

H.C. MARTIN, EDITOR AND PROP.

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

PRICE $1.00 THE YEAR.

NO. 83

VOLUME X1.

LENOIR, N.C., AUGUST 20, 1909.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL. Lost in the Mountains.

Mr. Huffman Dead.

county, reports raising 30 bushels Unusual Marriage. of Irish potatoes on an eighth of an acre. Burglars have been busy in Statesville recently. A few nights

News Items.

Mr. R. T. Raymer of Iredell

since six stores and shops were en tered in one night.

Safe Crackers entered the post office at Gibsonville Monday night and robbed the office of about $75 worth of stamps and a few dollars in money.

arrest.

A young farmer by the name of Weatherland was killed by light ning at his home in Davidson coun ty last Sunday night. He was standing in the doorway at the time and it is thought that a gun the lightning.

R. A. Purser, of Charlotte, was arrested in Chester recently on the charge of seduction, the woman in the case being a Miss Hughes of Mecklenburg county. The young man refused to come back to this State to Stand trial so the Gover . nor issued requisition papers for him.

Mrs. Leslie Shaver, of Marion attempted suicide last Sunday night by taking landanum. She was discovered soon after taking the drug and by prompt action her life was saved. This is the second lowing, also with a load of lumber. attempt she has made to k II her At a load place in the road, Kin self and says she will yet succeed. She is a widow with one small man took his team back to assist child, and destitute circumstances are thought to be the cause of he desire for self destruction.

Last Monday night a young man uamed Clyde Hicks and a young known lawyer of Hickory, died on in Lenoir on the 8:55 train and stop Raleigh, last Monday night from ed at The Martins. Mr. Farthing an overdose of morphine. the proprietor, noting the restlessing strangers, in Lenoir, did not know how to proceed.

James J. Hutchins of Iredell Farthing kindly came to their as- retired in the sleeping car about county, was arrested in Statesville sistance and went to Register Mil- 12 o'clock and nearly an hour later last Monday for deserting the army. ler's and rousted him out of bed his condition was discovered and a He had been grauted furlough for and got him down to his office in physician summoned, but it was fifteen days and when the time was the court house where the license too late and nothing could be done out he failed to return, hence his was soon prepared. Then it was for him, A box containing 100 hotel, who in the presence of a key. Mr. Huffman was well known number of guests and the proprietor in Lenoir as he has been practicing and his wife, soon made the happy couple man and wife. Mr. Hicks He was a bright man and a good is a native of Randolph county but | talker and writer. in a rack over the door attracted has been living in Florida for some years and his bride is a daughter Homicide in Watauga.

> of Mr. D. C. Setser North Catawba township this county. Why they came to Lenoir to be married is not known as they did not assign any reason for doing so.

Peculiar Accident.

Mr. W. T. Boughman, who lives a few miles north east of Lenoir, had the misfortune to loose a good mare last Wednesday morning in a very peculiar manner. He was coming to town with a load of lumber and a Mr. Kincaid, was folcaids's teamstalled and Mr. Boughthe young man taking the doubletree off his own wagon and hitched

Charlotte Observer,

Mr. Thomas M. Huffman, a well woman named Ethel Setser arrived the train between Greensboro and Whether Mr. Huffman took the ness of the couple soon learned that drug with the intent to commit sui they wanted to be married, but be cide or not, is not known. He was in company with a man from Burns ville and was in good spirits and

Mr. Lawrence Wakefield and Mr. health as far as was known. He but a small job to call Rev. J. W. | half grain morphine tablets was Bell, who lives next door to the found in his grip, also some whisin our courts for a number of years.

Elk, was in Lenoir on business Tuesday and toll us of a killing in turned to the hotel, did not make that county.

Last Saturday a young man found the young lady missing. By named Hardin, who lived a few this time, Miss Olds had wandered miles from Banner Elk, went to far away and could not be located. the home of a man named Bennett Search parties were immediately to borrow a banjo. Bennett told instituted but she was not found him he could have the instrument until next morning about 10 o'clock. and pointed to it hanging on the She had spent the night underneath wall. Bennetts wife told the young the protecting arm of a huge rock man he could not take it and after but when discovered was so stiff some parlying Bennett again told from the exposure-it having rain him to take it, which he proceeded to do, the woman telling him if he did she would hurt him.

The young man got the banjo the rugged nature of the country it and started away reaching the was impossible for her to hear the yard when the woman followed and shouts of the searching party. Mr.

