WALTER LETTER.

A Chronicing of a Week's Events in That Thriving Neighborhood.

Mrs. Ezekiel Perkins, of your city, is on a visit to her niece Mrs. J. C. Howell.

Mr. John Lane, from below Goldsboro, was visiting his brother Mr. W. H. Lane, last Sunday.

Messrs. Henry Grady and Tobe Rose, of your city, were out here Monday afternoon, on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cochran of Mecklenburg county, were visiting at Mr. J. H. Caldwell's last week.

Mr. Jethro Howell, of Clayton, spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Howell, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hornaday, of LaGrange, came up Saturday to attend the big Association, returning Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Hand, of Chester, S. C., is in our neighborhood, visiting her old home. Her many friends are glad to see her.

Mr. DeWitt Sherrard and Miss Studie Howell, of your city, were visiting Miss Bevis Swinson, Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. A. L. Sasser returned home to-day, from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Jordan, of Raleigh, where she spent the past week.

Mr. Rufin Bailey, of Smithfield, and Mrs. Chester Bundy, of near Raleigh, were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Crawford returned to their home at Kinston, Monday, after a week's pleasant visit to relatives here and in your city.

Misses Pearl Hornaday, of LaGrange and Julia McGee, of your city, attended the Association Sunday, and were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Will Crawford.

In speaking of compulsory vaccination, Mildred, our little 5-year-old, remarked, "One thing certain, if I can't go to school without being 'sanctified', I shall certainly stay at home."

We have a suggestion to make to your city fathers, that is, to take the large shed they prohibited Capt. Lamb from completing, for a Union Depot. It will answer all practical purposes, and surely be an improvement on the one you now have.

There was an immense crowd in attendance at the Primitive Baptist Association, at Cross Roads church, near Princeton, last Sunday. There was a constant stream of vehicles from early morn 'til nearly noon and the grounds around the church was a mass of humanity, from all directions. The crowd was estimated between four and five thousand people.

Capt. B. C. Jenkins, the clever engineer, who handles the throttle on the short cut to Smithfield, has the reputation of being the most novel 'possum hunter who ever carried a torch in these woods. One morning last week, on his trip up the road, he shined a 'possum's eyes with the headlight to his engine, slacked up, and caught him. We have heard of picking huckleberries on a train, but this is the first case of going 'possum hunting.

FARMERS ATTENTION
Meeting of the County Association Next Monday.

The members of the Wayne County Farmers' Association are hereby called to meet at the court house in Goldsboro on next Monday, November 4 h.

Farmers, we need to come closer together and talk over the prospects for another year and say what we will pay labor. We most respectfully ask the merchant and trader to show the land owner more consideration by taking fewer mortgages on tenants, which in a great measure is the cause of such a demoralized condition among tenants and laborers.

Every farmer in the county is invited to be present.

Sec. W. C. F. A.

LAST OF CZOLGOSZ.

UNREPENTANT AND DEFIANT HE GOES TO HIS LONG HOME.

Remains to be Buried in Prison Cemetery and the Public Will Never Know His Resting Place.

Auburn, Oct. 29.—The electric current was applied promptly at 7:12 a. m. Thirty currents, of 1,700 volts were used. Czolgosz refused to see a priest or renounce anarchy. He seemed sullen and indifferent. When seated in the chair facing the witness, he said: "I shot the President because I thought it would benefit the working people of abominations and am not sorry for the crime." His last words were: "I am heartily sorry I did not see my father." The autopsy was begun by Dr. McDonald five minutes after the execution. The body is to be buried in the prison cemetery. All of his clothing, letters and effects were burned immediately, leaving no relic of the ghastly crime. The assassin's last night was passed in quiet sleep. He stoutly maintained to the last that he had no accomplices.

Czolgosz held his last two interviews last night, the first with Superintendent Collins and the second one was with his brother and brother-in-law. Both of the interviews were brief, and the interviewers did most of the talking, until the question of religion was mentioned, when Czolgosz broke from his seeming lethargy and violently denounced the church and the clergy and made his relatives promise that there should be no service for him living or dead.

Prior to the late evening interviews Czolgosz reluctantly received Fathers Pudzinski and Hickey. It was late in the afternoon and occurred after he had once refused to meet them. When they reached the prison Superintendent Collins conveyed the request for an interview to the prisoner. Czolgosz sent back word that he did not care to see them, but the priests asked to be allowed to go to him, despite his refusal.

Superintendent Collins consented and personally escorted them to the cell. The priests remained with Czolgosz for three quarters of an hour and earnestly pleaded with the prisoner to repent and pray for divine forgiveness. He rejected all their advances, however, and they regrettably withdrew. They told the prisoner they would hold themselves ready to answer a call from him at any hour of the night.

