

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. E. C. Ivey is away on a weeks visit to Charlotte and other places in the central part of the State.

Mr. W. C. Coffey of Boone, was in Lenoir Wednesday attending a called meeting of the J. H. Coffey Wagon Co.

Hardin Taylor of Valle Crucis, was in Lenoir Wednesday attending the yearly meeting of the Caldwell & Watauga Turnpike Co.

Rev. W. L. Sherrill, of Greensboro, was in Lenoir Tuesday and Wednesday looking after subscribers to the Western N. C. Christian Advocate.

Rev. John S. Moody will preach at Chapel of Rest in Yankin Valley next Sunday at 11 a. m. and at St. James church, Lenoir, at 8 p. m. Men are especially invited to attend these services.

Frank Smith says—and Frank knows—to break up a setting hen, just put an alarm clock under her and set it to alarm and when it goes off the hen will go off also, and she will never go back. Try it.

Quite a number of Lenoir people attended the commencement exercises at Rutherford College last Tuesday and Wednesday. Among those in attendance were Mrs. J. P. Rabb, and Misses Nannan Steel, Edeth Kincaid and Pearl Hoover.

Mr. R. M. Tuttle, while in his barn loft last Sunday, from some miss step, fell to the floor below, 6 or 8 feet and was painfully hurt, it is thought there is no serious damage, still it was a bad shake up and it may be some time before he entirely recovers from it.

At a called meeting of the J. H. Coffey Wagon Co. held last Wednesday, H. T. Newland was re-elected President, Dr. L. H. Coffey was elected Secretary and Treasurer, Dr. Perry of Watauga, was elected a Director to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mr. T. F. Seeborn.

Mrs. Pendley of the Watauga Hotel, at Blowing Rock, spent last Monday and Tuesday in Lenoir. Mrs. Pendley was here on business connected with the Watauga Hotel. She says the prospects for a full season at the Rock this summer is good. She has thirteen cottages, with two rooms each, and they are all engaged but one.

Next Sunday week May 17th there will be a prohibition rally at Marvin Camp ground. Ex Judge Robeson, Prof. Avant and others will be on hand to talk on prohibition. A large crowd is expected. Come early and bring a full dinner with you. Everybody is invited and especially those who are undecided as to how they will vote.

Mr. Ben Green of Blowing Rock, was in Lenoir Tuesday and Wednesday attending a meeting of the stockholders of the Caldwell and Watauga Turnpike Co. Mr. Green is one among the few of the old 61 to 65 boys that are with us yet. He will attend the reunion this year at Birmingham, Ala. May he live long and never grow older.

Messrs. J. E. Deal, H. T. Newland, A. A. Craig and J. W. C. McCall left here Tuesday morning at 6.30 for Rhodhiss on a fishing tour, returning the same day on the 1.12 train with 28 fine fish, a product of the Catawba river, so large and so heavy were the fish that it required two men to carry them from the depot up town, the fish in a sack, the sack on a pole and each end of the pole on a man's shoulder.

Mrs. Thos. P. Winkler died Tuesday afternoon at her home in the Valley last Monday night and was buried Tuesday afternoon at Piney Grove church, Rev. D. P. McGeachy of the Presbyterian church of Lenoir, conducting the funeral services. Mrs. Winkler was a good woman, a good mother and a good neighbor. She leaves a husband and 8 children, who will miss her, oh, so much. Two infant twin babies were buried with her.

Another boy at Mr. M. C. Triplett's, 14th, 1098.

Mrs. C. B. McNairy returned Tuesday from a visit to relatives in Salisbury.

There will be no preaching at the Methodist church at 11 o'clock Sunday, but will be at 8 p. m.

Mr. Charley Coffey of North Wilkesboro, is in Caldwell this week. He certainly looks natural.

Mr. Jno. K. Moore is attending the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Pythians at Hendersonville this week.

Read the new advertisements of Lenoir Realty & Insurance Co., Bank of Lenoir and P. O. Grist in this issue.

Mr. Thos. W. Shell, the popular barber, has returned from Salisbury, where he has been for several months and may be found in his shop next to the News office.

Stockholders Meeting.

The Stockholders of the Caldwell & Watauga Turnpike Co. met here last Wednesday and re-elected all the old directors and officers for the ensuing year. A dividend of $1.50 per share was declared and ordered paid. Some much needed improvements to the road were decided upon, among them being the building of a bridge over the creek near the old Dobbins mill site.

