Dr. York Loses Over $2,000. (Wilkes Patriot.)

Some weeks ago some one entered the home of Dr. York, at Traphill, took from a trunk 4 N. C. State bonds of $500 each, aggregating $2,000. On each bond were three coupons for interest already due. The thief was generous, however, for he left twelve other bonds of $6,000 worth untouched. Dr. York offers $500 reward for the thief and bonds, or $250 for either. This reward, Dr. York says, will be good for the next fifty years either by himself or his administrator and he has placed the money in the bank for that purpose. He did not make known his loss immediately upon discovering it, but notified many banks to be on the lookout for the coupons, should anyone attempt to cash them. Dr. York does not propose to take any chances in future, for he has had his remaining bonds and valuable papers put in bank vaults for safe keeping.

BETTER TIMES.

From all sources come assurances and evidences of better times. It seems to be not only "in the air" but to have permeated the factories and shops, the stores and offices, and the promise is for bumper crops the country over. If your business is more profitable, if your income is larger, don't let your ideas run to extravagance. Learn the lesson the recent past should teach. SAVE a large share of your earnings and accumulate it with this strong Bank and then see if you don't congratulate yourself when the next period of "hard times" comes along.

Accounts invited and information cheerfully furnished.

Respectfully,
