THE WEATHER.

For North Carolina:
Fair to-night, rain by Saturday or Sunday.

OUR LOCAL OPTIC.

Dr. Clara E. Jones left to-day for New York.

There were over 300 people on the excursion this morning to Seven Springs.

His many friends are glad to see Mr. W. H. Lewis on a visit to his home here. He came from Macon, Ga.

Senator F. M. Simmons spent several hours in the city to-day, on his way to Newbern, and was the guest at dinner of Mr. Earle A. Humphrey.

"The last of the season," is what is said of Pipkin's excursion to Richmond on Monday. If you fail to go then you will have to pay full fare.

The circus advertising car has been in the city today and the bill boards are now covered with gaudy pictures, which contain interest for old and young alike.

Police Officer Jack Fulghum arrested two cows which were prowling around the streets last night. The cows were turned over to their owners this morning.

The Neuse River Colored Baptist Association, which has been in session here for some days, adjourned this morning and the delegates have left for their homes.

The young boy Raddick Bowen, who had both legs cut off by a freight train on Wednesday night, is still at the Emergency Hospital and is doing very well today. It is now thought that he will recover.

The election of Mr. W. C. Munroe as general attorney for the A. & N. C. R. R., is highly gratifying to the Bar of this city and to his numerous friends here. In him the road has one of the best of legal advisers.

The Goldboro Buggy Company have a repository on Walnut street, West, in which can be seen some of the finest vehicles on wheels. This company design and construct these vehicles at their factory in this city and the finish, workmanship, quality of material used and general good appearance and durable qualities sell them on sight and make friends for the company wherever introduced.

Last night at the home of the bride's parents in this city, Mr. Westbrook Bowden and Miss Georgia Dukes were united in the holy bond of matrimony, Dr. F. D. Swindell officiating. There were a number of friends and relatives of the happy couple present, and after the ceremony refreshments were served to the gathering. The display of presents was handsome and included many articles that were useful as well as ornamental.

"Other People's Money," the attraction at the Opera House last night, was right up at the top in real histrionic merit, and gave entire satisfaction to the large audience present. The ladies' costumes were elegant, and those worn by Miss May Sargent were simply superb. The display of real genuine talent was no less conspicuous than the costumes. The play itself is full of ludicrous situations and charming climaxes which keep the audience deeply interested and hilariously amused from start to finish. The stage settings last night were very effective, and were themselves quite an admirable feature of the performance.

Now in Session at St. John M. E. Church, in This City.

The District Sunday School Convention, which convened in St. John church last night is being well attended. The sessions are very instructive.

The programme as published yesterday was carried out in full, with the exception of an address which was to have been delivered by Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of Kinston, who was prevented from attending on account of illness, but who sent representatives who ably filled the time thus allotted, to the edification and pleasure of the convention.

The song service is being conducted by Mr. T. R. Robinson and the organ is presided over by Mrs. Flora Kendall.

The convention is in session to-day, fulfilling the programme which appeared in yesterday's ARGUS. The following is the programme for to-night and tomorrow:

FOURTH SESSION—Friday Evening.

7:30. Song Service. Led by T. R. Robinson.

EAST LYNNE

Will Be Presented at the Opera House Wednesday, Oct. 2d.

The coming of "East Lynne" to the Opera House next Wednesday, October 2d, promises to be one of the theatrical society events of the season. The public is quick to discern when an attraction is meritorious and deserving of patronage. For this reason, Miss Leah Lessi's company has met with unqualified success and generous support in every city in which it has appeared. Miss Lessi's motto is "East Lynne," presented as it should be." Miss Lessi herself is one of the greatest of the young emotional actresses of the present day; she has a charming face, graceful figure and much personal magnetism; she is a delightful reader and possesses a musical well-trained voice, all of which go to make her a worthy successor to Lucille Western, Clara Morris and Charlotte Thompson, who were the greatest Lady Isabells in their day. Miss Lessi's supporting company is an excellent one, headed by Mr. W. S. St. Claire, favorably remembered for star parts. The management respectfully request the public to bear in mind the fact that the company was organized for the sole purpose of reviving and presenting "East Lynne" in an artistic manner, believing that theatregoers are thoroughly tired of seeing cheap companies presenting bad dramatizations of this famous story.
