Doth an eternal vigil keep;

No soothing strains of Maia's son
Can lull his hundred eyes to sleep."

PIKEVILLE LETTER.

Happenings of a Week in this Thriving Town.

ARGUS BUREAU, Pikeville, N. C., Sept. 22, 1903.
Mr Chas Barnes, of Black Creek, was here Sunday.
Miss Mattie Ham is spending this week in Goldsboro.
Mr Tom Dees left Tuesday for Richmond to enter school.
Messrs C S Smith and J L Crawford visited in Wilson Sunday.
Master Tolle Spence and Mr William Bass, of Fremont, visited here Sunday.
Mr R H Smith and little Margaret Scott are confined to their homes by illness.
Miss Agnes Pierce, of Kenly, is visiting her sister Mrs J A Mitchell, who is quite sick.
Mr John Overman, of Eureka, was visiting his sister Mrs W E Ham, Saturday night.
Mr William Davis returned from a trip to the Sound Friday, bringing with him a nice lot of fish.
Mr J A Hosen, who came home from Goldsboro sick last week, has recovered. He returned to his work Saturday morning.
Mr P B Scott has accepted a position with the Fremont Oil Mill Company and entered upon his duties Monday morning.
Mr and Mrs William Smith and daughter Miss Mabel, of Goldsboro, visited at the home of Mr E T Crawford's Sunday afternoon.
We regret to learn of the illness of Mrs Suthie Garris, who is confined to her home from a serious affliction of the feet and lower limbs.
Work has begun on the Masonic Lodge building and the new residence of Mr R H Smith, and they are being rapidly pushed forward. When completed these two buildings will add much to the improvement of our town. But when is the work on the new church to be commenced?
On Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock there will be an election of officers and teachers held at the school house by the Sunday school members. This is an important meeting in which every one in town should be interested. The fathers and mothers are especially invited to attend and assist in the election.

UNBOUNDED FAITH IN MI-O-NA
J. H. Hill & Son Will Refund Money if it Fails to Increase Flesh and Cure Dyspepsia.
"We have been in the drug business long enough to know that there are very few remedies that can be sold on a guarantee to refund the money if they do not give satisfaction."
"We have sold so much Mi-o-na and seen such remarkable results following its use that we welcome the chance to convince any doubter of its merit, by offering to give with each package of Mi-o-na a written guarantee to refund the money if it does not give an increase in weight, regulate the digestion and restore health."
"If you cannot call at our store, send us the price of Mi-o-na, 50c, by mail, and we will forward you a regular size box, postage paid, with the same agreement to refund the money if it does not give perfect satisfaction."
"Anyone who has been losing flesh, or who has always been too thin, should use Mi-o-na. Thinness and scrawnyness are signs that the food is not properly assimilated and that you do not get the nourishment from it that you should."
Mi-o-na unites with the food you eat, aids its assimilation, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and puts the whole system in a proper physical condition.
Remember that you risk nothing in buying Mi-o-na. If it fails to give you the desired effect, the cost is trifling. If it fails, J. H. Hill & Son will pay for the remedy themselves.

#100—Dr. E. Detchon's Anti-Diarrhoea may be worth to you more than $100 if you have a child who soils bedclothes from incontinence of water during sleep. Cures old and young alike. It arrests the trouble at once. $1. Sold by M. E. Robinson & Co. druggists, Goldsboro.

MT. OLIVE LETTER.

Chronicle of a Week's Events in That Thriving Neighborhood.

ARGUS BUREAU, Mt. Olive, N. C., Sept. 22, 1903.

Mrs D N McGee is visiting relatives in Hamlet.
Mr G R Pearsall made a business trip to your city last week.
Mr and Mrs M T Brazzale visited Goldsboro last Thursday.
Miss Bettie Exum, of Vermont, is the guest of Mrs M C S Cherry.
Mr C B Hatch made a business trip to Wilmington on Monday.
Misses Lelia and Margaret Aaron spent Thursday night in Goldsboro.
Mrs Shade Wooten, of LaGrange, is the guest of her son Mr S A Wooten.
Mr Henry E Cox is visiting his old home and his friends are delighted to see him.
Mrs Thos McGee and Mrs Geo A McGee are visiting relatives and friends here this week.
After an extended visit to Snow Hill and Beaufort, Miss Suddie Dee Maxwell is at home again.
Messrs W F English and J A Westbrook have returned from Southport and report a delightful trip.
Miss Frank English left to-day for Greensboro, where she will be a student at the Greensboro Female College.
Quite a large party last night engaged in an exciting fox chase and 'tis needless to add that a large fox was caught.
Miss Ella Lenard, of Baltimore, arrived to-day and will fill the position as milliner in Martin's store, her friends are glad to have her back.
Miss Richmond is again this fall with Blount & Keel, and has many beautiful creations in millinery which she will show in a few days to the admiring woman-kind.
A large party from here, on Thursday last, went up to Goldsboro to hear "Thelma" and enjoyed it very much, all voting it the best play they have seen in the Messenger Opera House for quite a while.
Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr Chas Southerland of this place to Miss Emma Hearne of Albemarle. Miss Hearne last year held a position in the Mt. Olive Graded School, and made many friends who will be glad indeed to have her in their midst again.
A sad burial took place here Monday afternoon, when the remains of Dr Emmet Kornegay were interred in Myrtle Grove Cemetery, beside the grave of his parents. Dr Kornegay died last Friday in Worcester, Mass., and his death was a shock to his many relatives and friends in this town. Quite a number from Kinston and Goldsboro accompanied the remains here and were present at the funeral.
We are glad to see a Mt Olive young lady thus highly spoken of in Wesleyan Female College Notes from Macon, Ga., in the Atlanta Constitution: "Among other arrivals at college is a new teacher of piano and voice, Miss Mary Estella Kornegay, a most charming young Christian woman, as well as an excellent musician and teacher. Miss Kornegay has been very highly educated at seminaries of music in North Carolina, and has taken a two year course at the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston."

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.

Everything.

While we are not in politics at all we are on earth, and anyone who can read the signs of the time knows that Major Charles M. Steadman is going to be the next governor of North Carolina. A brilliant man, with a clean record and scores of friends. Nothing that they can say of him need be said. He has spent his life in North Carolina and now, in the afternoon of it, the shadows fall—but upon the stainless pages of a Book of Life illumined by charity, humanity and intelligence. Major Steadman has been weighed in the balances and never found wanting. He has been through the crucible—stood the heat of the blow-pipe of politics—bravely walked the ways of men in busy haunts and no Nemesis has ever cried him shame. He has lived in the West and in the East and is essentially of North Carolina. Guilford temporarily claims him—but he is of the state and the state will be proud to honor herself in honoring him.

PATETOWN ITEMS.

News of Interest From the Patetown Section Gathered by the Squire.
Mr Joe Lancaster is critically ill at his home here. There is a trained nurse with him now and we all hope he may soon be out again.
Mr Geo D Pate, of Carter county, was here last week visiting relatives and friends. He is a brother of the late Jackson Pate, and is an extensive real estate owner. He reported that Mr U S Pate's live stock in his county numbered, cattle 110, sheep (visible) 96, hogs 286—yet there are many of each kind destroyed by bears.
Old man Gus Hughes is quite ill at this writing.