Superintendent of State Prisons Corcoran V. Collins and Warden J. Warren Mead, after hours of controversy with Czolgosz's brother Waldeck, succeeded in obtaining from him the following signed relinquishment of the family claims to the remains:

"I hereby authorize you, as warden of Auburn Prison, to dispose of the body of my brother, Leon F. Czolgosz, by burying it in the cemetery attached to the prison, as provided by the law of the State of New York.

"This request is made upon the express understanding that no part of the remains will be given to any person or society, but that the entire body will be buried in accordance with the law in the cemetery attached to the prison."

Waldeck at the Prison.

Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Waldeck Czolgosz and Thomas Bandowski, brother and brother-in-law of the assassin, called at the prison at 2 o'clock this afternoon. They sent word in to Warden Mead that they wished to see the body of Leon Czolgosz. The warden told them that the body had been buried for more than an hour and that if they wished he would send a guard to guard them to the grave. They answered that they did not care to go to the cemetery but that they were anxious to arrange for the collection of the insurance on the life of the dead murderer and asked that a certificate of death be given to them. The warden promised them a certificate and they departed. The insurance about which they talked is supposed to be in a fraternal society to which the murderer belonged.

Chronic Ulcers Eating Sores

That Breed and Foster the Germs of Cancer—Plague Spots the Outgrowth of Diseased Blood, and a Constant Drain upon the System.

An old sore or ulcer is not only a source of great bodily discomfort and pain, but the constant care, worry and anxiety over one of these malignant festering places produces an unhealthy state of the nervous system and the patient becomes morbidly sensitive, miserable and gloomy. No one could be otherwise when haunted by the presence of an inflamed, angry-looking sore, with a continual discharge, carrying with it the life fluids, thus robbing the body of strength and vitality. An eating, lingering ulcer naturally fills the sufferer with fear while noting the daily growth of the sore, from which there is a slow but perpetual discharge of yellow or greenish watery matter, and feeling the dull, throbbing or sharp shooting pains as the poison penetrates the tender tissues and reaches the bone.

All slow-healing, stubborn sores are dangerous. The same germ-producing, cancer-tainted blood is back of every sore or ulcer, large or small, that does not promptly and permanently heal; the little blister upon the lip or tongue, the warty growth or mole upon the cheek and other parts of the body, and the almost imperceptible tumor or lump upon the breast, as often result in Cancer as the deeper and more frightful-looking ulcers. They feed upon the same morbid and destructive materials that are generated within the blood, and inflammation and destruction of tissue will continue just so long as this impure matter is carried through the circulation to these old sores and ulcers.

Washes, salves, nor anything else applied directly to the sore can do any permanent good; neither does the use of the knife or flesh destroying plaster cure, for local causes have nothing to do with these germ-breeding plague spots. You might cut out every particle of the diseased flesh and scrape the bone, but another sore would come. The germs or poison in the blood must be destroyed, the stream of sluggish, polluted blood purified and made strong before the healing process begins and the sore or ulcer can get well. S. S. S. is the only remedy known that can and does accomplish this. It cleanses and purifies the circulation, and when new, rich blood is carried through the little veins and arteries to the sore, it brings about a healthy healing process and thorough cure is soon effected. S. S. S. not only expels all impurities, but works a complete and radical change in the entire system by stimulating inactive organs, toning up the nerves, increasing the appetite, and aiding the digestion and assimilation of food, thus building up the weak and wasted constitution. S. S. S. is strictly and entirely a vegetable medicine, and no bad effects follow its use, and for this reason it is better than Mercury and Potash or other minerals, which not only ruin the stomach, but often produce most stubborn and offensive sores themselves.

Prompt treatment should be given a sore of ulcer, no matter how small it may be, whether external or internal, for what you think a simple sore, may, in reality, be an undeveloped Cancer. Our physicians will gladly advise all who need their services, and those who write us will receive valuable suggestions regarding the treatment of their case free of charge.

Office of D. H. Hardy, Sec. of State, Austin, Tex., Nov. 21, 1900.
I have found Dr. Moffet's TERTHINA a splendid remedy and aid for my teething children. When my oldest boy was a teething child, every succeeding day warned me that we would inevitably lose him. I happened upon TERTHINA, and began at once administering it to him, and his improvement was marked in 24 hours, and from that day he recuperated. I have constantly kept it and used it since with my children, and have taken great pleasure in soundings its praises to all mothers of young children. I found it invaluable even after the teething period was passed.

NEW GOODS.

CHINESE etiquette forbids an actor to turn his back to the Emperor. So he wears a mask on the back of his head, and a costume with two fronts. It is ridiculous. But it is the only way of compliance with an impossible demand. You see the same thing in trade. Everyone wants fine coffee cheap, but everyone knows that fine coffee isn't cheap. Chinese-like, some one offers coffee "just as good" as Chase & Sanborn's "Seal Brand" for a less price. "Just as good" is only a Chinese mask. Don't be humbugged!
