LOCAL BRIEFS.

Items of Interest in and Around the City.

Miss Annie Cox, of Newton Grove, is in the city, visiting relatives.

—Mr. James W. Morris, Jr., returned to his studies at Chapel Hill today.

—"Macbeth" tonight; "Faust" tomorrow night at the Messenger Opera House.

—Miss Lucia Privett went up to Wilson last night for a few days to visit friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stanton, of Wilson, and daughter Lucile are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Winstead.

—Mr. Doyle B. Privett, of Bingham School, returned to Mebane, N. C., this morning, having come to participate at the marriage of his sister yesterday evening.

Mrs. James W. Morris, coming from Baltimore, joined Mr. Morris here, who came on to his brother's funeral, and they will return to their home in Tampa in a few days.

—The city is elaborately billed for the appearance of Mr. John Griffith and his splendid company of players at the Messenger Opera House this evening in "Macbeth," and tomorrow evening in "Faust."

—Misses Elsie and Mary Moore, Dr. Paul Lane, Dr. Henry Best, John Gorham, of Wilson, Frank Freeman, of Norfolk, and Jack N. Milner, of New York, of the Moore-Privett bridal party, returned last night.

—Dr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. Harry Walls, Miss Walls, and Miss Nora Thomas, of Wilson, and Mrs. R. M. Moore, of Rocky Mount, who came down yesterday afternoon to attend the Moore-Privett wedding, returned home last night.

—The Argus is gratified to note continued improvement in the condition of little Martha Lee Borden, who, although not yet round the danger point, from the recent operation for appendicitis, is doing just as nicely as could be wished.

—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hobbs, in this city today at noon, Mr. Jesse G. Brown, of Kingston, and Miss Estelle W. Hobbs were united in the holy bond of wedlock, Rev. G. T. Watkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. The newly-wedded pair left on the afternoon train for a bridal trip to the Raleigh Fair, after which they will return to their home in Kingston. The Argus tenders its abiding good wishes.

—At the depot this morning one would have thought the whole of Goldsboro's population were en route for the Raleigh State Fair, so numerous was the throng of citizens pressing for tickets and awaiting the outgoing of the regular and special trains; and yet so populous has Goldsboro become, and so many are the busy traders that visit our city daily and frequent our stores that from a population standpoint the hundreds of our people who are taking in the fair today are not missed.

REAL ESTATE DEAL.

Mr. W. C. Brogden Purchases Desirable Home.

Mr. W. C. Brogden, of the money order department of the Goldsboro post-office, and an all-round competent official as well as courteous and popular, today became the owner, by purchase, of the desirable home of Mr. Sam Crow, on Virginia street, the consideration being $2,875 cash.

The sale was negotiated and effected through Mr. Ed. L. Edmundson, the Real Estate Hustler, who always keeps things moving and is a valuable optimistic spirit in the public life and progress of Goldsboro.

Duofold

Take a Duofold garment in your own hands and examine it.

Notice how light and elastic it is. Feel how fine and smooth the inside cotton, linen or silk fabric is—no prickly, crawling wool against your skin. Notice that the outer fabric—wool or silkoline, as you choose—is held to the inner one by a stitch in the knitting, every inch or so. And between the fabric is a layer of air. That is the beauty of

Improved Duofold Health Underwear

Put the garment on—You feel no weight. After exercise it doesn't stick to you. Go from a hot room out of doors—there's no chill. The air between the fabrics ventilates the garment and adds warmth, but no weight. Why not have perfect ease and perfect protection in one garment? Why not go after it today?

Various styles, weights and shades. Sizes and fit guaranteed.
