ADAMS DECLARES SUTTON SUICIDED

Mother and Sister of Dead Man Are Present at Inquiry

MANY DISCREPANCIES

Declares There Is a Plot to Send Him to the Gallows—Adams Illustrated His Testimony by Re-enacting the Tragic Scene in the Court Room.

Annapolis, Md., July 19.—The opening session here today of the court of inquiry which is conducting a second investigation into the death of Lieutenant James Sutton, of the United States Marine Corps, was replete with dramatic situations.

The court assembled in the big auditorium of the Academic Building. The very largeness of the hall added to the atmosphere of solemnity.

Lieut. Robert E. Adams, Sutton's former classmate at the Academy, and one of the principal actors in the midnight fight which cost Sutton his life nearly two years ago, occupied the witness stand during the entire session, and told a graphic story of the incidents leading up to Sutton's death.

Under the severe cross examination of Henry E. Davis, counsel for Mrs. Sutton, the young officer sat facing Sutton's mother and sister during his examination.

His brother officers, Lieutenants Bevan and Osterman, flanked by Adams' two lawyers, sat further down the inquiry table. Maj. Henry Leonard, U. S. M. C., the Judge Advocate, and the three members of the board completed the impressive setting, in their white service uniforms.

At one point in his testimony, Lieutenant Adams and an orderly enacted the struggle with Sutton in the court room. The witness chair was removed and they both lay prone upon the floor. The witness was still under cross examination when the inquiry adjourned until tomorrow morning.

Mr. Davis succeeded in bringing out a number of discrepancies in Adams' testimony today, compared with his version of the tragedy at the former investigation when the board of inquiry found that Sutton died by his own hand.

A ride to the marine camp in an automobile with Sutton and two other officers of marines, Lieutenants Uley and Osterman, an altercation between Sutton and the witness and a deferred encounter when the senior officer interfered, as the automobile was to stop short of the camp with the intention of avoiding being caught returning after hours; a later accidental meeting of the witness and Sutton, on the border of the woods near the barracks and the fight between the two men with Sutton armed with a revolver in either hand and firing five shots, the last of which he directed at his own head while lying on the ground, these were the points in Lieutenant Adams' testimony.

The witness said he had risen from the prostrate Sutton, who he believed to be exhausted, and stood a few feet back of him when he saw Sutton raise his right hand and fire a bullet into his own head. Just previously one of the officers who had come upon the scene had cried that Lieutenant Edward P. Roelker had been shot and killed, the witness said.

Adams had made no attempt to take the revolver from Sutton's hand when he broke away or was pulled away from him, he said, in reply to Lawyer Davis' oft-repeated question.

Sutton had previously threatened to kill and was generally avoided by the marines because of his wild talk and actions, according to the witness.

After the session Mr. Davis said that it was not his intention to fasten the responsibility of Sutton's death upon any one, but that every effort would be made to discredit and refute the suicide theory.

Roelker is an important witness who has not yet been located.

Mrs. Sutton's counsel said tonight that Miss Margaret Stewart, of Pittsburg, the young woman who was with Sutton most of the evening before he met his death, might be called as a witness.

GIANTS GOING UP—TOBACCONISTS GOING DOWN.

(By L. C. Bass.)
Respectfully dedicated to
Mr. R. E. Plinkin.

A song was requested
Through The Argus, renowned,
On the Giants going up,
Tobaccoists going down.
This subject is easy,
We will all compete
For the situation,
The highest seat.
Now is the question,
How is this found?
The Giants going up,
Tobaccoists going down.

'Twas some days ago
The Giants were third,
Tobaccoists on top
And eating Red Bird.
Things seemed gloomy,
All very sore,
But oh, you Brandon,
And what about Stoehr,
Giants killing Red Birds
To the tune of four,
And the Tobaccoists
Got three dips at the shore.
Now "R. E." is yelling all
Over this town
Giants going up and
Tobaccoists going down.

We all were there,
The weather was hot
But after the game
Oh such a lot,
"Andy," they cried,
"Your arm needs a poultice,
Never again pitch
Against Otis."
"Was the umpire fair?"
Someone asked,
Yes, my friend, alas, alas,
Mobles and bugles
Were now moving around,
The Giants were going up,
Tobaccoists going down.

The cry was heard
Far and wide,
"Mr., is that option
yet alive?"
"We still have Andy,
Your word and bid.
Take him, sir,
It includes the kid."
The manager is in the country—
Not in town.
For the Giants are going up,
Tobaccoists going down.

It was Donk in left
Sharpe in the middle
Stubbe over in right
To play the fiddle.
Smith at third
With Gettig at short
Steiny at second,
Do we love him sport?
And so this is
The team p'nt around,
As the Giants were going up
Tobaccoists going down.

