YOU MAY BE CURED

544 Garfield Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., October 9, 1902.

After doctoring for eleven months and taking forty-three bottles of medicine and finding no relief for leucorrhoea resulting from irritation of a fallen womb I took Wine of Gardui and fourteen bottles cured me. This seems strange but it is the simple truth. Wine of Gardui helped me from the time I began taking it and having heard it praised so highly by friends who had tried it I felt satisfied that it would help me, and it did. It cured me. Took every bit of ache, pain and headache, cramps and dragging down sensations away till I felt young, strong and happy once more. It is a wonderful medicine and a true friend to women. When I look back on the months of torture I had it seems like a hideous nightmare. Wine of Gardui will cure any woman I believe. I have more faith in it than all other medicines combined.

Frances Kingsley

Wine of GARDUI

How can you refuse relief when you know you are growing worse day after day? Shooting pains, irregularity, inflammation and bearing down pains make thousands of women miserable. Why drag through life never enjoying anything? Wine of Gardui has made over 1,500,000 weak and suffering women well and strong. We ask you to go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Gardui and begin to take it at once. Do that and the health Mrs. Kingsley writes about will soon be yours. If you think special directions are needed in your case, address, giving symptoms, Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THE GATHERER.

SELECTED WITH CARE FROM THE SCOPE OF A DAY'S READING.

If You are Gay or Grave; In Joy or in Sorrow; In doubt or abiding in faith; In haste or with Time to Spare, It is Hoped That You will Find Something Here to Repay you For the Perusal of This Column

I'm sitting here an' dreamin', in the shadder an' the shine, Of a face there, on the mantel, that looked sweetest love in mine; An' it takes me back to youth time—to the sweetest long ago, When we thought we saw Love's roses crimson all the winter snow.

The same dear eyes that lit for me the stars that gleamed above— The lips that moved so sweetly to the melodies of Love; When we knew the joy of loving— went together, holding hands, Where the music of the whippoor-wills made sweet the twilight lands!

"And after the elopement," he whispered tenderly, "we will go to light house-keeping."

"Lighthouse keeping!" she echoed innocently. "Then all we'll need will be a big lamp."

Cope—I hear your boss expects to raise your salary this month? Hope—So he says. But he hasn't succeeded in raising all of last month's yet.

"It seems," said the leader of the rescuing party, "that the bandits bound and gagged you in the regular comic-opera style."

"Oh, no, they didn't," replied the victim. "The gags they used were entirely new."

Mrs. Flatington—Are you doing Christmas shopping yet? Mrs. Slimkins—No, not yet. I'm just helping to crowd the stores.

Hoax—Do you know that thin fellow over there? Hoax—Oh, yes; we are very thick. Hoax—And do you know the big fat one? Hoax—Slightly.

"Are they much to each other?" "Indeed, yes! One has ambition, the other money."

CHRISTMAS RATE.

For the Christmas Holidays, the Atlantic Coast Line announces a rate of one and one-third one way fares plus 25 cents for the round trip between all points South of the Potomac and Ohio rivers and East of the Mississippi river. MILLIONAIRE'S POOR STOMACH.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale in Goldsboro by Goldsboro Drug Co., and in Mt. Olive at Aaron's Pharmacy.

QUARTERLY MEETINGS.

I will be at the following places on the following dates:

Mt. Olive circuit, Falling Creek, Jan. 30-31.

F. B. SWANNON, P. E.

The man on the stage who does the trick of escaping from firmly tied ropes, submits to the bonds with a smile. He knows he can get out of the ropes that are being knotted. Put the same man in the woods and let Indian captors bind him to a tree for torture and he would struggle to the last against the bonds.

When the stomach is diseased there are bonds being woven every hour about the organs dependent on the stomach—heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, etc. The folly of mankind is to passively submit to the fastening of these bonds with no effort to escape until the pain they cause arouses fear.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures diseases of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys and other organs, when these diseases, as is often the case, have their origin in the diseased stomach.

"For a long time I was suffering and was hardly able to get about," writes Mr. Andrew J. Jennings, of Thomas, Tucker Co., W. Va. "I was bothered with kidney troubles and my whole system was out of order; had no appetite. A friend of mine told me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I did so and the first bottle restored my appetite. I took six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and some of the 'Pleasant Pellets' and feel like a new person."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the clogged system from impurities.
