Mrs. Sarah F. Nelson left yesterday to visit relatives in Jones county.

The Board of City Aldermen meet in regular monthly session at the Mayor's office to-night.

The Foreign Mission Society will meet in St. Paul church tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Mrs. J. H. Wesdon, who has been spending the summer at Blowing Rock, returned home yesterday afternoon.

Mr. B. H. Griffin, who has been on an extended business and pleasure trip north, returned home yesterday evening.

The circus will soon be here, and then the fond parent will prepare "to take the children" to the show, insisting, of course, that he must be the chaperone.

Mr. W. K. Stanley, general book keeper for the Southern Cotton Oil Company, in this State, has gone to Atlanta to spend some time in the company's central office.

Letters have been received by relatives in this city from Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Butler, who with their children recently sailed for Brazil, announcing their safe arrival at their far off destination.

Miss El. Kirby, to the pleasure of her many friends here, is at home again from Norfolk, and has taken a position as stenographer and type writer in the business office of the Goldsboro Rice Mill.

A man flying kites from the top of the Hotel Kennon to day furnished some amusement for the boys, who are now continually on the lookout for the circus and thought the kite man was a part of the show.

Capt. A. J. Brown, who with Mr. A. S. Pearsall, has been conducting a grocery store in Little Washington, has purchased the interest of Mr. Pearsall and will conduct the business at the same place. Albert has not decided what he will do.

George Weaver, Hi Tom Ward, Gear Buckley and Nat Blossom, the leading comedians of the country, are all this season with the Who What When Minstrels, which have the boards of the Messenger Opera House to-morrow night.

Mrs. B. H. Griffin and sister Miss Daisy Smith arrived home yesterday evening from Dansville, N. Y., where they have been spending several weeks for their health, and their many friends will be glad to learn that they have not only been greatly benefited, but are entirely convalescent.

The fourth story of the white Graded School building is undergoing repairs, making room for more grades, and arrangements are under full headway for the early erection of two new buildings on the grounds, after which the present building will be remodeled and enlarged. We go forward.

Jim Mitchell, a colored ex-convict, was arrested here last night by Chief Freeman and Constable Grady. Jim is wanted in Kinston, where he was taken this afternoon by Chief of Police Jaa.

H. Rouse, of that town, for stealing $13 in money, a silver watch and a gold pin from a negro woman, who occupied a room in the same house in which Jim lived. He forced the partition door and stole the articles. Jim has been to the penitentiary for stealing cotton in Charlotte and he will probably make another trip to the State prison.

Rev. Mr. Myers, who is conducting revival services in the Pentecostal Holiness church, in this city, wishes to announce that he will hold a service for children Sunday, and requests the parents to come and bring the little ones. Services every night at 7:30 o'clock, which you are cordially invited to attend.

Marie Corelli's "Thelma," which Mr. Chas. W. Chase has dramatized for Mr. Aiden Benedict, will be presented by a most excellent and carefully selected company at the Opera House on Saturday, October 5th. Mr. Chase has spent much time upon this work, which gives every promise of popular success. Seats are now on sale at Hill's drug store.

COLUMBIA WINS AGAIN

In the great International yacht race to-day off New York the Columbia defeated the Shamrock by only one minute. This gives the American yacht both of the races that have been sailed.

WHO WHAT WHEN MINSTRELS

WILL SHOW HERE TO-MORROW NIGHT.

Voluntary Recommendations of This Show by Prominent People of Greenville, Tenn., and the Press.

Greenville, Tenn. Sept. 22. Hon. Robt. McFarland, Morristown, Tenn.,

Dear Sir:—I want to say to you that the Who What When Minstrels gave an entertainment in our Opera House last night, and also to state that it's a High-Class Entertainment, such as we only see in towns the size of our place occasionally.

The manager, as well as the company, are gentlemen, and as such, deserve the patronage of our best people. Any favors extended him will be appreciated by myself. Yours truly,
J. J. MITCHELL,
Mayor.

The Herald says: "The Who What When Boys" walked into popularity at one gigantic bound, as a warwick who pulled the strings and manipulated the wires setting the pace for a host of feeble imitators and it is no wonder that every seat is sold nightly, long before the curtain rises at the Grand Opera House. While high prices prevail, the natural magnitude of the performance is well worth the price of admission.

AIDEN BENEDICT
In "Thelma" at the Messenger Opera House Saturday Night.

Mr. Aiden Benedict will present at the Messenger Opera House in this city on Saturday night of this week, Mr. Chas. W. Chase's aversion of Harrie Corelli's "Thelma." The action of the play is laid in Norway and Iceland, and is a most refreshing dramatic novelty, being entirely different from any other play ever produced upon any stage. The snow storm is a very realistic scene and the death of the Viking on the burning ship will bring tears to every one's eyes. The company is an excellent one. The leading members having been associated with the best managers.