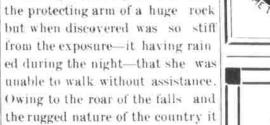

from the mountains of western North Carolina yesterday, where he and a party of Charlotte young men had been on a two-weeks' camping trip, brought back an exceedingly interesting story of a young lady's strange mishap there, Miss Loza Olds, of Columbus, O, by name. In the Charlotte party,

Mr. Flynn Wolfe, who returned aside from Mr. Wolfe were Messrs. Batte Irwin, John Kirby, Graham Ross and Ed Andrews, and they were at Cold Spring, near Upper Creek falls, in Mitchell county, 25 miles from Morganton. At Loving's Hotel there were many guests, Miss Olds being one of the number. A small company last Thursday morning left the hotel about 10 o'clock to go fishing and Miss Olds accompanied them. She is supposed to have fallen behind to read. a book and thus got lost from the rest of the party. When she observed that she was left behind she hastened ahead and thus became confused and in a short time had

Dr. R. D. Jennings, of Banner become completely unnerved. Those ahead, thinking that she had reany outery until they returned and

Are You Planning a Little Home of Your Own?

Won't you come down here and let us help you plan it ? You'll find the planning so much easier.

We offer you the helpful suggestions of the finest and most complete assortment of housefurnishings in Lenoir, low prices and liberal credit.

Won't you come in ? It will be a pleasure, we assure you, to aid yon in any way we can.

"What we say we do-we do do."

THE COLLAB THAT SUITS

The Reunion at Charlotte-Rate of One Cent Per Mile.

The State reunion of the Confed erate Veterans will be held in Char lotte, August 25 and 26.

Adjutant General London has been officially notified by all the end of a plank and broke its thigh. railroads that a special rate of one cent per mile will be given on account of the reunion. Tickets to been killed by this time, to stop be on sale on 22nd, 23rd, 24th 25th its suffering. and until midnight of the 30th.

The following is the program in detail:

10:30 a.m. Opening meeting. Prayer by Chaplain A. D. Bests. Address of welcome by Mayor Hawkins and Col, E. A. Osborne. Response by General J. S. Carr. Address by Chief Justice Walter Clarke, ex-Governor Jarvis and other distinguished veterans. Recess.

Afternoon session-Recitation by Mecklenburg Camp mascot, Miss Ruth Taber Porter.

Recitation "Lee to the rear," by Miss Bessie Burkheimer.

Introduction of Mrs. Burkheimer by General Carr.

Election of division and brigade commanders.

Miscellaneous business.

Evening, 8 p. m .- Entertain ment by United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Thursday, August 26-9:30 a. m. Parade of Veterans.

11:30 to 12:4fi Reception to vete rans by Mrs. Burkheimer. 1:30 Barbecue.

We never see the target a man bruises. aims at in life; we only see the target he hits.

Advertising is a tonic remedy that makes the advertiser stronger prove fatal.

to the end of the tongue, of Kincaid's wagon. When his horses pulled, the fastening broke dropping the doubletree on his horses heels causing them to run away

They ran to the top of the hill, where his own wagon was stand ing, in the road and in trying to pass it one of horses ran against the The injury is so severe that the horse is worthless and has perhaps

Zion Reformed Chucrh.

The following services will be held on Sunday:

Sunday school at 9:45. a. m. The pastor will preach at 11 a.m. and the business will increase until at 8 p. m. You are most cordially invited to attend these services.

with the other.

Meets Death on Trestle.

Marion, August 18 .- While Anderson Mail.

crossing the trestle of the Corolina, Mrs. Fred Branes, aged about 40 years, was struck Monday by a train and received injuries from which she died a short time afterwards.

At the time she was crossing the trestle there was a negro man and a negro woman just behind her. The man and woman jumped and though the woman sustained severe

It is said they were not aware of the approach of the train until it was too late.

It is folly to talk of being guidfor every does taken, but to stop ed by the light of your conscience taking it means a relapse that may when you take pains to keep it in the dark.

picked up a small hoe used for digging gensang and him struck one lick who found the young woman. Her on the back of the head. He linger- place of refuge was not more than ed until Sunday forernoon and a mile and a half or two miles from lied. The woman was arrested the hotel. Miss Olds stated that and held in custody awaiting the she distinctly heard the fierce verdict of the Coroner's jury which growls of wild animals during the was in session, when Dr. Jennings night and a mountaineer who join left home.

The summer travel to Blowing tracks in the immediate vicinity, Rock has picked up a good deal left the night before after the rain in the past week or so and there is had fallen. now a pretty good crowd up there. The building of the proposed new macadam turnpike will increase this business four fold the first year, if a little judicious advertis ing is done by the hotels on the mountain. And as the seasons pass that famous resort will be taxed to accommodate the guests. Howevev, if the proposed new road is

Some people try to accomplish not constructed we may expect Tuskegee Institute, is president of Mit Johnson sold them a large part their work with one hand while the people who have been going holding on to the the tail of time there to go to other and more easily accessible places.

