MEHMED FIFTH

Mehmed Reschad Chosen as Ruler of the Empire.

Long Reign of the Sultan of Turkey Terminated by the Aggressive "Young Turks" Now in Control.

Constantinople, April 27.—The reign of Abdul Hamid II ended today with his deposition and the accession of his brother, Mohammed-Reschad Effendi, as Mehmed V, variation of "Mahomet," it being considered inappropriate to assume the name of the prophet. Mehmed V is the thirty-fifth sovereign of Turkey in male descent of the House of Osman, the founder of the empire, and is the twenty-ninth Sultan since the conquest of Constantinople.

The two houses of Parliament, meeting as a national assembly in the forenoon, approved the decree of deposition, which was read by Sheikhul-Islam, chief of the Ulemas and supreme judge on ecclesiastical questions. The document recited that Abdul Hamid's acts were contrary to the sacred law and set forth a long list of crimes, the whole making a terrible indictment. The assembly chose Mehmed-Reschad as Sultan and appointed committees to notify the deposed sovereign and his successor of its action. The firing of 101 guns announced to the waiting people that a new Sultan had been proclaimed.

The ceremonies called with the transfer of the power were simple. The newly chosen ruler came from his palace in Galata through streets lined with troops and cheering thousands and took the oath at the war office. He then proceeded to the parliament and later went to the Dolmabahatche Palace as head of the empire, where for so many years he had practically been a prisoner.

Martial law was relaxed tonight and the people gave themselves over to celebrating the victory of the Young Turks party and the end of Abdul Hamid's reign. Many buildings were illuminated and thousands of rounds were fired by the soldiers for joy. General good humor prevails everywhere.

The question of the new cabinet has not yet been settled, but it is thought that Ahmed Riza will be Grand Vizier, while some of his associates will probably be Hilma Pasha, the former premier, as minister of the interior; Djavid Bey, as minister of finance, and Rifat Pasha as minister of foreign affairs.

DON'T GROW OLD.

Keep Your Hair Bright and Luxuriant and Stay Young.

Yes, Parisian Sage, the most invigorating hair restorer, grows hair: the women of America, who have luxuriant hair, know it does, and that is why thousands of attractive women throughout the land are regularly using it.

For years this almost marvelous grower of lustrous and beautiful hair was confined to the elite of Europe and New York City, but about two years ago it was given to a select list of druggists, and today can be obtained in any city or town in America where society women of refinement dwell.

Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair tonic in the world. It makes the hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant in a few days. It is perfumed most delicately and is not sticky or greasy. It stops falling hair, cures dandruff and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

This is what Mrs. Elizabeth E. Anderson, Mechanicsburg, Pa., writes: "I had given up hope of ever being cured of dandruff, when I purchased a bottle of Parisian Sage. It has entirely removed the dandruff, and has given a growth of new hair, and all this after having been troubled for 15 years. I cheerfully recommend Parisian Sage."

J. H. Hill & Son are the regularly appointed agents in Goldsboro for Parisian Sage and they will sell you a large bottle under a rigid guarantee for 50 cents. A larger bottle of better tonic that's what you get when you lay down a half dollar for a bottle of Parisian Sage. The girl with the auburn hair is on every package and bottle.

NEWS IN GENERAL.

Carefully Cleaned and Bolled Down For Busy Readers.

Naples, April 27.—Eleven men were killed and eleven others were wounded as a result of an explosion here yesterday on board the Italian submarine Foca.

Flushing, N. Y., April 27.—The jury that is to try Captain Peter C. Hains for the murder of Wm. E. Annis, was finally completed today. It took just seven days to select the twelve men, and in that time 450 talesmen were called and examined. The state will present its case, beginning tomorrow, and from that time on the case will move expeditiously.

Warrenton, Va., April 27.—Preliminary hearing was waived today in the case of J. D. Harris, principal of the high school here, who shot W. A. Thompson, associate editor of the Warrenton Virginian, Saturday last in the main street here. Thompson lying in Washington the following day. Harris was held for the regular grand jury, which begins its sessions May 24 next. His bail first fixed at $29,000, was increased today to $30,000, two extra bondsmen being readily found.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 27.—The Florida House of Representatives today adopted a resolution endorsing "the Democracy of the matchless and peerless leader of the Democratic party, William Jennings Bryan." This is in the nature of a rebuke to Congressman Clark of Florida, who recently criticized Mr. Bryan in a speech in Congress. Governor Gilchrist will entertain Mr. Bryan on the occasion of the Nebraska's visit to Florida to make answer to the criticisms of Representative Clark.

