Mr. Van Teague, who lives 3 1/2 miles East of Lenoir, had a bad stroke of paralysis last Friday, one side being paralyzed. He is some better now and can talk a little.

Mr. W. J. Palmer, of North Wilkesboro, is attending court this week. Mrs. Palmer and the children are at Hudson with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Morris, her father and mother.

Mr. James Latham, who has been spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Seehorn, at the Watanga House, was stricken last Sunday, just after his return from church, with paralysis and is in a critical condition.

Miss Albright, of Chester, S. C., who was with the U. S. Furniture Co., up to the time they left here, and who has been visiting in S. C. and Ga. for several months, has returned and is now with Mr. J. L. Nelson in his office.

We understand that Capt. W. A. White, of Little River, is very sick, and fears are entertained that he may not improve. The Capt. is near 80 years of age. We hope that he will recover his usual health and live many years yet.

Rev. E. L. Bain, Pastor of Trinity Church, Charlotte, is conducting special services in the College chapel this week for the benefit of the students. He will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Public cordially invited to attend both services.

While W. L. Earnest, who lives on Kings Creek, was killing hogs last Monday, his little 3-year-old daughter was playing around where he was at work, became over-balanced and fell in the tub of boiling water and was so badly scalded that she old lived about three hours. The bereaved family have the sympathy of this community.

There is reported another killing in Watauga. Will Hamby shot and killed a man by the name of Potter Tuesday. Hamby is in jail at Boone. This is the second or third one of the Potters that Hamby has killed, he being the man that killed Boone Potter in Watauga county some years ago. We cannot obtain full particulars at this time, but will give them to our readers as soon as we can get them.

Mr. M. D. Smith was in the News office the other day and in speaking of old times said, the land that his father owned and that he paid about $5.00 tax on, was now divided into 14 parts and supported 14 families and that each of these 14 families made just about as much on their part as his father made on the whole of it and that the tax on the land was something near $300, and so it is with several other tracts of land near Lenoir.

Mrs. S. O. Smith has been visiting friends in Charlotte this week.

Miss Lillian Huffman, of Burke, has been visiting the Misses Tuttle this week.

Miss Mary Hunt, of Asheville, is visiting Mrs. J. E. Matlocks on Prospect Heights.

Mr. John A. Medlock, of Asheville, has been visiting Mr. H. H. Hefner several days this week.

Empties.

Harper's Weekly.
Two very cadaverous looking tramps looked in at the window of a railway station where a telegraph operator sat at his key.
"Say pardner," said one of them in a very husky voice, "report a couple o' empties goin' east."

Superior Court.

Judge Ferguson arrived here last Monday on the afternoon train and called court promptly at 2:30. The afternoon session was occupied in empanelling the Grand Jury and delivering the charge to it and calling over the docket for motions etc. The business has been progressing smoothly, but no cases of much importance have yet been disposed of. Mr. H. S. Smith is foreman of the Grand Jury and Deputy P. B. Bush, is officer in charge. Deputy S. A. Smith is waiting on the court in absence of Sheriff Smith, who has been confined to his home by sickness.

Card of Thanks.

We desire, in this public manner, to express our sincerest thanks to our friends who so generously participated in the "pounding" we received a few days since. We have survived the shock wonderfully well. We crave the richest blessings upon those friends.
Sincerely,
MR. AND MRS. DOWNUM,

Kings Creek Items.

Well, we have had one more snow.

February has been in the lead this season for snow, have had four and all have been right good ones, although we live in hopes of brighter days.

Misses Martha and Minnie Pennell, of Draco, has spent some time visiting in this settlement. We enjoyed their stay very much.

We are glad to mention the singing school that will be taught at Kings Creek in March by Mr. John Downs, of Downsville. He is a fine singing teacher.

The Sunday School Association will meet at this place in March. Time and date will appear later.

Wishing the News and its many readers and correspondents success.
A FRIEND.

An editor writes: "One of our newly married young ladies kneads bread with her gloves on. The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on; he needs it with his trousers on, and unless the delinquent readers of this old rag of freedom pay up soon we will need bread without a darn thing on."
