-There was but one case before the mayor this morning. Ike Young parts have been assigned. Miss was fined $3.50 for raising a bump on Mattie Johnson's head, at 2 o'clock this morning.

What We Need.

To-day's Democrat says: Among other things wanted in Charlotte is a City Mission. The churches do much, but a mission would do more. Let men and women get together and look after this, and when needy and worthy ones present themselves, of whatever color or creed, there will be a piace to send them for re-

Mrs. "Stonewall" Jackson.

In commenting on the rumors now affoat the Washington Star says: "The story that has been going the rounds of the press to the effect that the President had tendered the position of postmaster at Lexington, Va. to Mrs. Stonewall Juckson, and that she had declined it, and that he now postmaster at Richmond, Va., is utterly discredited at the postoffice department. Officials in position to know, say nothing of the kind has ever been contemplated."

A MUSICAL PRODUCTION.

The "Esther" Company will Perform the Bohemian Girl on May 20th--All the Favorites Retained.

Charlotte's talents in amateur operetta have become widely known and favorably criticized throughout the State since the magnificent and elaborate production of the oratorio of Esther, but at present a most put on the stage in its elegant style the most beautiful and pleasing of all operas, "The Bohemian Girl." The movement has been on foot some little while, but has only recently materialized into a positive certainty.

As is well known to opera-goers the "Bohemian Girl" is brimful of sweetest melody and charming numbers enough to attract an audience which will test not only the seating capacity of our large opera house, but the standing room as well. A meeting was held and some of the Annie Tate, the sweet-voiced Esther" of the oratorio, will enact the role of "Arline," the Bohemian she can easily conquer that most "Gipsy Queen." "Happy Jack" Baker, will take the part of Florestine, and Mr. Ed Martin has been cast for "Devilshoof." The selections are happy ones as each part is eminently adapted to the voices of each to whom it is assigned.

In connection with the production, an orchestra of twenty-six pieces, under the able leadership of Prof. Win. Baker, will be organized and thoroughly rehearsed. The books for the orchestra and the librettos for the performers were telegraphed for this morning, and are expected to arrive Saturday. Monday active preparations will ensue in order to have everything perfect for the 20th of May when the opera will be put on in fine shape.

After performing here, it is the intention of the troupe to go to Asheville and also to Wilmington, where "Esther" had such a brilliant reception.

REDUCED TO FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Mayor Listens to New Evidence and Takes Off One Hundred Dollars from Nerwis' Fine

Shortly after nine o'clock this morning, Mr. W. C. Maxwell, one of our prominent lawyers, appeared before the mayor's court in behalf of the bookseller Otto Nerwis, and requested that the cases previously stupendous effort is to be made to tried and noted in THE NEWS, be opened for new evidence. Mr. Maxwell stated that he did this because the defendant stood mute at the trial, being a stranger and unacquinted with the procedure in our courts and no testimony was offered for the desense? Since the trial, material evidence has been discovered which, be thought, went far in mitigating the offenses. In reply the mayor stated that he had given Nerwis every opportunity to procure counsel and witnesses, but he, (the mayor,) would be glad to hear any new evidence that Mr. Maxwell thought would affect the case. Thereupon the court beard statements made by Mr. James Harty, Drs. R. Girl, and those who know, say that and R. L. Gibbon. The mayor thought that the evidence greatly difficult part in the opera. Miss/mitigated two of the offenses, but Minnie Wriston, a lady well known that the third offense, viz : resisting for her vocal talents, is to be the the chief of police called for severe punishment. He would change the judgment and impose a fine of $50 on Nerwis, as he was satisfied that the punishment already received had a tendency to inspire him with a proper respect for the law in future. The sympathy of the public appears to be with the prisoner, and it is known that another lawyer is looking after the case, intending to fight it in the courts, if any ground for the action can be found.

McDonald Probably Postmaster.

It is now asserted that Mr. Ed. McDonald is to boss the postoffice here and that in a very short time. Since the fight has narrowed down to two, the pulling of wires has been unceasing and all the influence at command has been brought to bear upon the officials who have the appointing power, by the friends of each. C. P. Lockey, the Wilmington lawyer who ran against Rowland in the recent Congressional race in this district, has been in Washington for a time and is doing all he can to secure the postmastership for Mchouse to-night. SPRING ANNOUNCEMENT.

WE congratulate our customers and friends upon the return of the genial Spring Season. It is always a pleasant relief to exchange the heavier and more sombre apparel of winter for the lighter, and never has fashion set her seal upon goods for the season so attractive and tasteful as they are at the present time. The very best advertisement of our goods would be the goods themselves, could they be sent around for general inspection. As this is impossible we fall back on the faithful types to assist us to describe in some measure the chief feature of our Spring Stock. By way I preliminary we may say that we have brought our long business experience and knowledge of local tastes, to the selection of the goods we offer —and with a result which we hope will be as gratifying to our customers as to ourselves. The extent of our stock is unusually large and the variety offered in styles and the materials are so wide that we think we can scarcely fail of satisfying every intending purchaser. In every department our stock will be found to be complete; nothing having been neglected in our effort to make it the most complete assortment of goods ever offered to the trading public of this locality. In making our selection we have realized that to the quality of the goods sold we must look for the building up of that confidence between buyer and seller so essential to a commercial cess and permanence. Our customers will find that in respect to quality our stock has no superior, if any rival, our policy being to sacrifice a margin of our profits rather than sacrifice the confidence of our customers in the goods we sell. Some rather unusual opportunities have been offered to watchful buyers to secure bargains in some of the desirable standard lines. These we have taken advantage of and customers will find that our prices are unusually low, relative to the value of the goods we offer. We aim to satisfy all classes of buyers, and our stock therefore includes the variety of grades which have correspondingly varied prices. We desire to be known for cheapness, but we handle no cheap goods, that is to say, we give even in low price grades the very best article the market affords for the money. It is a short-sighted policy for any merchant to make a reputation for low priced goods at the expense of his reputation for values. No article is really CHEAP which will not return the buyer the full value of the money expended in its purchase. Our steady aim is to satisfy buyers, not only by alluring bargains, but by the satisfaction that comes in goods that wear and stand the test of actual use. In the matter of Novelties we think our stock will leave nothing to be desired. By being early in the market we secured the early choice of styles and patterns which always gives the buyer the advantage of picking up such seasonable novelties are soon exhausted, if they prove desirable to purchasers. We consider that the desirable to purchasers are soon exhausted. to our customers our own method, that of early selection, as it follows in cases that the patterns which are most fancied are the soonest exhausted. We speak with conviction when we say that we do not think any previous season has seen a more inviting display of goods than those to which we direct attention and of which we invite your inspection. And we are sure that it will be a matter of general surprise and congratulation among buy-ers that we are able to offer so large a choice, and such excellent quality for prices that are remarkable for their moderation. Respectfully,