Nashville, Tenn., April 27.—Judge Wm. H. Hart today overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of Col. Duncan B. Cooper and Robin J. Cooper, his son, both convicted of the murder of former United States Senator Carmack. The court's opinion was that there was no ground for setting aside the verdict of the trial jury. The defense at once gave notice of an appeal to the Tennessee Supreme Court. The appeal was granted. The bonds remain the same and the same bondsmen qualified. The defense demanded thirty days in which to file a bill of exceptions. Decision on this point was deferred till Saturday.

New Bern, N. C., April 27.—Federal Court convened here this morning, but adjourned at once until the October term on account of no judge being present.

Chapel Hill, N. C., April 27.—The University of North Carolina defeated Davidson College there this afternoon in a fast game by a score of 4 to 1.

Irvine, Ky., April 27.—The fate of Beach Hargis, the Breathitt county feud leader, rests with the jury tonight. A verdict is not expected until tomorrow.

THE SAN JOSE SCALE.

State Entomologist Says It Cannot Be Exterminated.

The State Department of Agriculture has just issued entomological circular No. 26, on "Remedies for the San Jose Scale," by Franklin Sherman, Jr. It prescribes the best treatment for the pest at all different seasons of the year.

It is the opinion of Entomologist Sherman that the San Jose scale cannot be exterminated. He says:

"No one need expect to exterminate or get rid of the San Jose scale when it once becomes firmly established in his orchard, no matter what measures he uses. It is here to stay, and our growers need to recognize it as a permanent pest, to be fought regularly and intelligently. If this be done there is no difficulty in keeping it in good control; but the man who starts in with the idea that he can exterminate it is apt to merely deceive himself. We need to look at this thing in the light of common sense experience. We don't expect to exterminate potato beetles, but the means of control are such that no potato grower need lose a crop from them. We do not expect to exterminate the flies in our houses, but the means of control enable us to reduce their number and control them. No insect pest which has so many means of spread has ever been absolutely exterminated when once thoroughly established. It is a matter of control, not of extermination."

Croker Sails for Home.

New York, April 28.—Having completed the longest visit he has paid this country since he took up his residence abroad, Richard Croker, the former Tammany Hall leader, sailed for home today on the Lusitania. A large crowd of friends was at the dock to bid him a rousing farewell.

BAILEY OF TEXAS

He Still Holds His Forensic Prowess in Debate.

He Corners Senator Aldrich and Forces That Gentleman Into a Rather Precarious Position.

The appellation, "The Mighty Texan," which Senator Bailey found attached to him after his effort on the railroad rate bill was made more descriptive in his reasoning and oratorical powers than ever when he had concluded the first installment of his speech in the Senate Monday. The Texas Senator left little to be said for his side of the question. His convincing logic in favor of compelling the rich to share their just part of the expenditures of the government and his appeal against the imposition of the exorbitant duty falling on the consumer in the Payne-Aldrich bill, held every senator in his seat and through a three hours' discussion of the intricacies of tariff schedules hardly an occupant of the galleries retired.

It is proverbial that the greatest speeches do not change votes in the Senate. The advocates of an income tax, however, have the satisfaction of knowing that the argument of Senator Bailey will not be answered in the Senate, and that the dissemination of the speech throughout the country will show conclusively whether the income tax be defeated, that the weight of the argument is upon their side. Weaving his case around the principles of Adam Smith, the senator demonstrated that his position and that of the Democratic senators is impregnable, and he served notice that the dominant party, if it defeated the amendment, would yet be called to meet the issue directly.

