

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. S. O. Smith went to Charlotte on business Wednesday.

We regret to note the serious sickness of Mrs. F. P. Moore. Mrs. Moore is at the home of her son, Mr. Joe C. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Edwards, who have been stopping at The Martins for some days, left Wednesday morning for their summer home at Blowing Rock.

There will be a box-supper at Mt. Zion Saturday night April 11th for the benefit of Mt. Zion Methodist church. All are invited. Any help will be greatly appreciated.

Mr. W. A. Hoke has sold his house and lot near the Lenoir Cotton Mills to the Cotton Mill Co. and little later will build himself a new residence on a lot bought of Mr. Robt. Hedrick near the Reformed church.

Mr. G. W. Palmer, of Yadkin Valley, who has been in the lumber business Co. for several years, will go to North Wilkesboro soon and will take a position with the Giant Lumber Company.

Mr. Edleman, Mgr. of the chain gang of Gaston county, came to Lenoir last Tuesday and took Ramon Sanders, the young man who was sentenced to the roads at last fall court and who escaped soon after being taken there, back to the roads in Gaston.

Owing to the crowded condition of our paper last issue, we failed to call attention to the full page ad of Mr. J. W. Self in last issue. Ofcourse our readers all saw it and we are pleased to note that Mr. Self is having a fine trade during his spring opening sale.

Next Sunday—Palm Sunday—special services at St. James church 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Friday services this week will be omitted. Childrens services Saturday at 4 p. m. Subject of sermon Sunday evening—"The Passing away of old Fashioned Protestantism."

Mr. Isaac Taylor while loading brick bats and other rubbish from the old hotel building on a wagon last Wednesday, found a one dollar gold piece. Mr. Taylor certainly has an eye for gold to see so small a piece in that kind of stuff. He has been offered $5.00 for his find.

Sheriff D. M. Boyd, of Catawba county, last Friday captured a moonshine still near Conover in full blast and took it to Conover, put it in an old stable and locked it up, notifying the Federal authorities what he had done. Sunday morning it was found that someone had recaptured the whole outfit and made way with it. "Try it again sheriff."

Monday May 1st was the day to sell land for all unpaid taxes for 1907, but our County Commissioners have very kindly extended the time till the 1st Monday in June, giving the people of Caldwell County one more month to settle their taxes and save costs. This is very nice in our Commissioners and we hope the people will take advantage of it.

Miss Annie Cloyd went to Charlotte on business yesterday.

There will be special Easter services at the Methodist church at 11 o'clock a.m. Easter Sunday, 19.

Mr. F. H. Coffey is gone on a business trip to Ohio and Indiana and other states of the middle west.

Four persons were admitted to the Baptist church last Wednesday evening by baptism and profession of faith.

Mr. W. A. Watson is selling out his stock at cost with a view of going out of the mercantile business. See his ad.

See the New Advertisements of Lenoir Realty & Insurance Co., Colonial Opera Co. and Lenoir Meat Market in this issue.

Mr. Munroe Cloer has moved his barber shop to the Harper building and has one of the nicest places of business in town.

You can find Mr. Will J. Ramseur at M. M. Courtney's store and he will be glad to see you and will be delighted to wait on you.

The peach crop, we are told is not all killed by the recent cold weather. In some localities, we learn, there are prospects of a full crop.

Pay your tax by the first day of May, so you can vote in the election on May 26th, and also save the cost of advertising by the sheriff.

Persons who miss the "Trip to India" by the Colonial Opera Co. tonight at the Opera House will regret it. Lenoir is fortunate in securing this fine company.

The Colonial Opera Company which is billed to play at the Opera House tonight is highly endorsed by all the newspapers where the company has played. It will be perhaps the best troupe ever seen in Lenoir.

There will be a Special Service at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday afternoon at 3:30. Every member of Home department and Sunday School is urged to be present. The public also is cordially invited to attend as there will be no services at night.

The new road west of town, which leaves the public road at the foot of the Ervin hill and passes around through the old Puette farm coming back into the street again at Curlee & Lindsay's store, has been completed and turned over to the county. We understand it is a good piece of work and a great improvement over the old road.

In the case of State against Banner, for killing Cline at Watauga, which was tried this week in Boone, the verdict was murder in the second degree and the sentence of the court was 30 years in the penitentiary. Banner took an appeal to the Supreme Court and his bond was fixed at $8,000, which we understand he gave and was released from jail.

The Special Services or Mission conducted by Dr. Jefferis, at St. James Church will begin May 10th and continue through May 17th.

The Opera Company Pleas'd A Good Audience.

The Colonial Opera Company opened a three nights' engagement at the Academy of Music last night to a good sized and very appreciative audience. The opera presented was "A Trip to India," and it proved to be a splendid offering. The cast of principals was exceptionally good and sang its roles beautifully. Miss Juanita Rush, the "prima donna," is possessed of a true magnificent voice and sang her role with much ease and grace. The scenic production was a very creditable one, and the costumes were very nice. The "Trocaedere Quartette" appeared in the second act and made a distinct hit, being encored several times.

The Colonial Opera Company will be seen again to-night, when "Fra Diavolo" will be offered. At the matinee to-morrow afternoon "A Trip to India" will be repeated, and for the closing performance to-morrow night "Chimes of Normandy" will be sung.—Charlotte Observer.

Take Your Shotgun To The Caterpillar.

This spraying will not kill the Caterpillar and I am glad it will not, for we want to have the sport and fun in killing them. How? Why just load up a lot of shells with half powder loads and no shot. Fill your pockets with these shells; now load your gun and hold it within 8 or 10 inches of the nest, pull the trigger, and the work is done. If you want to have a little sport and destroy every caterpillar on the ranch, just try this plan on the first that come, and you will be so pleased you will go over to your neighbors and shoot his for him before he finds out the plan.

Do you want fruit? Then spray. H. F. FREEMAN. Johnston Co., N. C.
