THE NEW ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The improvements at the Charlotte electric light plant are now completed and the light will be turned on some of the incandescent lamps on the new circuit tonight. Two Ball engines and three dynamos are required to furnish the arc and incandescent light. The building has been enlarged and remodeled, and manager Dodge has everything in good shape. A representative of the electric motor company will be here in a few days.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. Hiram P. Ford, of the Leaksville Woolen Mills is at the Butord. Mr. W. H. Miller, of the Shelby Aurora, and Mr. R. W. Knight, of the Rockingham Rocket, are at the Central. Mr. B. F. Tipton, of the Mt. Holly News, is at the Buford. Judge Shipp was in Raleigh yesterday.

THE NEW HEALTH RESORT.

The opening of Avoca, a North Carolina health resort is to be quite an event. A three days celebration has been arranged for, and the railroads offer cheap rates. The celebration takes place on April 24th, 25th and 26th. Senators Vance and Ransom and other big men are booked for speeches. Avoca is the home of Dr. Capeheart and his great fisheries. Among the attractions at the celebration will be horse racing and trotting matches, fox chases, scull and sailing races, moonlight excursions upon the beautiful Edenton Bay and Albemarle Sound, oyster roasts and clam bakes, old time fish suppers, and amusements and pleasures without end. The great seine fishing, than which there is no more interesting sight in North Carolina, will be in full operation. Visitors will see three miles of netting and eight steam engines to operate them. There will be cheap excursion rates on every section of the North and South. There will be a large number of Northerners, among them several prominent editors who are on the staff of influential papers.

LOCAL RIPPLES.

—Still there's no sail in sight for Brady.

—The majority of the visiting delegates have returned to their homes, but some still linger.

—Ice cream and Florida strawberries were among the dainties at the Central Hotel to-day.

—Radhorse, caught in the Catawba river traps, were selling from wagons on the streets today, at 65 cents per bunch.

—A pocket-book belonging to a young railroad conductor was picked up on the railroad four miles south of Charlotte yesterday. Among other things it contained the picture of a red-headed woman, and the finder at once knew to what conductor the book belonged.

Teachers' Convention.

The Sunday school teachers of all denominations are hereafter to meet in convention in Charlotte every Saturday afternoon. The first meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. hall at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, the session will be conducted by Prof. Geo. B. Hanna.

First Presbyterian Church.

Services preparatory to the communion will be held to-night (Friday) at 8 o'clock, after which opportunity will be given to any who may desire to apply for membership. On Sunday a collection will be made for the poor of the church. A liberal contribution is desired.

A Train Load of Two Hundred.

Closely following passenger train No. 52, on the Richmond and Danville road to-day, was a special train of coaches loaded with two hundred negroes, all bound for Mississippi. They came from about Salem, in this State. The emigration craze is still spreading, and if it keeps up much longer at the present rate, Mississippi will surely be a black State, in fact.

THE CONVENTION ADJOURNED.

Wilmington to be the Next Place of Meeting.—Flowers for Dr. Reynolds.

One of the greatest Sunday School Conventions ever held in the South, closed a three day's session in this city last night. The audience present was like all the others that attended the sessions of the convention, large and enthusiastic. The young ladies of the Charlotte Female Institute attended in a body. There is but little to add to the New's report of yesterday, as the proceedings in the afternoon and night were mainly devoted to addresses and discussions. Dr. Reynolds, who is such a devoted worker in the cause of Sunday Schools, was presented with a large basket of beautiful flowers. The presentation was made by Mr. Chas. W. Tillet in a graceful speech. Mr. Robert F. Stokes made a motion that Dr. Reynolds be requested to attend the next State convention, and bring his wife with him. The motion was seconded and carried most enthusiastically.

It was decided to hold the next State convention in Wilmington. Durham was proposed, but the vote stood: Wilmington 18, Durham 9. Messrs. Jno. C. Davis, of Wilmington; H. C. Wall, of Rockingham, and Geo. Chatman, of Wilmington, were added to the list of delegates to the World's Convention in London.