Mr. Beauregard Thompson, who Cliuchfield & Ohio, Railroad at lives several miles below the city, North Fork, seven miles from here has sold a little more than 1,000 pounds of honey this summer, which he gathered from 26 hives. He sold most of it to merchants in the city at 17 cents a pound, but sold a little of it perhaps 50 pounds, at retail at 20 cents a pound. Mr. Thompson was at no expense. All he had to do was to gather honey and deliver it to his neither was seriously injured, customers. There was a ready demand for it.

> Mr. Thompson says this has been an exceptionally good year for bees. The supply of honey dew last spring was the finest and largest he has ever seen, he says.

The hair of the dog may be good for the bite, but if a dog bites you, go after his hide. Druggists.

Wolfe was the member of the party ed the searching party declared that there were numerous bear

Negro Bu siness Men are in Ses SIOU.

Louisville, Aug. 18.-Colored men engaged in commercial pursuits in all parts of the country are in Louisville today and took part in the inaugural programme of the 10th annual session of the Nation Creek celebration, Messrs High al Negro Business men's League. Dr. Booker T. Washington, of put up 3,200 cans of tomatoes. Mr. the league, and will preside at all of his crop in addition to the thirthe sessions, which will extend ty acres at Millbrook Farm, which through three days. An old fash ioned Kentucky barbecue will be held tomorror and a formal banquet on Friday. Reports intro by working at night. They also duced at the convention show that offer to buy every tomato at a very the negroes of the country and especially in the South, are rapidly crates at the first of the season forging to the front in a business may be shipped at better profit but way. Governor Wilson welcomed still the canning factory could the delegates today matoes raised in this section. Be-Cholera Infantum Cured. sides tomatoes, corn, potatoes, Something like two years ago my beans, okra, peaches, etc., could baby, which was then about a year old, was taken seriously ill with chol be conned and thus establish in era infantum, vomiting and purging our midst a market for all of these profusely, writes J. F. Dempsey, Ala. vegetabler we could produce. A I did what I could to relieve her but factory complete, where steam is did her no good, and being very much alarmed about her went for a physi already available, could be erected cian but failed to find one, so came and equpped at about $1,000 cost not work or get about, he writes, "and back by Elder Bros. & Carter's store which would handle 250 bushels and Mr. Elder recommended Chamevery 24 hours. It is the simplest berlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoe remedy. I procured a bottle of kind of enterprise and one we most it and went home as quickly as pos- need. sible and gave the baby a dose of the

We notice a policeman in Durham remedy. It relieved her in fifteen was fined $50, for striking a man minutes and soon cured her entirely. with his billy when it was not For sale by J. E. Shell and Dr. Kent, necessary to hit him.

THE COLLAR THAT SELLS

Our large stock, varied patterns and sizes enables you to suit your wants-whether it be a Scotch, throatless or cased collar with black back or rim, or full russet finished. We tan our leather with the old bark process, which gives it life and vitality. This is why we said last year-

"WHEN IN DOUBT, BUY OF PRICE!"

Price-Cline Harness & Janning Co

Canning Tomatoes.

Pender Chronicle.

Railway Company has had contrac tors at work cutting a line of track Wednesday before the Moorre's through Lynchburg, by which the route will be shortened seven miles. smith and Nunalee, over at Currie, Of course tunnels figure largely in the new line. In one of these tun nels, 1,300 feet long, fire broke out last Thursday and was not extin guished until Saturday. The fire were planted expressly for them. caused the destruction of about They have a capacity of 150 bush-$3,000 in timber work and caused els per day and double that amount a cavein of a portion of a Lynchburg street under which it passed, The ultimate completion of the tun reasonable price. Of course many nel is thus delayed, but the enterprise of the Southern is undaunted. This company long since gave the South as fine a road as the Penntake care of the big bulk of the tosylvania, and its present determina tion seems to be to give even a bet ter one.-Evening Chronicle.

For months past the Southern

TWAS A GLORIOUS VICTORY. There's rejoicing in Fedora, Tenn A man's life has been saved, and now Dr. King's New Discovery is the talk of the town for curing C. V. Pepper of deadly lung hemorrhages. I could the doctors did me no good, but after using Dr. King's New Discoverythree weeks, I feel like a new man, and can do good work again." For weak, sore or diseased lungs, Coughs and Colds, Hemorrhages, Hay Fever, LaGrippe, Asthma, or any Bronchial affection lt stands unrivaled. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial Bottle free, Sold and guaranteed by J. E. Shell.

Big Money in Honey.