"Do not talk about things you do not understand," says Prophet Dowle. This is the most radical repressive movement that has ever been started.

The Columbians want twenty millions for their canal privileges, but they would not know that amount if they met it coming down the middle of the road.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—The condition of Sir Thomas Lipton was pronounced to-night by his physician to be entirely satisfactory and it is believed that all danger has been passed.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Frost was reported from Illinois, Ohio, Wisconsin, Kansas, Minnesota and Kentucky last night. Little damage is reported to the crop. Tobacco suffered somewhat in Kentucky.

Athens, Ala., Sept. 18.—A heavy frost fell in this section last night, the heaviest in vicinity in years. It is thought the damage to the crops will be considerable. Cotton is at least three weeks late and much corn is still in a condition to be damaged.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 18.—Captain Bussells, of the Atlantic Fishing Company at Cape Charles, Va., who brought safely into port the fishing steamer Atlantic, stated to-day that there can now be no doubt of the fact that the Atlantic's sister steamer Beatrice fundered during the recent coast storm, going down with all hands aboard. The Beatrice carried a crew of well nigh thirty souls.

Troy, N. C., Sept. 18.—The post-office here was robbed last night. The robbers secured tools from a blacksmith shop, with which they drilled a hole in the safe door. They then used their explosives, which easily opened the door. Between three and five hundred dollars in stamps and money were taken and some valuable papers. There was no one sleeping near, so the robbers did their work undisturbed. There is no clue as to who did the robbery.

CURES CATARRH.

"Hymel the Most Wonderful Cure For Catarrh Ever Discovered," Says J. H. Hill & Son.

Do not try to cure catarrh by taking drugs into the stomach; it cannot be cured in that manner. The only way in which this common disease can be cured is through a direct application that will kill the bacilli of catarrh and prevent their growth.

Hymel is the only known method of treatment that accomplishes this. It is the simplest, most pleasant, and the only absolute cure for catarrh that has ever been discovered.

Thousands of unsolicited testimonials have been received from the most prominent men and women in the country who have been cured by this remarkable remedy. Ministers, bankers, lawyers, eminent physicians have given strong testimonials as to the remarkable powers of Hymel to cure catarrh.

The complete Hymel outfit costs $1.00, consisting of an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hymel to last several weeks. This will effect a cure in ordinary cases, but for chronic and deep-seated cases of catarrh, longer use may be necessary, and then extra bottles of Hymel can be obtained for 50c. It is not alone the best (it might be called the only) method of curing catarrh, but it is also the most economical.

PROHIBITION IN DANVILLE.

What a Leading Citizen of that Town Has to Say on Its Operation There.

EDITOR ARGUS:—Will you kindly publish the following letter, one from Mr. W. R. Odell of Concord well known in manufacturing circles; and one from Mr. E. G. Moseley of Danville, a "Leaf Tobacco Dealer."

These letters show very conclusively the helpful effect of prohibition on the material interest of a place.

Danville, Va., Sept. 17 1903. REV. F. D. SWINDELL, Goldsboro, N. C. Your letter of the 15th, to hand it affords me pleasure to give such information as I may be able, regarding the local option election held in our city, April 9th, of this year.

Our tax levy is the same this year as last year. It now looks like our criminal expenses will be reduced this year by about one half.

As to the material effect of local option I have this to say; every bank, seven in number, with the exception of one, shows a great increase in the deposits of the merchants of the city in all lines of trade.

The commission merchants of the city say their collections from the merchants are very much improved under the new condition of things. We have not less than ten more store houses rented and doing business here now, than we had on the day of the local option election. It is a very rare thing that a person is seen on our streets under the influence of drink. Before the election this could have been seen almost any hour of the day or night.

We had one street where many of the saloons were located, which was not safe for any person to walk day or night, before the election, now it is just as quiet and safe as walking down a church street.

Public sentiment is strongly behind the cause in our city, the least violation of the law is not tolerated by our people, the guilty are brought before the court and heavily fined.

I have not seen a farmer in our city under the influence of drink, since the city voted dry; it used to be a sight to be seen every hour of the day.

Notwithstanding the reports to the contrary that have gone out from our city, I stand ready to prove the statements contained in this letter to you, and to say, that from a spiritual and material standpoint local option has wrought a wonderful improvement in our city and I feel sure that if the vote was again taken the majority for "dry" of 203 would be greatly increased.

"HUMAN HEARTS."

This Great Play Will Have the Boards of the Messenger Opera House Next Tuesday Night.

To be transported from the strife of town to the atmosphere of the hill country, with its simple honest people pursuing their lives of affection and trust, is in itself a refreshment.

To hear the singing of the birds and those other sounds on the farm, to hear and see all things that flood the memory with pleasant experiences or excite the imagination to a realizing sense of the poetry of common things, is not only a relief from the cares of the day, but a renewal of the better side of our nature.

In the realistic melodrama "Human Hearts," the scenes which are laid chiefly among the hills of Arkansas, is found a power to charm that is marvelous.

Everything has its purpose and furthers the main intention of an all-absorbing story of love, hate, injustice and retribution. The play engages the sympathies for the sufferers visited on a family of plain, honest people, through the unfortunate marriage of the hero with an adventuress whom he thought to reform, but failed; the temptations of the old life proving too strong for her. Not only these two, but all associated with them suffer by their mistake.

This play, "Human Hearts," will be presented in the Messenger Opera House in this city next Tuesday night, the 22nd. Seats now on sale at Hill's drug store.
