-Editor Jas. P. Cook, of the Concord Standard, is at the Central. -Dr. R. M. Eames, one of the most experienced mining men in this section, is at the Central today.

-Capt. W. B. Kidd has recovered some of the goods that were stolen from his store last Tuesday night.

-Mr. E. M. Davis, of the Racket store, has moved his place of resi-dence to one of Mrs. Tate's houses, on Fifth street.

-This has been a day of brightness overhead and slush underfoot. The temperature was far above the freezing point, and the snow has been disappearing rapidly.

-Ferdinand Phinzy, of Athens Ga.; Jacob Phinzy, Augusta; Mrs. A. W. Calhoun, Atlanta, and Phinzy Calhoun, Atlanta; C. K. McHarg and wife, Cooperstown, N. Y., are at the Buford.

-The Concord Standard of today says: "There is to be a parade by the Cabarrus Black Boys today at 2 o'clock p. m., and they will be reviewed at night by Col. J. T. An-thony, of Charlotte.

-New poles are being put up for the incandescent electric light. By the time the Gas-Electric Company and the D. A. Tompkins Co. put up their poles, the sidewalks will be pretty well fenced in.

-Mr. S. Wittkowsky has just completed some extensive improve-ments to his residence on West Trade street. It has been converted into a modern city house, with all the known conveniences,

A Charlotte man who came in on the Carolina Central road last night, reports that Mr. Thos. Allen was knocked down and fatally injured by a team of mules at Wadesboro, yes-terday. One of his arms was broken and his skull was fractured. Mr. Allen is one of Anson's best men. To Build a Big Racket House.

A News reporter was this morn ing shown through the second floor of the Racket Store, where Mr. Davis is arranging for his harness sale. The goods which he will offer are of a fine quality. The Racket is fairly crowded with goods, and Mr. Davis has decided to secure the needed room by building an immense five story house. He is now negotiating for a site, and expects soon to commence building opera-

THIRTEEN INCHES OF SNOW.

A Winter Day in Charlotte -- Sleighing and Snow-Salling--Two feet at Augusta--The Railroads Blocked.

The people of Charlotte waked this morning to find the town cov-ered with a and 2-10 inches o snow.. The m began yesterday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, and continued without intermission until after a o'clock this morning. The snow came down in big softly falling flakes; and the town presented a beautiful sight in its mantle of white. It was a severe snow fall, and as early as eight o'clock last'night the street cars had to be abandened, Mr. Osborne had a long string of workmen with shovels clearing the tracks from snow early this morning. and regular trips were resumed at 9 o'clock. The snow afforded excellent sleighing, and the streets were filled with turnouts of all kinds, from the goods box mounted on runners to the fine imported cutter. Snow balling added hilarity to the scene, and a number of interesting battles were fought. There was a big run on the gun stores, and a regular army of rabbit hunters went this city show that from 1.42 to 8 9 p. m., yesterday, the snow fall was 0.56 inch of melted snow, which equals five and six-tenth inches of snow on the ground. From 8 p. m. to 8 a. m., the snow fall was 0.76 inch of melted snow, or seven and six-tenth inches on the ground, making the total amount that fell equal to thirteen and two-tenth inches on a level.

This appears to have been a Southern storm. The snow was even heavier at points south of Charlotte. At Augusta, the snow fall was two feet. At Savannah, it was 2.04 inches melted snow. The precipitation throughout the Southern States was unusually heavy. At Wilmington it was 1.68 inches; 1.90 at Hattaras, and 1.36 at Charleston. Most of this was probably in the form of rain.

The snow at Taylorsville was only three inches deep. At Concord, Salisbury and Greensboro, the snow was much lighter than it was here.

ON THE RAILROADS.

All Night in a Detailed Train -- A Freight Train Abandoned.

The railroad men South of us, had a rough experience. The freight train crew had a particularly hard lot. When Capt. Wm. Maxwell's Charlotte bound freight reached Chester, it was snowing so hard that possible to see three car lengths ahead. The brakeman on sion, Methods, Finance, Libraries man on the car in the middle of the train. Capt. Maxwell received orders to abandon his train at Chester, and endeavur to get to Charlotte with his engine. He reached here this morning.

The Charlotte bound passenger train on the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta road, spent the night in the snow. When about forty miles out Mr. Arthur Henderson's sleigh from Augusta, the engine ran into a sleeper. The train was crowded with passengers, including a number of was dispatched to the relief of the derailed train, and at 4 o'c'ock this morning the journey was reaumed, the train reaching here at 11 o'clock. Mr. Jas. T. Ross, of this city, was on board the train, and he says they had a night of it, but all the passen-gers behaved well.
