

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

The Shepherd and the Wolf is a Good Outdoor Game.

The children stand in a long line, one behind the other, holding each other's dress or coat. The one at the head of the line represents the shepherd. His little followers are the lambs. One player stands apart from them, and he is the wolf. He prowls stealthily around the flock, and the shepherd calls out, "Who goes around my house this dark night?"

The other answers, "I am the wolf."

The shepherd says, "I beg of you not to hurt my lambs."

The wolf then says, "I only wish for one, and I mean to have this little lamb." And he jumps at the last player in the line. The shepherd swings around to save his pet lamb, followed, of course, by the others. The wolf is sly and pretends to turn aside, only watching his opportunity to grab. When he catches the lamb she must try to slip away, and if she succeeds she in turn becomes shepherd. The wolf must then pay a forfeit and relinquish his place to the last lamb in line, taking his place.

Spanish Tag.

Spanish children play a kind of tag which they might have taken from some fairy game book if such a thing existed. One child, chosen by lot, is the moon and must keep within the shadow. The others are the morning stars and are safe only in lighted spaces. The game is for the morning stars to run into the shadow, during the moon, who, if successful in catching one, becomes in turn a morning star and passes out into the light. This, of course, leaves the one caught to act the part of the moon. As the morning stars run in and out of the moon's domain they sing over and over:

O the moon and the morning stars,
O the moon and the morning stars,
Who dares to tread—O,
Within the shadow?

Conundrums.

Why can't regular soldiers sit down? Because they belong to the standing army.

How can you tell the age of a hen? By the teeth. (Your own, of course.)

Have you heard the story of the smoky window pane? No? If I told you you wouldn't see through it.

What are the features of the cannon? Cannon-mouth, cannon-ize, cannon-eers.

Why is a judge's nose like the middle of the earth? Because it is the center of gravity.

Why don't they collect fares from the policemen on the electric? Because they can't take a nickel from a copper.

A Butterfly Farm.

A novel farm is found in England. Half an acre of land has been planted with shrubs and trees for the purpose of providing a home and food for thousands of butterflies of all varieties. Scientific men from all parts of the world are supplied with specimens from this farm.

Two Riddles.

What is better than a land boom to take real estate off your hands? Soap.

What is the western part of a boy's trousers? The seat, for it is where the sun sets.

Before the Audience.

I had a little piece to speak
And knew it well all through the week.
But when the time for speaking came
And I got up and gave the name
I found my voice was weak and lame.
The people seemed to think the same.
And when they turned their eyes to stare
To say the piece I did not dare.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Directions For Upholstering an Old Cane Seated Chair.

When the cane seat of a chair is broken it may be made as good as new by upholstering it at home. After removing the superfluous bits of cane cover the space with a matting formed of three inch wide canas belting, woven together. Tack it temporarily in place. After placing over this some coarse muslin draw both smooth and secure at the edge with twine, making use of the perforations. Remove the tacks, turn the raw edge over toward the center and baste it down. Arrange the curled hair and wool or whatever you propose to use for stuffing and keep it in position by basting over it a piece of muslin. Then carefully fit the rip, pin it in different places until you are certain it is in perfect shape and tack it permanently, following, of course, the tracing made for the cane. Cover the edge with galloon to match the rip, using tiny ornamental tacks.

Freckle Lotion.

A good freckle lotion may be made as follows: Take the juice of one lemon (strained), one-half an ounce of pure vinegar, one ounce of alcohol, ten drops of oil of cedar, ten drops of lavender, five ounces of rosewater. Mix the lemon juice and vinegar together, add the alcohol, in which the oils have been dissolved. Pour into an eight ounce bottle and fill up with rosewater. Rub this lotion on the face at night before going to bed and wash off in the morning with warm water, followed by cold.

Tomato Catchup.

Peel and cut up a bushel of ripe, sound tomatoes. Put them in a porcelain lined kettle over the fire and boil until soft, then press through a sieve to take out the seeds. Add a gallon of good cider vinegar, three cups of salt, two ounces of whole cloves, cayenne to season well, two table-spoonful of black pepper, five cloves of garlic, skinned and crushed, or an onion grated if garlic is disliked. Boil gently for three hours or until boiled down one-half, and then seal up in bottles.

Hop Yeast.

Boil two medium potatoes and mash. Use water to scald three table-spoonful of flour. Boil two table-spoonful of dry hops in two cups of water and strain. Mix with potato and flour two table-spoonful of salt, two table-spoonful of sugar. Let it stand until cool. Soak one cake of yeast in half a cup of water and mix all together. Seal in fruit jar and keep in a cool place. Three-fourths of a cup of yeast will make four medium sized loaves of bread.

Olive Oil on Bruises.

In the treatment of bruises, where there is extensive discoloration of the skin, if olive oil is applied freely without rubbing the discoloration will quickly disappear. Absorbent cotton may be soaked in the oil and applied. If the skin is broken a little boracic acid should be applied over the abrasion. A black eye thus treated can be rendered normal in a few hours, especially if the oil be applied warm.

Dressing For the Hair.

A very pleasant dressing for the hair, which renders it soft and glossy, is made thus: Dissolve half an ounce of the best white wax in seven ounces of almond oil. When nearly cold add any perfume that is preferred, such as twelve drops of oil of cloves, ten drops of essence of almonds and twenty drops of essence of lemon.

Hemming Napkins.

Every one knows how hard it is to turn a narrow and perfectly even hem on a table napkin. Put the hemmer attachment on the sewing machine, but do not use thread. Just run the napkins through the hemmer without sewing them and they are creased as narrow as desired, and they are all ready for hand sewing.

Kitchen Hints.

A teaspoonful of strong coffee added to chocolate at the last moment will give it a delicious flavor. In making a plain fruit cake if the raisins and currants are warmed in the oven before mixing them in they will not sink to the bottom in "that distressing way."

Toilet Soap Jelly.

A soap jelly which is excellent for softening and whitening the hands is made by pouring boiling water on the bits of toilet soap which accumulate and adding the juice of a lemon and a teaspoonful of glycerin to a pint of the jelly.

Fried Cereal.

Cook any cereal as for breakfast and turn it out into a bread pan to cool. When cold cut in thin slices, fry until crisp in a very little butter. Serve this with maple sirup or melted light brown sugar.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by J. E. Shell, Dr. Kent and Granite Falls Drug Co.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by J. E. Shell, Dr. Kent and Granite Falls Drug Co.

The less of consequence a thing is the more fuss the average woman is able to make over it.
