Goldsboro, N. C., December 19, 1908.

To My Friends and Patrons:

Having dissolved partnership with T. N. Waters & Bro., as owners of the Palace Drug Store and The City Pharmacy, I take this means of thanking you for your liberal patronage in the past. I have assumed entire charge and control of The City Pharmacy, at No. 128 East Walnut Street, and will be found there at your service. My experience in dispensing drugs has now covered a period of 27 years. My accurate methods, constant and careful attention directed towards the Prescription Department, has rewarded me with the hearty endorsement of the medical fraternity, and, through my untiring efforts to please and courteously serve, has won for me the admiration and confidence of the public at large, for which I am deeply grateful.

Again thanking you for past courtesies, and soliciting your patronage in the future, I am,

Yours for quick service,
THE CITY PHARMACY,
W. V. WILLIAMS, Sole Proprietor.

All orders delivered in 15 minutes to any part of the city.