From a political standpoint perhaps the feature of the day was Bailey's forcing Senator Aldrich to take an open position against an income tax. The Rhode Island senator was reluctant to do this. Senator Bailey said that Senator Aldrich had once stated that the tax was socialistic and populist, but he would not do so now for the reason that he knew fifteen or twenty Republicans were considering voting for this kind of legislation. Senator Aldrich, somewhat uncertain, gave denial to this interpretation of his words, whereupon Senator Bailey read from the record the senator's remarks on the income tax feature in the Wilson bill debate confirming his statement.

"Now," said the senator, "is the President of the United States a socialist, or a populist?" From that time on Senator Bailey met with few interruptions and those that came had their origin in the legal phases of the discussion. In closing his speech Senator Bailey took occasion to express his confidence in the present members of the Supreme Court, and for those who had preceded them. He was not one of those who charged anything akin to bribery in the last opinion of the court overturning decisions since the founding of the government on the income tax question. He believed, however, that he was lacking in no respect to the court and was in his rights when he sought by every legislative means to secure a review of the question before that court. He added that he believed he could show that the Supreme Court would hold the amendment constitutional.

TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS.

Mary Barefoot was up before Mayor Ormond this morning on the charge of retailing whiskey without a license and was held for court. A number of witnesses were present and the case created much interest.

Mayor Ormond dismissed Pattie Barbara and Annie Edmundson, charged with disorderly conduct, upon payment of costs.

THE GOLDSBORO GIANTS.

Our Baseball Team Have Plenty of Pepper in Their Make-Up This Year, and Roy Miller Likes It.

Goldsboro's representatives on the diamond that have so far reported were out as usual yesterday afternoon despite the numerous showers of rain that fell. Miller certainly does not let a little thing like the weather bother him and his men, in their effort to get into condition.

The diamond was not in very good condition for practice yesterday and there was not as much of that sort of practice taken as had been on previous days, but they took their turns at the bat and ran bases. This year's team gives promise of being very fast on the bases and all that were out yesterday hit ball on the nose on each one of their trips to the plate.

Kelly looks like a "find" on third base, and that is where we were weak last season. He was with Jersey City last spring, and had several offers this year, but we were able to get him through Miller, who persuaded him to come here.

Too much cannot be said of the men, as they are all hard and earnest workers, and have lots of pepper, and a constant flow of talk can be heard from them all. Miller says he likes to hear a man have something to say during a game, as that keeps life in a team.

The rest should be coming in at most any time now.

HER EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY.

Family Reunion of Mrs. Eliza Moore, Near Atkinson, on Sunday.

Friends in this city, the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. O'Berry, and where Mrs. Moore numbers her friends by the score, will read with interest and pleasure the following, which we take from the Wilmington Star of this morning's issue:

Atkinson, N. C., April 27.—At the Moore residence near Atkinson, where Mrs. Ann Eliza Moore has lived ever since she married early in life, the late Joel L. Moore, was celebrated on Sunday a very happy occasion, it being Mrs. Moore's eightieth birthday. This is also the home of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Moore, whose wish it was on this anniversary they would have a reunion of all Mrs. Moore's children, this wish being successfully carried out. Her three sons with their wives and two daughters with their husbands were present. Those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Nathan O'Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Colin H. Moore, of Goldsboro; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hubbard, of Fayetteville, and Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Moore, of Southport.

Mrs. Moore received many beautiful flowers as tokens of love and esteem felt for her by her grandchildren and friends. Others who were with Mrs. Moore on this happy occasion were a grandson, Jeremiah Moore, of Fayetteville, and her only nephew bearing her maiden name, Mr. E. A. Hawes, Sr., and his wife, of Atkinson.

In this home are the five bright and happy children of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Moore, and in the afternoon all gathered in the parlor, Miss Miller at the piano, and sang several pieces.

Too much praise cannot be spoken for Mrs. George Moore's skill in preparing one of the most sumptuous four-course dinners your correspondent has had the privilege to partake of in quite a long time. The day came to a close only too soon, each one declaring its joys and pleasures will long be remembered.

IN HONOR OF NOBLE FRENCHMAN

Remains of Major Charles L'Enfant Transferred to National Cemetery.

WAS DESIGNER OF CAPITAL

Body Lay in State This Morning in Rotunda of Capitol—Memorial Service Attended by a Very Large Crowd.