Next is first s'cker,
Pap, Capt. Crockett,
Faiton behind the bat
R. F. will tell us
How he puts it in the pocket.
There are some on the bench
Who were not in the game,
Had they been there
It would have been all the same,
So we yell to Old Glory,
To sound and resound,
The Giants are way on top
Tobaccoists going down.

GOOD JOBS FOR MEN.

Government Needs Postoffice Clerks, Carriers and Railway Mail Clerks— Salary $600 to $1,600—Examination in November or December.

Why don't you work for Uncle Sam? Eight thousand positions are to be filled. The pay is large; the hours short; you get a vacation with pay every year and no lay-offs at any time.

The government wants men over 18 with only ordinary common, every-day education to take examinations in this vicinity for positions mentioned above and the Government Civil Service Inspectors with their expert knowledge of the examination can prepare any man in a few weeks.

Any reader of the Argus who wishes to work for Uncle Sam can get complete free information how to prepare for the civil service examinations by writing the Government Civil Service Inspectors, Dept. 179, Rochester, N. Y.

BASEBALL BUNTS.

The game yesterday was won by the Giants' superior playing. The Sailors making three errors and the Giants none.

Three of the four runs were earned yesterday.

Smith's two-bagger scored the first run. Smith's one of the best batters in the league.

That pretty hit of Sharpe's in the eighth brought in Crockett and Doak. Talk about hitters—Sharpe's the man.

Great baseball weather.

Great game our Giants put up yesterday.

Great teams—our Giants.

Same old story—Otis pitched a beauty game yesterday.

Gettig fooled that unsuspecting Sailor boy. The Sailor thinking Otis had the ball, wandered a little off first when Gettig threw the ball to Crockett, with the force of a cannon ball and the Sailor was out.

Stubbe caught two Sailors at second. Nice throwing, Stubbe.

"Rube" Howard asked the grandstand what they were laughing at. He never did see where the fun came in. "Never heard of Rube Howard?" Well, well! Tell him who Rube is, Grandpap.

Says the Greek student of the Raleigh Times in yesterday evening's issue: "Suffering pollywogs! Jack the Giant-Killer, is not in the Highlanders' class. Two games from Crockett's beauties in one day! Gee, I bet it took a carload of stimulants to revive that Goldsboro Argus dopester. It was rumored that he gasped for air for fully two hours after the second contest." Now where did you get that rumor? Somebody's questioning you; for the "dopester" in question was in Raleigh Saturday afternoon—"gasping for air." It is true—panting for the pure air of Goldsboro. Gee, but it's tough to have to be in Raleigh! Even the baseball park looks like a hole in the ground!

Have you heard of the new association, as a side-issue of the Athletic Association? It has just been organized since Add Holland got in town. It is known as the Baseball Fans' Association. Add Holland is president; Add Holland, secretary and treasurer; Add Holland, chief router; Add Holland—Membership limited. Apply in person to Add Holland.

Francis Tomlinson will please take notice that Add Holland and his association will be in Fayetteville Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, to root for Goldsboro.

The Raleigh "News and Disturber" seems to take especial delight in keeping its percentage column wrong as to Goldsboro's team's standing in the league. Today it reinstates the contested game of July 7, of its own volition, to Raleigh's credit and Goldsboro's loss, although this game has been officially passed upon by the league management and ordered expunged from the record. The "News and Usurper" ought at least to recognize the organized league in baseball, since it is such a demander of recognition for organized political party platforms.

Mr. Add Holland is in town—got here rather late, but he's here all right, and "Baseball King" has been dethroned. He ain't in it when Add opens up, and consequently as Add has his whole association out at every game, Mr. King just stays over about the benches and registers mental comments on—well—everybody knows that "Pat" and Add are the original Alfonso and Gaston.

Say! Loosen up! Come out tomorrow—Wednesday—afternoon and root for Goldsboro against Wilmington!!! Keep the Giants climbing. Your presence at the games helps the local team. Be patriotic. You'll be dead a long time.

STOOD RUBE ON HIS HEAD.

Goldsboro's Giants Make Wilmington's Sailors Look Like Pigmies at Play.

Gee, but wasn't that a game yesterday!

Goldsboro, 4.
Wilmington, 0.
Otis for Goldsboro; "Rube" Howard for Wilmington.

"Nuff ced!"

SUPT. WOLTZ RESIGNS. Board Will Meet Friday Night to Elect His Successor.

At a called meeting of the board of trustees of the Goldsboro public schools, held this afternoon, Mr. A. E. Woltz tendered his resignation as superintendent of the schools to accept a more lucrative position with the State University at Chapel Hill, to which he was recently elected, and one that is in every way desirable.

