

S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER ETC.

While Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, etc., are troubles which affect the skin, their source is far deeper than the outside cuticle. These affections are caused by irritating humors, or uratic acid in the blood. Such impurities inflame and irritate the delicate net-work of fibrous tissue which lies just beneath the surface of the outer skin, and the inflammatory discharge thus produced is forced out through the pores and glands, and is continually kept up while the blood remains infected. This exudation causes the formation of scales and crusts so often seen in Eczema, and when they are scratched off the flesh is left raw and more susceptible to other infection. It can very readily be seen then that to produce a cure the circulation must be purified and cleansed. This S. S. S. will do. It goes down to the very bottom, removes all humors and impurities, neutralizes the excessive acids of the system and in this way removes the cause of disease. Local applications can only soothe the irritation and assist in keeping the skin clean; they never produce a cure because such treatment does not reach the blood. S. S. S. restores to the thin, acid blood all its lost properties, makes it pure and rich and enables it to nourish the skin and keep it soft, smooth and healthy. AS WE GO ALONG.

Scratch-pad Reflections, Wise and Otherwise.

All life's troubles seem to fade away when we cease to care for what the neighbors say. When we keep our minds on what we have to do, working hard so there's no time for feeling blue.

Walter Wellman seems to have been left up in the air.

The New York Post publishes an "Appraisal of Poets." Thirty cents a dozen would be about right.

A citizen of Boston preferred to mind his wife rather than the court which summoned him as a witness. Shows fine training.

Flipping coins has been adjudged a breach of the peace in a Rhode Island town. Before long it will be against the law for people to wiggle their ears.

Uncle Sam is preparing to give moving picture shows of farming operations to exploit the work of the Agricultural Department, which will no doubt be made interesting by rare views of the hired man in action.

A "dook" comes over from abroad and says that the Elkins royal blue is not the up-to-date kind. Instead of being blue, it seems to be a pale pink.

"Purple and fine linen add nothing to a man's voice," says Joe Cone in the Boston Herald. Quite true, but often a tenor voice adds to the purple and fine linen.

People who have fallen into the habit of predicting a hard winter are again making themselves heard over the land.

The less said about the new lids to be worn by women this winter the better.

"Woman suffrage is perfectly senseless," says the Duke of Newcastle. Keenful, duke!

A Chicago girl is feeling sore because she wrote her name on a dollar bill and got an answer from a bald-headed bachelor.

A famous wing shot is reported to have winged himself with fatal results. Whether he is wearing wings now or not is another matter.

The belle of an Indiana town has eloped with the "wild man" of a circus. Probably sick of dudes.

Representative Fowler says Speaker Cannon has a bad record. Almost as bad, it would appear, as the cigars he smokes.

A New Jersey woman clapped a tin pall down on a rattlesnake, lassoed him with a slip noose made with her apron strings and took the snake home. And yet that very woman would probably lose all sense of decorum in the presence of a mouse.

His friends call him "Little Freddie," but he found the north pole.

Maggie Cline, who sings, "Throw Him Down, McClusky," is dangerously ill. It seems that a combination of lobster and ice cream threw her down.

Diss De Barr says she will go on the stage and seek vindication. What she will probably get will be a miscellaneous assortment of vegetables.

A Philadelphia man declares that bees are his best tenants. They occupy a home on the upper floor of a four-story business block belonging to him, and not the seat of his trousers.

An Eastern man was so afraid to face his creditors that he committed suicide and took the chances of facing his Creator.

A Connecticut woman had a trolley car stopped so she could take a pill. If the conductor didn't swear when he regained his power of speech, he must have been an angel.

The less you know about certain people the better opinion you have of them.

There are times when a conscience is an inconvenient thing to have around.

The average woman seems to think that her husband's wife is too good for him.

A man can see beauty in any woman if he has the right kind of an imagination.

No, Alonzo, we never heard of a real man who had his finger nails polished by a manicure.

The average woman thinks she hasn't anything to worry about.

HARRIMAN'S POLICY.

Had Great Plans for Developing the South.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 16.—Jas. U. Jackson, of Augusta, Ga., one of the business associates of the late E. H. Harriman, and part owner of the Augusta Street Railway system, in speaking of the great financier's death tonight said:

"I do not know what the policy of Mr. Harriman's successor will be, but I know that his death will be one of the greatest shocks to the progress of the South that could have occurred."

"I am in a position to know that it was Mr. Harriman's intention to use his Illinois Central and Central of Georgia lines for the developing of the South's resources and to further the interests of the more progressive communities."

"He spent over one hundred millions of dollars in doing the same for the rehabilitation of the Union Pacific Railroad, which developed the country through which its lines passed."

Williams Stock Company Next Week.

"Thorns and Orange Blossoms" is the title of the play in which the Williams Stock Company will open a six nights' engagement at the Messenger Opera House Monday night. In view of the fact that theatre patrons measure the standard of the repertoire by the opening production, it is a plausible assertion on the part of the management, that the play for Monday night has been carefully selected, and that every detail, both in regard to costume and scenic effects, has been duly considered and provided for.

The above society comedy drama—with its intensely interesting plot involving European titles and American wealth and introducing two comedy roles of exceptional merit perfects a production that is worthy the patronage of the most critical. Polite vaudeville is a feature at every performance.

Popular prices will prevail throughout the week.

AT ALL DRUG STORES

At the North Pole

the don't use soap, but here in Goldsboro they do.

The ordinary 5 and 10 cent soap you buy out of the first store you run into, is made out of the refuse matter of the great slaughter houses, and the bone-yards of large cities, highly colored and perfumed and wholly unfit to be used by particular people.

The Toilet Soaps we sell are bought from manufacturers who make a specialty of producing only wholesome soaps, made from cottonseed oil and healthy tallow and glycerine.

We mention only a few brands here, but if you will call at our store we will show you a line of Toilet Soaps that will please both your taste and pocketbook; the largest and most select line of Toilet Soap to be seen in Goldsboro.
