LOCAL BRIEFS.

Items of Interest in and Around the City.

—Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson returned to the city last night from a professional trip to Kenansville.

—Miss Alice Aycock, who has been visiting Miss Helen Kirby, returned yesterday to her home in Raleigh.

—Dr. Percy Darden, of Newton Grove, is in the city to spend Thanksgiving with his aunt, Mrs. Thos. I. Sutton.

—Dr. George H. Kirby, to the great pleasure of all his friends here—his home—is in the city, to spend Thanksgiving with his mother and sisters.

—The weather—oh, well! let it go at that. We've had such delightful weather all fall that no one hereabouts has any kick coming on that score.

—Mr. George Edgerton, of the livestock firm of Edgerton & Edgerton, of this city, has just returned from an extended trip to the Western stock yards.

—There will be a social dance in Edgerton Hall tomorrow night, given by the young men of the city in aid of the Baseball Fair; the receipts to be devoted to the fund of the Goldsboro Athletic Association.

—The music classes of Mrs. A. B. Freeman held a delightful rehearsal last night, which was largely attended by the parents and friends of the pupils. In the class contests Miss Eleanor Morgan was one of the prize winners and Miss Emma Roseover the other. At the close of the rehearsal delicious refreshments were served.

—Mrs. B. G. Thompson and little son arrived home this morning and have had many callers today. It is said that the little gentleman seems very much pleased with Goldsboro, and will doubtless grow up in the conviction, as have so many from babyhood to the full strength of years within the lifetime of The Argus, that we've got The Best Town in the State.

If you want the best, try a box of Dolly Varden Candy, fresh at The City Pharmacy.

GRADED SCHOOL THANKSGIVING.
Children Remember Poor and Make Record-Breaking Contributions.

It has been a long established custom at our city graded schools, both white and colored, for contributions in kind to be made by the children of the better circumstances on the eve of Thanksgiving, and these contributions are then distributed among the poor of the community under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent Society.

The contributions today were the most generous in the whole history of the schools, and shows that the spirit of thanksgiving and fellowship is broadening and deepening.

At the colored graded school there was also a flag raising over the building—the contribution of the children of the school.

One box will convince the most skeptical that Dolly Varden Candy is the best. At The City Pharmacy.

The Hudson-Fulton Celebration

New York, Sept. 25, 28 and 30th.

SCENES:

Grand Naval Pageant An elaborate and comprehensive scenes of views of this great event. The launching of the "CLERMONT," a reproduction of Robert Fulton's first steamboat. The "HALF MOON," views of the American and foreign warships and crowds on shore and aboard the numerous excursion boats, etc.

Historical Parade A magnificent picture of the procession participated in by people of all nationalities. Scenes taken from several points along the line of march: A splendid view of Vice-President Sherman and Governor Hughes, of New York, the various floats and moving tableaux representing different periods in American History.

Military Parade Splendid views of the Monster Military Parade of 25,000 men picked from the principal navies of the world and from every branch of the United States Army and Navy. The most brilliant pageant of the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

"THE - EMPEROR."

A thrilling drama dealing with the immense gratitude of NAPOLEON.

"An Exciting Hunt."

A GOOD COMEDY.

For the benefit of children as well as others, we will open Thanksgiving Day at 2:30 p. m. Let us insist that parents send their children in the afternoon to see this wonderful program.

The Hudson-Fulton Celebration can be viewed as well as if you had paid $100.00 to go to New York to see it. Don't miss this show.

Matinee 2:30 to 6 p. m. Night 7:00 to 11:00 p. m.
Admission 5 and 10 Cents.