Mr. Woltz has been for only two years superintendent of our schools, but in that time he has inaugurated many palpably advantageous changes in the school work and established a system of study and discipline that already has made its impress upon the school and the community, and has won for him the cordial approval of all who believe that training the conduct of children as well as the trend of their minds in study is a vitally important feature of public school education.

It is therefore to be greatly regretted that Mr. Woltz is to leave Goldsboro just as the great work he has planned and inaugurated is but beginning to manifest results and give assurance of most satisfactory and permanent improvement all along the line.

Of course, with the flattering position proffered him at Chapel Hill, Mr. Woltz would not be true to the duty he owes himself and his family not to accept it, and therefore The Argus, while gratified at his merited recognition and preferment, can only express its sincere regret that Goldsboro is to lose so valuable a man to the educational interests and so fine a disciplinarian to the youth of the city.

The board of trustees, while regretting to do so, felt it due to Mr. Woltz to accept his resignation, and appointed Friday evening of this week for a meeting to elect his successor.

MR. D. E. SMITH STRICKEN. Suffers Another Stroke of Paralysis Today at His Farm.

Mr. Ed. Smith, of this city, while at his farm over the river this morning, looking after some work, was again prostrated by a stroke of paralysis, from which at this hour he is still helpless, though conscious.

His family were quickly summoned and are with him at this writing, and will be with him till he can be removed to his home here.

Mayors of Texas Confer.

San Angelo, Tex., July 20.—Mayors and other officials of the leading cities of the state gathered here today for the ninth annual meeting of the Mayors' Association of Texas. Municipal problems of great variety will be wrestled with at the meeting, which will be in session three days.

Water supply, the care of paupers, sewage and garbage disposal, and the commission form of government for cities under 10,000 population are some of the questions that will be exhaustively discussed.

The convention was called to order at eleven o'clock this morning by Mayor F. C. Highsmith, of Mineral Wells, president of the association. Mayor C. T. Paul, of San Angelo, delivered an address of welcome, and Mayor V. D. Davis, of Fort Worth, responded for the visitors. The annual address of the president and the reports of the other officers occupied the remainder of the opening session.

They do say that the line of writing tablets being sold by the Goldsboro Drug Company at 5 and 10 cents is equal to any ever seen hereabouts usually sold for more money.

Cold in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 20.—Pittsburg is experiencing the coldest July weather since the establishment of the local branch of the weather bureau, the thermometer falling to 52 degrees.

The rearest approach to this July coolness record was reached in 1886, when the temperature fell to 54 degrees. Slightly warmer weather is promised for this afternoon and tonight.

THE G. O. P. It Was Hopeful Designs on the Old Dominion.

Although Virginia Has Heretofore Been a Strong Democratic State, Republican Leaders Express Confidence.

Washington, D. C., July 20.—On the eve of the assembling of the Virginia Republican convention at Newport News there is manifested among the politicians here a lively interest in the situation in the Old Dominion. The convention will name candidates for governor and other state officers to be voted for at the election this fall.

Although Virginia has heretofore been a strong Democratic state, Republican leaders express confidence that conditions are decidedly in their favor, owing to dissensions in the Democratic party. Many well informed politicians declare that the state is ripe for a political revolution.

State expenditures during Governor Swanson's administration have largely increased without appreciable betterment of conditions. The Republican party, therefore, pledges itself to insert a clause in its platform providing for a decrease in state expenditures. Another issue is the appointment of state officials by the governor. The Republicans declare that these 200 or more appointments should be by special act of the legislature reposed in the hands of the people, by whom they should be elected at the polls.

Other planks the Republicans will incorporate in their platform are abolition of poll taxes, local option and reform never before known to the state is vouchered for by party leaders.

A. P. Gillespie, of Tazewell, can have the gubernatorial nomination if he will accept it. Mr. Gillespie's strength lies in the fact that he is an able business man, who has eschewed partisan politics, and is therefore strong with the independent voters of the state. He is an extensive land owner, which makes him popular with the farmers, and one of the foremost members of the Virginia bar. He has a large clientele among the coal producers of Southwest Virginia, where he is known as a brilliant lawyer. He has never held any political position.

It is understood that President Taft has personally urged Mr. Gillespie to become the Republican standard bearer in the approaching campaign, and on all sides it is admitted that he would be able to give the Democratic candidate, whether the latter is Sr. George Tucker or Judge Mann, a hard fight for election. Nevertheless there is much doubt as to whether Mr. Gillespie can be prevailed upon to accept the nomination. Should he decline to allow his name to be presented to the convention the contest for the head of the ticket will be fought out among a field of favorite sons.

DAUGHTER OF PRES DAVIS DEAD Mrs. Margaret Howell Hayes Passes Away at Colorado Springs.

