NEWS FROM WALTER.

Interesting News Items From that Prosperous Neighborhood

Walter, N. C., Jan. 13.

Mrs. Wright Lynch, of Jacksonville, N. C., was here last week, visiting her sister Mrs. Wm. Smith.

Miss Mamie Johnson and her grandmother, Mrs. Geo. Gaylor, visited relatives at Fremont last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Jim Langston, who is holding a position in your city, spent Sunday near Roswood, on a visit to homefolks and special friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Peole, who have been living at the Yelverton place for several months, where Mr. Peole had rented for the year, moved back to Fremont Saturday.

Mr. John M. Mitchell, one of our county representatives at Raleigh, spent Sunday at home, where his many friends were glad to see him, and hear what was transpiring under the dome of our Capitol.

Mr. Ben Winders and family, who lived in this community several years ago, will move back, and occupy the place Mr. Peole vacates. Their friends here are glad to welcome them back to the neighborhood.

The bills introduced to raise salaries of State officers and register fees for recording mortgages in Wayne county, is meeting with disapproval here. The people think it an inopportune time to increase expenses in the face of an exceedingly short crop, and the prevailing stringency in financial matters.

Mr. Murray Peole received an ugly cut over his left eye Monday morning, by being kicked by a mule he was hitching to his wagon. Fortunately for him that the kick was not in the eye, as it came near being, or the eye would have been put out. It was an ugly gash and the blood flowed freely.

During the high prices of peas, and the fact that the dealers in seeds will sell only for cash, the small farmer, who heretofore only planted a few, is this year out of the truck market, so far as peas are concerned. This gives the extensive planter, and those who have ready money, the entire field in the pea market. Only very few will be planted in this section.

We are like the old darkey said, when the mule throw him, as he sat on him asleep. He got up rubbing the dirt out of his head, as it had been buried in the sand and mud by the fall, and said, "Dats what makes me spise a mule," as we have many times remarked, if we had to preach a mule's funeral we would stand at his head, and would want a twitch on his nose besides.

BUSTER BROWN COMING AGAIN

Play That Has Created Much Amusement. New Songs And New People This Season.

Buster Brown, with his faithful pal, Tige, and forty others, mostly girls, will be the attraction at the Messenger Opera House, Thursday night, January 21st.

As a play actor, Buster has been a success from the start. As the story runs, Buster's father is a retired merchant. Having failed in business, and failed "rich" he has plenty of money and is able to pay spot cash for the damages committed by Buster and Tige during their revels from day to day.

The dear mother-in-law, whom the father does not like as much as he would like to, plays an important part in the story. Like most mother-in-laws she is ambitious and wants Buster's father to go into politics. She fancies that such a move would make him a power in the world and ultimately take them to Washington, where she hopes to shine in society with the Four Hundred, the admiration of millionaires and visiting kings at the White House.

To this Buster Brown's father objects. He is loaded down with money and prefers the quiet life which all young men revel in. Fortunately Buster's older sister relieves the situation. She is engaged to an up-to-date man who parts his hair in two places in the middle, clips his sentences according to the fashion of the smart set, and really longs to enter politics and lift the family name from the vulgar mire of commerce and finance.

Buster's smile, Buster, the little philosopher and child of nature, heartily favors his sister's sweetheart.

Such is the situation when the committee of great men, genuine pillars in the party, arrive at the Buster Brown mansion to notify the merchant that they propose to nominate him for the highest office in town, mayor of Brownville.

Buster, in his father's absence, receives the committee so wonderfully and makes so fine a speech, full of pathos and shrewdness, that the great men are completely won over to the boy. Buster, with Madonna-like eyes and a modest appealing look, sets forth the noble qualities of the young man who aspires to his sister's hand so eloquently that the committee promises to make him their candidate for Mayor.

The story of the reception gets out, Buster's picture is displayed in the windows, and the good old dutch town of Brownville rings with approval at the committee's choice. The campaign now opens with a hurrah. Ginger eloquence and fireworks make the old town as lively as a Christmas candy shop, and Buster Brown's sister's young man is elected by a rousing majority. Result: Everyone rejoices. Buster Brown is praised and petted. His big little heart swells with emotion and tears are in his eyes when he winks at the dog. A grand family reunion follows and they feed Tige on porterhouse steak for a month.

CATARRH CURED.

No Cure, No Pay, is a Most Generous Offer.

To get an antiseptic strong enough to kill catarrh germs and not destroy the tissues of the membrane at the same time, has been a problem which was never solved until the discovery of Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me).

Hyomei is prepared from eucalyptus, the most powerful yet healing antiseptic known. Breathe it through the inhaler over the inflamed and germ-ridden membrane four or five times a day, and in a few days the germs will disappear.

The inflamed condition will go, too, and the snuffing, hawking and offensive breath, and the discharge of mucous and crusts in the nose will cease.

Then why should any catarrh sufferer hesitate, when J. H. Hill & Son have such faith in Hyomei that he offers to return your money if after a fair trial Hyomei does not cure catarrh.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including the inhaler, costs $1.00, and extra bottles, if afterwards needed, cost but 50 cents. Hyomei also cures asthma, croup, sore throat, coughs, colds or grip.

MI-ONA Cures Dyspepsia.

What Mr. A. A. Joseph Says About Tailoring.

Designing Artist of The Big House of Isaac Hamburger & Sons Now In The City For A Day.

Mr. Harry Sloman, a cutter and designer from the noted merchant-tailoring house of Isaac Hamburger & Son of Baltimore, has been spending the day in this city, and will remain over tomorrow, at the popular Gents' Furnishing establishment of Mr. A. A. Joseph, and there he is showing a most complete and exceedingly beautiful line of spring patterns in gentlemen's suits that have never been surpassed, because they are the best weaves of imported and domestic designs, and being an artist in his profession of cutting and designing Mr. Sloman can give to customers here the same selection of goods and satisfactory fits as the big house gives its select customers in Baltimore.