The following resolutions, offered by Rev. Dr. E. A. Yates, were adopted by a rising vote:

WHEREAS, The second annual meeting of the State Sunday School Convention owes much of its success and harmonious action to the fact of its being held in the religious, polite and cultivated city of Charlotte, be it therefore

Resolved, That our thanks are due, and are hereby tendered, to the good people of this city for the overflowing, refined and hospitable entertainment extended to the members of this convention.

Also, to the Y. M. C. A. for the use of their beautiful building, and to the young ladies and gentlemen composing the choir for the pleasure their "sweet service of song" has given us.

Also, to the press of this city for the courtesy of publishing so fully the proceedings of the convention.

Also, to Mr. Wm. Reynolds, of Illinois, who has so kindly and efficiently contributed his valuable time and aid to the success of this convention, and beg to assure him that he will ever find a welcome to the hearts and homes of North Carolinians.

Also, to the railroads which have extended courtesies to the members of this convention.

Also, thanks to the retiring President and other officers of the convention, whose efficient service has contributed so much to its success.

An Eventful Trip.

The Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta passenger train, Capt. John Allison conductor, which reached here at 4 o'clock this morning, had quite an eventful trip. Shortly after leaving Augusta the train ran over a white man who was asleep on the track. He was cut up badly, and will die. At Columbia the track was blocked by a derailed freight, and the passenger train had to take a side track. Shortly after leaving Columbia one of the passenger coaches caught fire from a stove-pipe. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done. When within 14 miles of Charlotte the engineer clapped on the brakes and brought the train to a stop. The railroad just ahead was on fire. All hands set to work and extinguished the burning cross-ties, when the train once more got under way. In spite of all this, it got here on time.

Accident to a Club Horse.

A colored man was driving a horse to a sulky and leading another behind him, on West Trade street this morning, and when near the depot the lead horse became frightened at a train, leaped upon the sulky, and overthrew it, one of his legs getting between the spokes of a wheel. The horse attached to the sulky behaved badly, and the other horse got his leg free before it had been injured to any great extent. The horses are bloomed animals and belong to the Gentlemen's Driving Club.

Setzer in a Poplar Tree.

THE NEWS a few days ago mentioned the death at China Grove of Mr. Geo. M. Setzer, but there were some particulars we did not get. According to the Concord Times, Mr. Setzer, two weeks before death, went out to a poplar tree near the yard and under its shade marked off the place for his grave, giving instructions as to how it was to be dug, the mode of burial, etc. He said he wanted a layer of cedar brush at the bottom of the grave, his body placed on top of this, wrapped simply in a blanket, then another layer, then a layer of boards, and then filled up with dirt. He said that when decomposition set in, and when the sap of the tree drew him up to the limbs, he could perch on top of the tree and view the surrounding scenery for ages to come. Mr. Setzer was perfectly rational to the last of his existence. He was visited during his wasting illness by several ministers, who endeavored to point him to the way of eternal life, but in vain.

The peculiar instructions of Mr. Setzer were fully carried out, and he was buried on Saturday exactly as he had directed.

Mr. Torrence Did Not Resign.

Mr. Chas. L. Torrence, the A., T. & O. route agent, who got notice from the Postoffice Department a few days ago that his resignation had been accepted, when in fact he had never resigned, kicked against the manner of proceeding. The department in reply informed him that it was done because they thought he would rather see it appear on the books "resigned" than "removed." Mr. Torrence told them to make it "removed." His notice of his "resignation" was printed and the necessary blanks for name, etc., inserted, so it is to be judged that the Republicans have already made out "resignations" for all the Democratic route agents.

"Running Wild."