Washington, D. C., April 28.—With simple though impressive ceremonies, the remains of Major Charles L'Enfant were today transferred to the National Cemetery at Arlington, thus being accorded the nation's greatest tribute to the memory of the distinguished French engineer who under the authority of General Washington laid out the plans for the capital city of the United States.

For the transfer of the remains of the designer of the beautiful capital from an obscure and unmarked grave at Green Hill, Md., to a more sightly resting place and the erection of a memorial, Congress recently appropriated $1,000.

This forenoon, before being removed to Arlington, the body of L'Enfant lay in state in the rotunda of the Capitol, and from 10 to 11 o'clock a memorial service was held. The service, although short and simple, was most impressive. The ceremonies were conducted in the presence of a congregation which included many from the highest official life of the nation, eminent representatives of the Society of the Cincinnati, of which Major L'Enfant was a member, and also representatives of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Columbia Historical Society, and the Washington Society of Engineers, which has taken a special interest in the transfer of L'Enfant's remains.

The two chief speakers at the memorial exercises were Vice-President Sherman and M. J. Jusserand, the ambassador from France. At the conclusion of the services the remains were taken from the Capitol to Arlington Cemetery under a military escort furnished by the War Department.

As has been the case with innumerable celebrities in all ages and all countries, the services of Major L'Enfant were but poorly appreciated and still more poorly recompensed during his lifetime. The government records show that he never received all that was promised him for his services in laying out the seat for the Federal government, though the amount in question was but $3,000.

DO YOU OWN A HYOMEL INHALER?

If you have a little Hyomel Inhaler (pronounced High-o-mee) in your home you have a treasure.

Into this hard rubber inhaler you can pour a few drops of Hyomel and presto, you have the best little physician for catarrh, coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup and asthma, the world has ever known.

When you breathe Hyomel you bring the healing virtues of the mountainous forests to your home. You get the very same healing, antiseptic air that you would breathe if you resided in the forests of pine and eucalyptus of inland Australia, where catarrh or consumption was never known to exist.

If you have a Hyomel Inhaler in your home, get a bottle of Hyomel for 50c.

If you have not an inhaler, ask for a complete outfit, which costs but $1.00, and includes an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomel, and simple instructions for use.

Hyomel is sold and guaranteed by J. H. Hill & Son to cure catarrh, asthma or bronchitis, or money back. It will relieve a cold in five minutes, and will break it up in five hours. It gives most gratifying relief to consumption sufferers, and is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

HAINS TRIAL.

Rattle for Life of Officer Opened in Real Earnest Today.

Flushing, N. Y., April 28.—The real battle for the life of Capt. Peter C. Hains began today with the presentation of the state's case by Attorney George A. Gregg.

After his speech the taking of testimony was begun. Many women were in court today for the first time since the beginning of the case, having been barred heretofore.

Negro Lynched This Morning Near Tampa.

Tampa, Fla., April 28.—Charles Carbarough, negro, who entered the room of Mrs. Prinson yesterday, was found by searching party this morning in top of a tree in nearby swamp. The mob compelled him to come down and then hanged him and riddled his body with shot. He confessed the crime. There were officers in the party, but they were unable to control the mob.

GREATER RESULTS FOR GREATER GOLDSBORO.

Goldsboro, N. C., April 19, 1909.

Mr. H. M. Humphrey, Manager National Life Insurance Company, Goldsboro, N. C.

Dear Sir: It is with pleasure that I enclose herewith my check for $26.28 and divided voucher for $8.02 in payment of premium of $34.30 due April 30th, on account on my contract No. 134,659 for $2,500 and I wish to express here my appreciation of this large dividend, which is in excess of 23 per cent. of the premium. This policy is issued upon the 10-Year Renewable Term plan, the gross premium being only $34.30, which I regarded at the time of buying the insurance very cheap. The policy is renewable at the end of each 10-year period, of exchangeable at any time without re-medical examination. I think this is the cheapest form of insurance in existence and regard the National Life Insurance Company as one of the best companies in the world.

Its 50th annual statement is very satisfactory. I also approve of its system of making its investments in the states in which it does business and recommend it to the insuring public.

Yours very truly,
D. H. DIXON.