Mr. A. A. Joseph, who is always alert for the satisfaction of his customers is quite happy over having Mr. Sloman here, and says it is a distinct compliment to Goldsboro, for Mr. Sloman only visits the Best Towns.

As his stay will not be longer than tomorrow those of our readers interested should govern themselves accordingly.

ST. STEPHEN'S NEW RECTOR

What the Paper of His Former Parish Says of Him.

The "Weekly Messenger," of Emporia, Va., where Rev. J. G. Buskie, the newly installed rector of St. Stephen's church in this city, was for nearly two years before coming here, has the following to say of him in its current issue:

"Rev. J. Gilmer Buskie, who resigned his charge here several weeks ago and accepted a call to a church at Goldsboro, N. C., was installed as Rector and preached his first sermon at the latter church on Sunday last. He returned to Emporia on Tuesday to complete some business arrangements and will leave today to make his permanent home in Goldsboro.

"Mr. Buskie has been Rector of Christ church here for nearly two years and his work has been felt. From a disheartened and disorganized church which had been without a Rector for several years, he has built up a live organization and incidentally has gained the love and esteem not only of the members of his church, but the entire community.

"Of a strong, forceful character, an able preacher, and thoroughly in love and sympathy with his work, the people of Emporia can ill afford to lose him, and they will find it difficult to fill his place."

TEN PER CENT.

Stockholders of the Goldsboro Shoe Company Have a Good Thing.

Annual Dividend Declared and Checks Mailed to all Stockholders: Merit and Advertising Make a Strong Combination For Success.

The Goldsboro Shoe Company, which since its inauguration has been under the sagacious and aggressive management of that all-around competent shoe man, business-getter and courteous, public spirited gentleman Mr. Jas. M. Allen, has not failed to net annually a handsome dividend, and last night made its stockholders glad by declaring a 10 per cent. dividend on the capital stock, after paying all taxes, insurance and general expenses.

This splendid result, achieved in a year that has been known as a "panic year," and in the face of fluctuating prices, is certainly most gratifying, both to the stockholders and Mr. Allen, as it should be also to every public spirited citizen in Goldsboro, for it shows conclusively that we've got a good town. And especially is it gratifying to the ARGUS, for the Goldsboro Shoe Store is one of our most liberal advertisers and its reports are enough to say that satisfactory results have been realized through its patronage of our columns.

Knowing the shoe business and knowing the trade Mr. Allen has always kept his complete store abreast of the public's needs, and the seasons come and go, and he being always conscientiously in evidence himself to see that the wishes of the community are satisfied, factory subsidized by his prompt and polite corps of salesmen, it is not to be wondered at that he is able to make such a fine showing for his company.

Purchases Store Here.

Mr. George Murphy, near town, has purchased from Mr. James Potts, of Norfolk, the store on the corner of Slocum and Elm streets for the consideration of $1,000 cash. The deal was made through the Real Estate Hustler E. L. Edmundson.

Mr. Murphy is one of the most substantial citizens of Wayne county and now he becomes identified with the city of Goldsboro.

TORE HIS SKIN OFF IN SHREDS

Itching was Intense—Humor Spread from Hands to Body—Work Interrupted and Sleep Often Impossible—Disease Resisted Treatment

"My trouble commenced about two years ago and consisted, at first, of an eruption of small pustules on my hands. These spread later to other parts of my body, and the itching at times was intense, so much so that I literally tore the skin off in shreds in seeking relief. The awful itching interfered with my work considerably, and also kept me awake nights. I tried several doctors and used a number of different ointments and lotions but received practically no benefit. Finally I settled down to the use of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent Pills, with the result that in a few days all itching had ceased and in about three weeks' time all traces of my eruption had disappeared. I have had no trouble of this kind since. H. A. Krutzick, 6714 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., November 18 and 28, 1907."

Eureka Happenings.

Mr. J. H. Exum, of Fremont, was a visitor to our town last Friday.

Miss Rosalie Sauls spent a few days this week with friends in Wilson.

Miss Susie Sauls, of your city, is visiting friends and relatives in Eureka.

Miss Ida Norly, who is teaching the Watery Branch school, was a visitor to Eureka Sunday.

Messrs. John Bardin, Frank and Hiram Walslow, of Saratoga, were visitors to our town Sunday.

Mrs. R. E. Baroes, of Rocky Mount, was on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones, the past week.

Mr. Golwin, of Goldsboro, was surveying and laying off lots for the Eureka cemetery for the past week.

Mr. Frank Beeton and his mother, Mrs. Ora Beeton, of Fremont, were guests of Mrs. G. R. Benton, Sunday.

Dr. G. R. Benton is suffering with a severe case of the grippe, and his many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bonge have moved to their farm about four miles from town, and we regret to lose this popular couple.

The Woman's Betterment Society will give a supper in the old school building, Friday night, January 15. All are cordially invited.

The many friends of Miss Lella Martin will be glad to know that she has recovered from the severe attack of tonsillitis, from which she has been suffering for the past week.

At the last meeting of the Betterment Society, Mrs. E. C. Exum gave two hand painted pictures to the primary room, that were much appreciated. They were painted by her young daughter and little son.

Quite a crowd from Eureka attended the Christmas concert given at Lebanon church last Wednesday night. It was indeed a success, and every one enjoyed the evening very much; too much praise can not be given the managers.

We believe our school is second to none in the county, we have enrolled 135 pupils and are expecting more next week. Our school grounds have been greatly improved. The Woman's Betterment Society has had thirty shade trees planted the past week and expect to put out more soon.
