

Get Well

If you are sick, you wish to get well, don't you? Of course you do. You wish to be rid of the pain and misery, and be happy again.

If your illness is caused by female trouble, you can quickly get the right remedy to get well. It's Cardui. This great medicine, for women, has relieved or cured thousands of ladies, suffering like you from some female trouble.

TAKE CARDUI

For Women's Ills

Mrs. Fannie Ellis, of Foster, Ark., suffered agony for seven years. Read her letter about Cardui. She writes: "I was sick for seven years with female trouble. Every month I would nearly die with my head and back. I took 12 bottles of Cardui and was cured. Cardui is a God-send to suffering women." Try it.

—Mrs. B. R. Hood has gone to Augusta, Ga., where she will spend Thanksgiving and remain over Christmas at the home of her son, Mr. Jas. A. Hood, who is a leading furniture dealer of that city.

"A KNIGHT FOR A DAY."

Splendid Big Production Delights Raleigh Audience.

Raleigh News and Observer.

E. C. Whitney's big and splendid production of "A Knight for a Day," which appeared at the Academy of Music last evening, actually took the house by storm. It won from start to finish and there was applause straight along.

The company playing the piece this season is a superior one, and it presents Mr. Whitney's production in a style that is delightful all through. The Academy and Mr. Upchurch are to be congratulated on securing so big an attraction, one that won high praise in New York and Philadelphia.

The "knight for a day," Jonathan Joy, a self-alleged lawyer, by profession a waiter, who in real life is George Ovey, was a show in himself. It was around his antics that the plot centered and his impersonation was with a brilliancy and dash that convulsed the audience almost at his every appearance.

In manner Ovey resembles Marceline, the famous clown at the New York Hippodrome. With a vim that was never lacking, Ovey danced, sang, pranced and hopped about with a lightness that was funny and fascinating. That Broadway is destined to see him as a star at no distant time is the prediction of the footlight followers.

Miss Louise Horner, who, as a servant girl was "Willie Hay," as a hair-dresser "Matilda" and as a cook just plain "Day," enacted her different parts effectively. Her sedate, never smiling countenance and droll manner of speech won her rounds of applause. She made an excellent partner for the imitable Ovey and the audience simply went wild over her song, "The Chorus for Me," a song written by the star, George Ovey.

Will H. Stowell as "Marco," E. S. Dewey as "Emile Sheldon," Nan Donson as "Mme. Woodbury," Grace Pearce as her daughter, Jos. Leighton as "Adam, an expressman," S. E. Lewis as "Sir Anthony Oliver," and Phil Fern as "Marceline," were all above the average. In fact, the company in its entirety made a splendid showing and is declared by many to be superior to the one here last season.

A handsome chorus of twenty-five, all possessed of light opera voices, helped to make the performance complete; the song hits, the most tuneful of the many musical numbers being "Life is a See-Saw," "Garden of Dreams," "Little Girl in Blue," "Cor-sica," and "Whistle as You Walk Out." The prettiest scenes of the play were the illuminated see-saws and the Corsican scene at the opening of the second act. Altogether last night's production of "A Knight for a Day" may well be ranked among the best of the present day musical plays.

A DELIGHTFUL EVENING.

Mrs. Z. L. M. Jeffreys Entertains in Honor of Mrs. Horsfield.

Yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Z. L. M. Jeffreys entertained at bridge and dominoes, in honor of Mrs. Frederick H. T. Horsfield, of Oxford, who has been spending a week with her.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather, about thirty guests assembled at the appointed hour, where they were cordially welcomed by the hostess, in grey crepe de chine, Mrs. Horsfield in black net and jet, and Mrs. Hutt in black taffeta.

The effective decorations consisted of ferns, palms and chrysanthemums. A delicious two-course supper was served, after a merry game, during which the players made remarkable scores.

At the close of the day the guests departed, having thoroughly enjoyed Mrs. Jeffreys' gracious hospitality, and the opportunity of renewing the friendships formed with Mrs. Horsfield during her four years of delightful residence in "The Best Town in the State."

CLOSED TOMORROW.

The Banks and Railroad Office Here Will Observe Holiday.

The banks of the city will be closed tomorrow in observance of Thanksgiving, as will be, also, The Argus office, and the freight depots of the railroads, except the last named will be open from eight to ten o'clock tomorrow morning for the delivery of perishable freight. No freight will be received.

Postoffice will observe Sunday hours tomorrow. City carriers will make one delivery of mail and one collection in the morning.

No Football Game.

It had been expected that there would be here on Thanksgiving Day a football game between the Goldsboro High School team and some other high school team, as Wilmington and Washington had both asked for a game here Thanksgiving Day.

Arrangements had been concluded with Wilmington; but at the last, both Wilmington and Washington found it inconvenient to come. Therefore there will be no football game here tomorrow.

CHILD ATE AN ENTIRE BOX OF CUTICURA

Spread on Some Crackers—Not the Slightest Injury Resulted from Little Fellow's Escapade—In Most Positive Way Ingredients of CUTICURA PROVEN PURE SWEET AND HARMLESS

A New York friend of Cuticura writes the following interesting letter:—
"My three year old son and heir, after being put to bed on a trip across the Atlantic, investigated the state-room and located a box of graham crackers and a box of Cuticura Ointment.

"When a search was made for the box, it was found empty and the kid admitted that he had eaten the contents of the entire box spread on the crackers. It cured him of a bad cold and I don't know what else."

No more conclusive evidence than the above could be offered that every ingredient of Cuticura Ointment is absolutely pure, sweet and harmless. It may be safely eaten by a young child, none but the most beneficial results can be expected to attend its application to even the tenderest skin of youngest infant. This feeling is shared by mothers and nurses to such an extent that Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have for many years been unhesitatingly used throughout the civilized world for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and hands of infants and children from the hour of birth. And greater still, if possible, is the confidence reposed in Cuticura Remedies for the treatment of torturing and disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp. The suffering which they have thus alleviated among the young and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents have led to their adoption in countless homes as priceless agents in the speedy, permanent, safe and economical treatment of infantile and birth humors, eczemas, rashes, irritations, inflammations and chafings, and other itching, scaly and pimply humors when all other remedies suitable for children fail.

Cuticura Remedies are sold throughout the world. Deposits: London, 27, Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 6, Rue de la Paix; Australia, B. Townsley; Sydney, South Africa, Lemmon, Ltd.; Cape Town, East London, etc.; Rangoon, Ferrier, Moore; Japan, Maruya, Ltd.; Yokohama, A. Foster Drug & Chem. Corp.; Sole Props., Boston.
