

In Memoriam.

Ida E. Barnett was born April 15th, 1871, and died March 21st, 1908. She was married to John F. Barnett May 5th, 1901, and during nearly eight years that we lived together we lived in peace and harmony with each other. We were never the least fretted at each other. About 13 weeks ago she took catarrh of the throat and it ran into consumption and killed her. The doctors did all that lay in their power to save her, but could not, it was God's will to call her from this world to her home above, where she will suffer no more pain or death. She said that she was ready to die and meet her God in peace.

"Asleep in Jesus, Blessed sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep, A calm and undisturbed repose Unbroken by the last of foes.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup—the cough syrup that tastes nearly as good as maple sugar and which children like so well to take. Unlike nearly all other cough remedies, it does not constipate, but on the other hand it acts promptly yet gently on the bowels, through which the cold is forced out of the system, and at the same time it allays inflammation. Always use Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. Sold by J. E. Shell, Dr. Kent and Granite Falls Drug Co.

Sam Ellis went to Brown's stable last Saturday while drunk and raised a row with Bas Bradshaw, driver for the Cannon Manufacturing Co. Bradshaw beat him up pretty bad. Both were before the Police Justice Monday morning. Bradshaw was taxed with half the costs and Ellis was sent to the chain gang for 3 1/2 months. He was tried in three cases, assault, being drunk and carrying concealed weapons.—Concord Times.

"What was it that caused this man to give 3 1/2 month of his time to the public roads? Whiskey!"—C.

To have perfect health we must have perfect digestion, and it is very important not to permit of any delay the moment the stomach feels out of order. Take something at once that you know will promptly and unflinchingly assist digestion. There is nothing better than Kodol for dyspepsia, indigestion, sour stomach belching of gas and nervous head ache. Kodol is a natural digestant, and will digest what you eat. Sold by J. E. Leg Cut Off To Save Him From The Wreck But Death Claimed Him.

St. Louis Dispatch, 2d.

Pinioned under wreckage caused by a rear end collision on the Burlington railroad today, and with steam from a broken engine pipe pouring into his face, Horace A. McKittrick, a stock breeder, of Brookfield, Mo., directed the amputation of his leg and furnished a dull jack knife with which the work was done. The rough operation was performed by the Rev. R. C. Allen, of Grove City, Pa., but it failed of its purpose McKittrick dying later at a hospital.

Four others were injured in the wreck, which occurred near Spanish Lake, where a passenger train crashed into the rear end of a freight train.

Suffering and Dollars Saved.

E. S. Loper, of Marilla, N. Y., says: "I am a carpenter and have had many severe cuts healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It has saved me suffering and dollars. It is by far the best healing salve I have ever found." Heals burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at J. E. Shell's drugist.

"And each zephyr dances to us with a rosebud in its mouth," warbles a Southern editor. It is hard to figure a man like that writing about the tariff with a cob pipe in his mouth.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson II.—Second Quarter, For April 12, 1908.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, John xi, 1-57. Memory Verses, 43, 44—Golden Text, John xi, 25—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1905, by American Press Association.] Still remembering why this gospel was written, that we might have life through Jesus Christ, the Son of God (xx, 31), we come to this great resurrection chapter and anticipate somewhat the optional Easter lesson of next week. There is no salvation for any one apart from the resurrection of Jesus Christ, as is fully set forth in I Cor. xv, 1-20, and there is no fullness of life for any save one until the immortal body becomes ours at the resurrection of the just at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ (I Thess. iv, 16-18; I Cor. xv, 50-54). All the mystery of sickness and suffering and seemingly unanswered prayer will then be made plain, for now we see through a glass darkly, but then face to face; now we know in part, but then shall we know even as also we are known.

