

Get Well

If you are sick, you wish to get well, don't you? Of course you do. You wish to be rid of the pain and misery, and be happy again.

If your illness is caused by female trouble, you can quickly get the right remedy to get well. It's Cardui. This great medicine, for women, has relieved or cured thousands of ladies, suffering like you from some female trouble.

TAKE CARDUI

For Women's Ills

Mrs. Fannie Ellis, of Foster, Ark., suffered agony for seven years. Read her letter about Cardui. She writes: "I was sick for seven years with female trouble. Every month I would very nearly die with my head and back. I took 12 bottles of Cardui and was cured. Cardui is a God-send to suffering women." Try it.

"A KNIGHT FOR A DAY."

A Prime Favorite With Goldsboro Theatre Patrons Is Coming Back.

To those who follow things theatrical, the fact that the big musical gaiter, "A Knight for a Day," came to New York direct from its phenomenal success of 607 performances in Chicago and immediately gained favor with the patrons of the theatre in the Eastern metropolis to such an extent that it continued at Wallack's for six months to capacity business, will doubtless be ample proof of its legitimate claim to the most tuneful score, the cleverest book and the most delightful lyrics of any musical piece in the past decade.

The initial presentation was made under the direction of B. C. Whitney, who still stands sponsor for it, and the statement that it is credited with excellent in perfectness of scenic equipment, electric novelties and richness of costumes any production previously made by this well-known producer of musical plays, will mean a great deal more to those who are familiar with his lavishness in this regard than a mere idle boast.

Like all other Whitney productions, the ensembles, dances and chorus evolutions have been devised by Gus Sohike, whose cleverness in his particular line has won him the name of the "Wizard."

Mr. Sohike is said to be one of the few directors of musical productions who can produce season after season and still never duplicate any of his clever work. Each number he puts on is said to be in a class entirely by itself, and he is said to have given his latest effort several novelties which will be a surprise to even those who are familiar with his work.

"A Knight for a Day" will be seen at the Messenger Opera House on Friday night of this week, and its high merit is so thoroughly known to Goldsboro theatre patrons that it needs no commendation—simply the announcement of the date of its appearance here.

Seats are now on sale at Hill's drug store.