What is said to be a first-class show will be here on the 11th. It is called "Running Wild." The New York Advertiser says of it: "The large audience at the Star Theatre last night was greatly amused by John Wild and his 'latest musical farce comedy' called 'Running Wild.' Some of the music was very pretty and very prettily sung, while the farce itself was broad and side-splitting to a sufficient degree to rouse the most melancholy to uproarious laughter. Mr. Wild was greeted with enthusiasm by his old admirers, received a fine lot of flowers from the Park Theatre company, and made a short speech of acknowledgment."

Mrs. Potter in Charlotte.

Attached to the south-bound train on the Richmond and Danville road yesterday was a special car, in which Mrs. James Brown Potter was housed for a journey to Mexico. The car was one of Pullman's special makes, built for the accommodation of sixteen people, though there were only eight in Mrs. Potter's company. Mrs. Potter came out on the platform and went into raptures at a blooming fruit tree in a neighboring yard.

Our Cam.

The many friends in Charlotte of "Cam" Bailey, who went West to make his living, will be glad to know that he is meeting with success. Cam went to Houston, Texas, as an apprentice in the office of the Houston Daily Herald, and he has already been promoted to the foremanship of that office. He is the youngest foreman on a daily paper in the South. He makes a good foreman, too, as the make-up of the Herald indicates.

Examining the Banks.

Col. S. McD. Tate, bank examiner, arrived at the Central yesterday. He is here for the purpose of depositing three days to the banks of Charlotte, and it is needless to add that he will find them all right. He examined the Commercial National yesterday, and the First National to-day, and to-morrow he will examine the Merchants and Farmers. (For other leads see Fourth Page)

SPRING ANNOUNCEMENT.

WE congratulate our customers and friends upon the return of the genial Spring Season. It is always a pleasant relief to exchange the heavier and more sombre apparel of winter for the lighter, and never has fashion set her seal upon goods for the season so attractive and tasteful as they are at the present time. The very best advertisement of our goods would be the goods themselves, could they be sent around for general inspection. As this is impossible we fall back on the faithful types to assist us to describe in some measure the chief feature of our Spring Stock. By way of preliminary we may say that we have brought our long business experience and knowledge of local tastes, to the selection of the goods we offer—and with a result which we hope will be as gratifying to our customers as to ourselves. The extent of our stock is unusually large and the variety offered in styles and the materials are so wide that we think we can scarcely fail of satisfying every intending purchaser. In every department our stock will be found to be complete; nothing having been neglected in our effort to make it the most complete assortment of goods ever offered to the trading public of this locality. In making our selection we have realized that to the quality of the goods sold we must look for the building up of that confidence between buyer and seller so essential to a commercial success and permanence. Our customers will find that in respect to quality our stock has no superior, if any rival, our policy being to sacrifice a margin of our profits rather than sacrifice the confidence of our customers in the goods we sell. Some rather unusual opportunities have been offered to watchful buyers to secure bargains in some of the desirable standard lines. These we have taken advantage of and customers will find that our prices are unusually low, relative to the value of the goods we offer. We aim to satisfy all classes of buyers, and our stock therefore includes the variety of grades which have correspondingly varied prices. We desire to be known for cheapness, but we handle no cheap goods, that is to say, we give even in low price grades the very best article the market affords for the money. It is a shortsighted policy for any merchant to make a reputation for low priced goods at the expense of his reputation for values. No article is really CHEAP which will not return the buyer the full value of the money expended in its purchase. Our steady aim is to satisfy buyers, not only by alluring bargains, but by the satisfaction that comes in goods that wear and stand the test of actual use. In the matter of Novelties we think our stock will leave nothing to be desired. By being early in the market we secured the early choice of styles and patterns which always gives the buyer the advantage of picking up such seasonable novelties as are soon exhausted, if they prove desirable to purchasers. We commend to our customers our own method, that of early selection, as it follows in cases that the patterns which are most fancied are the soonest exhausted. We speak with conviction when we say that we do not think any previous season has seen a more inviting display of goods than those to which we direct attention and of which we invite your inspection. And we are sure that it will be a matter of general surprise and congratulation among buyers that we are able to offer so large a choice, and such excellent quality for prices that are remarkable for their moderation.
