MONSTER SEA SERPENT SEEN IN THE CATAWBA RIVER, NEAR MT.
CANTON.—As the evening passenger train on Carolina Central, which leaves Charlotte at 8:30 p. m., yesterday, there was great excitement among the crowded passengers as they saw a monster sea serpent in the river which looked as large around as a hoghead, and probably thirty or forty feet long. His green scum-like eyes were glowing like fire as he lashed the water to foam, his head could be seen something like a skull, with letters of some description, but the passengers could not make them out until they were on the obliging conductor, Capt. Harry Horton, to stop the train, when it was seen the serpent had got a plank locked on his back in some way, and the reading was: "Buy Buggies, Carriages, Spring Wagons, Carts, and Grocer's Wagons from H. C. Hutchinson Co., Charlotte, N. C., next to Washington's Stables." Call and examine our improved stock.

LOCAL RIPPLES.

—A soiree will be given by Prof.
W. E. Loenser, at his dancing hall, at 8 o'clock this evening.

—Coroner Cathey was sent for today to investigate the case of a dead negro baby found at Matthews Station.

—Mrs. E. B. Drake died at her home in Statesville, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, from a stroke of paralysis.

—"The Love of Christ Restraineth Us," will be the topic for the union prayer meeting in the Y. M. C. A. hall Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

—Last night was a wild one. The wind was exceedingly heavy, and the howling blast fairly shook the windows around town. It turned cold during the night, and morning found the streets frozen.

—The Young Women's Christian Association of the Second Presbyterian church has decided to take upon itself the support of the little wall that was left at the Presbyterian Home some days ago.

—That wonderful piece of mechanism, "The Little World," is now on exhibition at the Davidson building, opposite Butler's. It is a marvel of ingenuity, and is well worth seeing.
This is its first appearance in Charlotte.

—There was a big fire in Florence, S. C., a day or two ago, and in referring to the incidents the Times speaks highly of Mr. Charlie Sykes, who was formerly employed by the Liddell Company, in Charlotte. He took hold of the pipes and did effective work.

—Mr. T. A. Hall, the manager of the Frank Mayo Company, was formerly the lessee of the Grand Opera House, New Orleans. Many of our citizens may recall a notably fine performance of the Two Orphans by Hall's combination in 1875. The company numbered thirty accomplished artists.

The Yarkin.
Passenger train No. 52, on the Richmond and Danville road, came in today with a brand new sleeping car of the Union Palace Car Company. The new car is a beauty in finish, and has a sensible name, the "Yarkin." This is an improvement on the Pullman car names, to be sure. The new car supercedes the Pullman on the Richmond and Danville, and passengers say that it is splendid in all its appointments.

Personal Mention.
Mr. Will Harty is home from college.
Mr. Joseph P. Caldwell, of the Statesville Landmark, was among the arrivals at the Central today.
He spent a few hours pleasantly among his many friends here.

Mr. W. A. Turk, the State's big great railroad man, is in town today.
Rev. Joseph Wheeler, the aged divine, arrived in the city today on a visit to his grandson, Mr. Chas. P.
Wheeler, and his great grandson,
Mr. Miller Wheeler.

Interesting Railroad Case.
An interesting railroad suit was filed yesterday in the United States court for the Eastern District. It is a case in equity in which the Richmond and Danville railroad company sues for an injunction against the Raleigh and Gaston and the Durham and Northern railroad, restraining them from possessing themselves of a certain strip of land in the town of Henderson on which a track built by the Durham and Northern is now being operated by the Richmond and Danville by virtue of its lease of the Durham and Northern. The Raleigh and Gaston and the Durham and Northern claim that the property was not included in the lease and have demanded the Richmond and Danville to surrender it. The News & Observer says that the Richmond and Danville will contest its right to the property and will seek to enjoin the Raleigh and Gaston and the Durham and Northern from taking possession of it.

MR. GILLESPIE'S FUNERAL.

An Impressive Discourse by Dr. Miller —Expressmen in Attendance.

The funeral services over the body of the late Thomas D. Gillespie were conducted from the residence of Mr.
J. A. Elliott this morning at 11 o'clock, and were attended by a large concourse of people. Dr. A. W.
Miller, of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the services, and preached a very feeling and able discourse from the words: "For we know if this, our earthly tabernacle, were dissolved, we have a house not built with hands, eternal in the Heavens." Dr. Miller's discourse was one of great comfort to the believed relatives and friends, portraying the peaceful and happy death of the Christian, and pointing out the blessed hope to such beyond the grave. His remarks were touching and impressive. At the conclusion of the services at the house, the body was escorted to Elmwood cemetery and laid at rest. The pall-bearers were Dr. Jos. Graham, Dr. John H.
McAden, Capt. Jno. Wilkes, Messrs.
J. W. Wadsworth, J. C. Burroughs, Jas. H. Carson, Geo. E. Wilson and
Col. H. C. Jones.

