LOCAL BRIEFS.

Items of Interest in and Around the City.

The inter-high school debate, Durham and Goldsboro, set for tonight in Durham, has been postponed for one week.

The mission that is being held nightly at 8 o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic Church, will not conclude until Sunday night, instead of Saturday night, as inadvertently stated in The Argus yesterday. Father Flemming will preach tonight at 8 o'clock, and the public are welcome.

Elsewhere in this issue is published the official call for a second Democratic primary to be held next Monday, to select a candidate for mayor. It behooves every progressive citizen to take interest in this primary and vote for one or the other of the candidates in the field. If your choice is not successful you will at least have the satisfaction that he did not fail of success by reason of your not voting for him. Go to the polls Monday and vote.

The singing class of the Masonic Orphanage at Oxford will be heard in Goldsboro June 15. On the previous day they will sing at Calypso.

A window that proclaims the event of spring may be seen at Isaacs' the leading furniture and china dealer. The large display window of this well-known firm is artistically decorated with the latest patterns and designs of matting. This is the first time that a "Matting Window" has been seen here, and it will be well worth your time to inspect this line.

Apropos of the article in this issue calling attention to delayed historical justice to the deeds of the Confederate Navy, our esteemed countyman and good friend, Col. W. B. Fort, of Pikeville, was a member of the Confederate Navy, and always talks interestingly of its heroic exploits. He was in the city today, and in talking with him on the subject, he called attention to the times then and now—especially with reference to the transmission of news, citing the instance, recorded in the article in this issue here referred to, that although Lee surrendered on April 9, 1865, it was not learned of by the gallant Captain Waddell, of the Shenandoah, until the 2nd day of August following.

That bitulthic paving that is being put down up at the west end of Walnut street is the right thing, and every citizen should visit the territory and scrutinize the work—watch the process from foundation to finishing because we are going to have a vote soon on street paving, and by familiarizing ourselves with this section of paving now being installed we can the better say if we want it to be put down throughout the city. Of course we all want to see Goldsboro with paved streets. We have passed the cross-roads period of our existence long ago, although one would not think so on inspecting our disreputable streets. Street improvement is the next thing in order, together with an electric car line to Seven Springs. We go forward.

Friends' Church.

Mrs. Anna Edgerton Williams, a former missionary in India, and a minister in the Friends' Church, is expected to preach morning and night at the Goldsboro Friends Church on the 15th at the usual hours. She has a large number of friends and relatives in Goldsboro and Wayne county, who will be glad to hear her.

On Monday, the 19th, Mrs. Williams will meet the missionary committees of the Friends' churches of Wayne county at the Goldsboro church.

PASTOR'S AID SOCIETY.

Memorial Meeting in Honor of Late Rev. F. W. Farries—Resolutions Adopted.

The Pastor's Aid Society of the Goldsboro Presbyterian Church held a memorial meeting in honor of their late pastor, Rev. F. W. Farries, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in their church, which was presided over by Dr. Clara E. Jones, and at which almost the entire membership was present.

At the opening and closing of the meeting favorite hymns of Mr. Farries were sung, and during the meeting a number of beautiful talks were made in tribute to his flawless pastorate and to his work and worth as a minister and man of God in the community as a whole, and the following preamble and resolutions were prepared and adopted by the meeting:

"Whereas God, in His inscrutable wisdom has seen fit to remove from his earthly ministry the saintly pastor of this church, the late Rev. F. W. Farries—calling him, as we believe, to the enjoyment of that reward which He has promised to his elect, be it

"Resolved, 1. That in the death of this truly good man, who 'pleased God and was beloved,' Goldsboro Presbyterian Church has lost a pastor that filled the measure of duty as only could have been done by a soul in touch with God and consumed with the fire of His encompassing love in all things that he undertook—doing all for the greater glory of God.

"2. That the Pastor's Aid Society have lost from their work one who was ever gracious in appreciation and helpful in prayer, one whose memory rests with us as a benediction and for whose coming among us, to show us the way, the truth and the life of Christ in the church we should always be unflinching thankful.

"3. That knowing him as he was and what he was we can truly say the community—humanity has lost an ever sympathetic, active, self-sacrificing friend of whose many and far-reaching deeds words cannot tell, but God knows.

"4. That this expression to his memory be spread upon a page of our society's minute book, and sent to the Presbyterian Standard and the city papers for publication, and a copy furnished the bereaved family as a token of our individual personal sympathy."

Marsh-Langston.

Elder J. W. Gardner last night at 8 o'clock in this city united in the holy bond of wedlock Mr. L. A. Marsh, of Greensboro, and Miss Lena Langston, daughter of the late B. J. Langston, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Callie Langston, on John street north.

The Argus extends its congratulations and good wishes.

CHAT ABOUT YOUR FRIENDS.

Mr. Geo. C. Royall went up to Raleigh this afternoon.

Mr. M. T. Johnson, of the Eureka section, was in the city today.

Miss Georgia Lee, who has been visiting Mrs. Fred Mintz at Mount Olive, returned home today.

Misses Rosa Powell, Alice Aycock, Hattie and LaMay Dewey are in Winston-Salem, attending a class reunion at their alma mater, Salem Academy.

Miss Carrie Wooten arrived home last night from Asheville, very greatly improved in health. Her many friends will be glad to learn, and greet home again.

Mrs. F. W. Farries will leave tomorrow night for Jersey City, N. J., to make her home, and this announcement will carry abiding sorrow to every heart in Goldsboro, where for nearly 16 years she has been one of us, and where she is held in such esteem as will enshrine her name with that of her late lamented and so greatly beloved husband in the hearts of his people for aye.

CALL FOR SECOND PRIMARY.

To Select a Democratic Candidate for Mayor.

At the primaries held on Wednesday, April 15, for the nomination of a candidate for mayor and two members of the board of public works, Mr. Geo. S. Dewey and Thos. H. Holmes, having received a majority of the votes cast, are hereby declared the nominees for members of the board of public works.

Neither of the candidates for mayor having received a majority of the votes cast, no nomination being made, a second primary is hereby called for Monday, April 19, for the nomination of a mayor. The same rules and regulations as governed the former primary will govern this, voting places, same as before.

AN OPEN LETTER.

Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 25, 1909.
Mr. Milton McIntosh,
Wilmington, N. C.

Dear Sir: On February 18, 1889, The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York issued on my life, Policy No. 359,601, for $5,000, on the Twenty Payment Life Plan. This policy matured on the 18th inst., and it gives me pleasure to state that the results are beyond my expectations.

The policy now becomes paid up for $5,000, no further premiums being required. In addition to this, I receive a cash dividend of $1,815.20, amounting to more than 40 per cent. of the premiums paid.

I also have the privilege, if I desire to exercise it, of surrendering the contract and receiving therefor, including the dividend, a total of $5,928.74 in cash. This amounts to a return of all premiums paid and $548.74 additional. When I consider that I have had an absolutely safe depository for this part of my funds, together with protection to the extent of $5,000 for twenty years, I regard this policy one of the best investments that I have ever made.

Yours truly,
A. DAVID,
N. E. BRADFORD, Agent.

Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in inclosing herewith my check for $66.93 and dividend voucher for $17.85 in payment of premium of $84.78 on account of my contract No. 190,769 for $3,000, and I wish to express to you my appreciation of this large dividend. This is the second dividend upon an ordinary life policy. The first dividend was paid at the end of the first year, which was also very satisfactory. The dividend of $17.85 is more than I expected.
I am also well pleased with the 59th Annual Statement of this Company, and recommend it to any one desiring good, safe life insurance, as I believe I am getting a square deal.
Very truly yours,