An Old Paper.

Mr. J. J. Austin, Treasurer of Caldwell County, has in his possession a copy, or rather a partial copy, of the "Ulster County Gazette," published at Kingston, Ulster county, N. Y., Jan. 4, 1800. It is a very interesting old document. One item is headed "Washington entombed." "Georgetown Dec. 20.—On Wednesday, last, the mortal part of Washington, the great, the father of his country and the friend of man, was consigned to the tomb with solemn honors and funeral pomp. A multitude of persons assembled from many miles round, at Mount Vernon, the choice abode and last residence of the illustrious chief. There were the groves, the spacious avenues, the beautiful and sublime scenes, the noble mansion, but alas! The August inhabitant was now no more. That great soul was gone," etc. I makes interesting reading, but too long for our paper. This copy is mostly filled with foreign news and advertisements. A lot of the advertisements are signed, Peter Ten Brock, sheriff. We thank Mr. Austin for the privilege of looking over this old relic.

Blowing Rock luems.

Well, we are still having cold weather in the mountains, lots of fruit damaged by the cold and hard winds.

We are having a nice Sunday School and singing at Brown's Junction academy, lots of interest taken.

Thanks for the inquires of the Blowing Rock correpondent, from Dyson. We hope to see Dyson oftentimes in the News.

Miss Docia Coffey, of this place, is getting on nicely with the school at Foscoe. We wish her much success.

Rev. S. Ed. Gragg, of Shull's Mills, addressed the people at the academy at Foscoe this afternoon.

King's Creek Items.

We have had quite a cool spell that has been right trying on the gardens, though nothing has been hurt.

We had a fine singing Sunday. Mr. John Downs came over and spent the day singing with the K. C. choir. We enjoyed it very much. Hope he will come back again.

Mrs. Lark Ernest has pneumonia. We hear she is right sick.

I guess the panic is over by the rumbling of the lumber wagons.

Mr. Lindsay Ferguson and wife of Kendall, visited on King's Creek Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Will Newland, of Lenoir, and others will speak at King's Creek Academy Saturday evening on prohibition.

Mrs. N. R. Beach, of Raleigh, N. C. is visiting home folks for a while.

Success to the News. A FRIEND. May 13, 1908.

Show Sympathy to the Heroes of the Lost Cause.

By Col. H. A. London.
 Let us not only strew flowers up on the graves of our heroic dead and perpetuate their memory with marble shafts, but, oh, let us not forget the no less heroic survivors! Let us in our everyday lives substantially and practically show our sympathy for the soldier who will soon have "crossed the river" and joined his comrades with Lee and Jackson! Let not our ingratitude cause any Confederate veteran to envy the fate of his comrades who were slain in battle. But let a grateful people render proper homage to both the dead and the living—fondly cherishing the memory of the former and rendering all possible honor and help to the latter.

Child Fell Into Old Well.

Charlotte Observer.
 Morganton, May 11.—What may prove a fatal accident occurred here to-day when little Elizabeth, the 2 year old daughter of Mr. Z. T. Corpening, fell 56 feet to the bottom of an old abandoned well back of the Corpening residence on West Union street. The child was playing on some planks which were nailed over the mouth of the well, when they broke. "Uncle" Jerry Gordon, an old darky who was working near, hastily seized an old rope and at the great risk of losing his own life descended to the bottom, where he found the child in an unconscious condition. "Uncle" Jerry was furnished with a stronger rope and was drawn safely up with the child. Luckily there was no water in the well and the soft dirt prevented instant death. Drs. Riddle and Pfiffer were hastily summoned and the last report says the child is resting well, but grave fears are entertained for its recovery. The old darky showed the hero and a purse is being made up for him.

The Universalist Leader.
 Amazed at the brevity of little four-year-old Grace's nap, her mother asked her why she awakened so soon. "Why," replied Grace, looking up in childish astonishment, "I slept all the sleep I had."

She Weighed 520 Pounds.

The funeral of Lucina Miller, of Poughkeepsie, believed to be the largest woman in the state of New York, her weigh being 520 pounds, was held at her home last month. On account of the casket's size it was necessary for six porters to move it through a large front window. Mrs. Miller's twin sister died several years ago. She weighed 530 pounds. Being so large it was impossible for Mrs. Miller to sleep in a bed. The fat had grown around her heart to such an extent that when she attempted to lie down the circulation of blood was affected seriously. So for many years she had sat up, leaning over with her head in her hands, and thus slept.