In addition to the large number of citizens present, there was quite a party of visitors from other places, among them being: H. Dempsey, superintendent of Southern Express Company at Augusta; Jno. A. Clark, auditor, Augusta; and route agents W. J. Crosswell, of Greenville; W.
W. Allen, of Greensboro; J. B.
Hockaday, of Wilmington, and K.
C. Barrett, of Fayetteville.

Two Thieves Caught.

Constable H. C. Irwin yesterday afternoon captured a little negro named Lonny McIlwee and took twenty-seven new knives from his pockets. The knives had been stolen from Gresham & Gresham by McIlwee and another little negro named Tony White. Tony was also captured by the constable, and both boys are in jail.

They had been making periodical raids upon this store. They made their way through a grating at the rear of the store, which let them into the basement, and from the basement they would climb to the first floor through the elevator shaft.
They made their last raid Wednesday night, when they stole two dozen boxes of pocket knives. The officer has so far recovered about forty knives.

The Meat Stealers at Work Again.

Mr. Peter Harkey, of Crab Orchard township, was in town early this morning, and reported that the meat stealers had paid him a visit the previous night. They robbed his meat house of 200 pounds of meat, and then stole his horses to carry the meat away on. The thieves were tracked in the direction of the city, and the horses were found in the road about one mile east of town.

This is exactly the same kind of business that was carried on by thieves about three years ago, when they went from house to house and raided the farmers, in some instances hitching up the farmers' wagons to carry away the stolen meat. The gang was finally captured, and the meat found stored away in an old gold pit.

Frank Mayo.

The appearance of Mr. Frank Mayo at the opera house promises a performance of great power. Mr.
Mayo is one of the ablest actors of our time; he is supported by a company of great strength, in numbers and ability, and D'Artagnan, the hero of the "Royal Guard," is one of the most admired characters produced in the present century. Mr.
Edmund Collier, who starred last season as "Virginia" and "Jack Cade," is a member of this company.
So is Henry Aveling, a former leading man with John McCullough.
Miss Adelaide Fitzallen and Marie Butler are two of the three leading ladies, and Mr. Hall, the manager, states that the special scenery can be placed reflectively on the opera house stage.

Mr. Pearson in Greenville.

Mr. Pearson has been doing some good work in Greenville, if the news is to be relied upon. The Greenville correspondent of the News & Courier says: "The union services have been held in the Baptist Church, which has a seating capacity of about 1,200, and at every service from the beginning, whether in good weather or bad, the audience room has been crowded and every evening many are turned from the doors for want of room.

Using methods that are free entirely from machine work or clap trap and in which the striking characteristics are earnestness, plainness and abundant use of the Bible, Evangelist Pearson has reached and impressed and acted upon every class of the community, bringing inquirers after the Christian life from among non-church goers, aged men, young men and women, boys and girls. Numbers of young men, leaders of society and bright lights in the "fast set," have been earnest inquirers and afterwards become outspoken Christians. Three hundred have professed conversion, and at the morning's services in the Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches Sunday, eighty-six new members were received. And the end is not yet.

The city is given over to the revival. For the morning services business men leave their stores and go early to secure seats; at night the church is filled and packed an hour before the services begin. Business is dull; news is dull; but a mighty work is going on among the church workers, such as the city has never seen before.

The revival meetings closed tonight. The greatest congregation ever seen at a religious meeting in the city attended the closing services.
Nearly four hundred conversions have resulted from the meeting. Mr.
Pearson leaves tomorrow for Houston, Texas, whence he will return to hold revival meetings in Columbia in March."

Found His Wife with Another Man.

Yesterday a colored man named William Rice arrived here from South Carolina, and made complaint to Esquire Maxwell that he had found his wife, Rose Rice, living here with a negro named Perry Pendergrass, who had run off with her.
"He stole her from me," said William, "and I want him 'rested for it." Warrants were issued, and the guilty pair were arraigned before the magistrate, who sent them to jail, in default of $50 bond, to await trial before Judge Meares.

The truant wife had been living here in fine style for a week. Pendergrass had rented a house, furnished it and stocked the larder.
William visited the place yesterday and found everything so cozy that he concluded to stake his claim, and forthwith took possession of the ranch. He says there is a week's rations in the house, and he will stay until that gives out. He was up town today, though, begging to have his wife released, as he wanted to take her back home.

Engagement Closed.

Bell & Ellis' fine novelty show closes its engagement at the opera house tonight. THE NEWS stated a day or two ago that the show has been very greatly improved. It is really a good one, and will please all who see it. The company deserves good houses wherever it shows. The matinee this afternoon was largely attended.

Baby's Letter.

A letter from Mr. John W. Ruby, Union City, Ind., says: "I have used your Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Cough Cure and find it a complete cure for deep seated cold.
It has done more than two of our most skillful physicians. My children had the whooping cough and with the aid of your Cough Cure they had it very light compared with neighbors' children who did not take it. I believe it to be the best cough cure in the market." So it is. A large bottle only $1.00.
Clarke's Flax Soap for the Skin.
It leads them all. Price 25 cents.
