This man actually made himself lame by walking all over the country looking for suitable material with which to build brick, and good shingles; but his means were limited, and the prices at the mills were beyond his reach until he found A. T. GRIFFIN, who at once proved to him the folly of walking all over the face of the earth trying to find what he desired at reasonable prices. The man got what he wanted and went away wiser, and declared he would know where to go next time.