Colorado Springs, Col., July 19.—The body of Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, daughter of Jefferson Davis, who died at her home here last evening, will rest with the Davises in the family lot at Richmond, Va. According to present plans the funeral will be held from the Colorado Springs residence, Wednesday morning, with immediate friends in attendance. The body will afterwards be taken to the receiving vault at Evergreen Cemetery here, where it will remain until fall, when it will be taken to Richmond. Special services will be held at St. Paul's Church, Richmond, the family church, at the time of the burial. Arrangements are already under way for memorial services at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, of which Mrs. Hayes was a member here, and at Grace Episcopal Church, also of Colorado Springs, on Sunday.

Southerners in the city on their vacation will take a prominent part in the memorial services. Social activities of the region will be largely suspended until after the funeral Wednesday, Mrs. Hayes having been active in society and club life here for years.

PELLAGRA AMONG THE CHICAGO INSANE

Chicago, July 20.—Five people are dead and three are slowly dying at the Dunning Hospital for the insane from the mysterious and fatal tropical disease known as pellagra.

The malady, which is said to be due to eating spoiled corn meal or flour, first made its appearance last September and puzzled physicians. Dr. E. A. Lavender, of the United States Marine Hospital Service, was sent for and now, after a thorough investigation, he pronounces the disease to be pellagra.

The disease, though rare, is one of the worst of the tropics. It first appears in the skin. It gradually eats the body and finally destroys the brain. Even in the Oriental countries where it is best known, no cure has ever been found. In the tropics it proves fatal within three months after the first symptoms appear.

MAKES A TRIPLE PLAY. First Play of the Kind Got Off for Three Years.

Cleveland, O., July 19.—Neal Ball, playing shortstop for the Clevelanders in the first game of a double-header with Boston today, pulled off a triple play, unassisted, the first one made by any league player since September 6, 1906, when Murch, of the Manchester team, made one, retiring the New Bedford team. Ball's play was the seventh recorded unassisted triple play.

Wagner, the first man up in the second inning, bounced a hit off Bradley's glove. Stahl beat out a bunt. McConnell, the next man up, had two strikes and three balls, and as Young started to pitch what would be the deciding ball Wagner took a high lead off second. The hit and run play had been signalled.

McConnell hit a savage liner that looked like a safe hit over second. Ball ran over, caught the ball, and touched second, retiring O'Connell and Wagner. He then touched out Stahl before he could turn to run back to first.

Ball followed this up by knocking out a home run, and the next time at the bat smashed out a triple.

"KING" ADAMS A VISITOR. Has Arrived in Boston and Will Visit Washington and Other Cities.

Boston, July 20.—On board the nited Fruit Company's steamship Limon when she reached port here from Port Limon, Costa Rica, was no less distinguished a personage than "King" Alouzo Adams, supreme ruler and owner of Swan Island, situated in the Caribbean Sea, and one of the most important strategic points in the entire West Indies.

The big fruiter stopped off Swan Island on being signalled by Adams' steam yacht and took on board the "king" and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. C. Adams. "King" Adams will visit Washington for a conference with the officials of the State Department. He will also take in the principal cities in the East before returning to his domain.

The one sure way to get money is to put the best there is in you, on that job, and keep at it.

A very sure way to get your money's worth is to buy your drugs and toilet articles at The Imperial.

Have your prescriptions filled with Squibb's drugs at The Imperial, and you will be right.

The Imperial Pharmacy is a Squibb drug store, first, last, and all the time.

We know how to conduct a business on the mutual benefit plan, and we are doing just this thing at The Imperial Pharmacy.

Are you opinionated? You should be, especially about the medicine you take.

All you good people who have tried and know the superior quality of Squibb's drugs will confer a favor by telling your neighbors that Squibb's drugs are kept at The Imperial.

You haven't any "lead pipe cinch" on health, and it will be well worth your while, when sick, to insist upon having your prescriptions filled with Squibb's drugs at The Imperial.

"In words that burn" we would impress you with the importance of having your doctor's prescription filled with the best drugs in the right way.

It is certainly of very great importance to you—this matter of getting the right drugs, compounded in the right way. You are safe both ways if you send that prescription to The Imperial Pharmacy.

You take no chances at The Imperial. You get the purest and most effective drugs in that prescription, every time—for we buy no other kind.

The opinion of those experts who have charge of the hospital service of Your Uncle Sam is that Squibb's drugs are best. It is pretty safe to follow them. You get Squibb's drugs compounded in the right way at The Imperial Pharmacy.

No kind of information comes amiss, and it is surely worth your while to know, and remember, that Squibb's drugs are the top notch of excellence.

That is the reason for their use at The Imperial.
