CONVICTS MAKE A BREAK. "M Quad" to Help us Along.

Three of Them are Brought One Outruns Sixteen Springfield Bullets.

There was a roar and a rattle of fire arms at the convict camp, on the near future. In a letter explain opened fire upon them with three shotguns and one Springfield rife. Three convicts upon whom the shotguns were brought to bear were wounded, but the fourth, who was a running target for the rifle, escaped.

The affair occurred early in the morning. The convicts were being brought to be balled and chained preparatory to beginning the day's work at the quarry, when four of the number made a break. The party consisted of Cooley Gabriel, Zeke back. He was running along the Charlotte, and the Chamber of Com-edge of the rock quarry, twenty-five merce should look after him. yards distant from the guard when Less Than any Trotters.
the shot was fired, and he tumbled Mr. Latta C. Johnston, of this one of the guards fired sixteen times Oorie escaped. All these prisoners were sentenced at the last term of the Criminal court, Gabriel 3 years for larceny; Morris r year for assault and battery; Thompson two years for larceny, and Oorie three years for larceny. Oorie was the only one of the three that got away.

Dr. Wilder, the county phy was notified that his services were needed, and he proceeded to the scene. He found that Gabriel was very dangerously wounded. There were 27 shot boles in his back. One of his ribs was broken and several shot went through his lungs. The dector picked out about 13 pellets, but the others were beyond probing. Morris and Thompson are not seriously hurt. Gabriel was sent to the convict hospital. The doctor does not know what to say about his chances for recovery.

A few days ago two representatives of the Detroit Free Press spent a day Down With Buckshot, While at the Central Hotel in this city, and now Mr. C. B. Lewis, who is known the world over as "M Quad," is to follow them, and will be here in the Statesville road, near the Jewish the object of his visit, Mr. Lewis cemetery, just outside the city, this says: "If your people can be aroused morning. Four convicts made a to organize and put forth an effort break for liberty, and the guards this spring their work will be well rewarded. There is going to be a movement southward, and scores of people have come to me within a week to ask me about new homes in the south. The California boom has petered out, and the tide is certain to turn southward in the spring." There is a great deal of meaning in this, and boiled down it amounts to the simple fact that the South is looming up above the West in attractions and inducements for settlers. It is a good sign that the northern Morris, Dave Thompson and Duff Oorie. Gabriel was brought down with twenty-seven buckshot in his
