fact of the many commendatory expressions by our people in our behalf. The wires over which the doleful report was transmitted had barely ceased to vibrate before the "extra" appeared on the streets bright from the revolving press and fresh with the smell of ink.

We do not hesitate to say that the effort as to time could not be eclipsed in the metropolitan cities of the North. The news came from the Union Associated Press service in New York City, with whom the ARGUS has a contract for news in case of extraordinary events, and by which means alone the people of Goldsboro were informed of the tragedy in a short while after the shocking event occurred.

LANTERN FESTIVAL.

This will take place next Thursday night and promises to be a successful affair. All the children of the town are urgently invited to participate. A home-made lantern will be sure to win the prize money, so, boys and girls, get to work and get your brothers and sisters, friends and neighbors to work on that lantern.

Any day next week, you can give your name and membership fee (5 cents) to any of the following ladies, Miss Minnie Grant, Mrs. W. P. Peterson or Miss Etta Spier.

Besides the three cash prizes, a merchant has offered one pound of candy for the ugliest lantern.

It is to be hoped that all the children will participate in the carnival as its greater success depends upon numbers.

The parade will take in several squares, and its route will be determined upon and published in time.

A few patterns of people going at cost to close out at Geo. B. Edwards, successor to Doc Hite.

SYRUP OF FIGS

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and preventing them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.