Here is a family specially dear to our Lord, where He always had a cordial welcome and where there was one who could do all that needed to be done and find time to sit at His feet and hear His word (Luke x, 38-42). Many a time He was refreshed in this house. Yet see what He permits even to such as these: The one only brother becomes sick. They send Jesus word. He did not come, but remained two days just where He was. Lazarus grows worse. The sisters' hearts are wrung with anguish. Oh, if Jesus would only come! Why does He not come? The brother seems to be dying. Yes, it is all too true; he is dead. The sisters are heart-broken and dumb with amazement as they are compelled to lay away in the tomb the body of their dearly loved brother, whom Jesus loved also. Now, see the Lord's view of this and listen to His words to the disciples: "This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby. Lazarus is dead, and I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent that ye may believe" (verses 4, 14, 15). After the burial and the home is desolate Jesus comes, and the cry of each sister is, "Lord, if thou hadst been here my brother had not died" (verses 21, 32). "Thy brother shall rise again. * * * I am the resurrection and the life." Though believers die, they shall live again, and believers who shall be alive at the time of the resurrection shall never die (verses 23-25). What God, who is love, for some wise reason permits for the present hurts Him as well as those who suffer. "Jesus groaned in the spirit and was troubled. * * * Jesus wept" (verses 33, 35). In all our affliction He is afflicted (isa. liiii, 9). He doth not afflict willingly. No chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous (Heb. xii, 11). What has He to say to these two sisters whom He loved? (Verse 5.) "Said I not unto thee that if thou wouldst believe thou shouldst see the glory of God?" (Verse 6.) What are they to believe when the brother is dead and buried? Believe in God and believe also in Him who talked with them (xiv, 1). Be not offended though they put you out of the synagogue and even kill you (xvi, 1-3). Have the faith that will not shrink though pressed by every foe, that will not tremble on the brink of any earthly woe; absolute and unwavering confidence in Him under all circumstances, like that of Pa. xvi, 1-3, finding joy in the Lord always. Then there must be obedience. Martha seemed to think it quite useless to take away the stone, for the body must be even now corrupting, but faith in Him and in His word delivers us from thinking such thoughts. Nothing too hard for Thee is the believer's cry. The stone being taken away, the same voice that in Gen. I said, "Let there be light," said, "Lazarus, come forth." And he that was dead came forth alive and well. Some one has said that if Jesus had not mentioned Lazarus by name all the dead would have come forth at the sound of His voice, and we know that the time will come when at the sound of that voice all the dead shall rise, the righteous at their appointed time, and all the unrighteous at their time (chapter v, 28, 29). How little we seem to know of the power of that life giving word! Oh, for the mighty quickening of His Spirit! But Lazarus, alive from the dead, is bound hand and foot with grey clothes, and Jesus said, "Loose him, and let him go" (verse 44). The power that gave him life brought him to the mouth of the tomb, but He commissioned others to loose him, for they could do that. All true believers have life, but not all have life abundantly, for they are too often bound by the grave clothes of the life when they were dead in sins. The Truth will set them free (viii, 32), and it is the privilege of those made free from former bondage to set others free, as Priscilla and Aquila did Apollus (Acts xviii, 24-28). The word of God in the power of the Spirit of God is that by which alone true life and freedom come, for thus the Son of God sets free. So again we learn that the great word for us is "Believe" (verses 40, 42). But see the result of this resurrection life, one result of it, in its effect upon many religious people (verses 53; xii, 10, 11), and lay this to heart, that if you will have resurrection life you must be content to suffer for His sake and find your comfort in the thought of resurrection glory.

Not a grain of real Coffee in it either, Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is made from pure toasted grains with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for Coffee. A man in Maine was told that prohibition would not prohibit, therefore he began monkeying with it and was indited, it cost him $1000.00 and 17 months in jail. He says now it will prohibit so far as he is concerned.

That languid, lifeless feeling that comes with spring and early summer, can be quickly changed to a feeling of buoyancy and energy by the judicious use of Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

The Restorative is a genuine tonic to tired, rundown nerves, and but a few doses is needed to satisfy the user that Dr. Shoop's Restorative is actually reaching that tired spot. The indoor life of winter nearly always leads to sluggish bowels, and to sluggish circulation in general. The customary lack of exercise and outdoor air ties up the liver, stagnates the kidneys, and oft-times weakens the heart's action. Use Dr. Shoop's Restorative a few weeks and all will be changed. A few days test will tell you that you are using the right remedy. You will easily and surely note the change from day to day. Sold by J. E. Shell Drug Store.

Weak Women To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, causes nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and sustains, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well.
