Mr. W. F. Green of Globe who recently underwent an operation for apenicitis at the Foothills sanatorium, is getting along very well, he was in town last Saturday.

The sale of tickets for the concert of the Carolina Glee Club has been large and is still going on. The attraction promises to be one of the best and most popular ever seen in our town.

A private letter from Mr. Herndon Goforth, who recently went from here to Washington City says he has accepted a clerkship position in the office of the United States Civil Service Commission.

Mr. James T. Pritchett came in from the University last Saturday and visited relatives over Sunday. He is with the University Glee Club and joined the club at Morganton last Night where they gave a concert.

These bad days could be utilized in making better arrangements for raising more chickens this season. Fix up the hen house and make new nests, no crop is more profitable than poultry if properly attended to.

Mr. Goforth the county demonstrator has received a letter from Mr. Massey in regard to Bud Worms that kills small corn and Mr. Massey says that Kainit distributed over the land infected, early in the season is the best remedy, 400 to 500 pounds per acre is the amount necessary. This is a cheap remedy the Kainit costing about $1.25 per bag of 200 pounds. Kainit is also a fertilizer.

A private note from Mr. E. P. Clarke son of the late Dr Boone Clarke, of Marks Mississippi says, he had the misfortune to lose his printing office the office of the Marks Review, last Tuesday night 20th by fire. The post office was also burned as it was kept in the same building, his wife being post master. His loss was only partially covered by insurance. He has bought a new outfit and will continue the paper.

Mr. L. T. Smith, who is working at Grankin was in town Saturday and tells us the work of building the new town is progressing rapidly. About twenty carpenters are at work on the boarding house and cottages, etc., while forty or fifty men are at work on the mill and other buildings. The trains are running out from Wilkesboro to within about ten miles of the town and if the weather is favorable they will reach Grandin by April or May.

The county commissioners made an appropriation of $150. at their meeting yesterday to continue the Farm Demonstration work for the county and endorsed Mr. G. M. Goforth for the position of demonstrator. This is the same amount appropriated last year and it is likely the work will go on just as it did last year except that more men and boys will engage in the work.

Mr. W. I. Littlejohn, a valued subscriber suggests that the County Commissioners would do well to have a small section of road build, of the approved sand-clay method to show the people what it is. He suggests that the piece of road from the western town limits to the foot of the hill west of the Spainhour bridge would be a good place to test it. Both the sand and the clay are nearby and the grading and draining of the road bed would be the heaviest part of the work.

Home Burned.

The home of Alex Dula a worthy and industrious colored man living a few miles southeast of town was entirely destroyed by fire last Sunday night about midnight. We learn from rumor that all his household effects were burned with $200. in money. The house was in flames when the family was awakened and Alex had a hand badly burned while trying to save some meat from the smoke house.

That Ground Hog.

Jake Patterson, the colored stable man at the Lenoir Livery Company has at his home in town a real live, sensible ground hog, and Jake has been watching and studying his hogship to some extent. The little animal is a gentle pet and runs at large about the house having a den under the chimney, into which it has carried bits of cloth, paper leaves etc. The little fellow had not been seen for two months, up to last Sunday morning, having been hibernating in his den or making his excursions to the open only at night. However last Sunday, being "Ground Hog" Day, Jake kept a close lookout for him. A little after sunrise, out he came and stretched himself, much like a man does when arising from sleep and he then looked around casting an eye towards the sky, gave a little grunt and darted back into his den. Since then it has not been possible to coax him out and he has not been seen.

Miss Geneva Triplett Dead.

After several days lingering on the "borderland," Miss Geneva Triplett, whose serious illness was noted in this paper, quietly passed away last Saturday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock. While her death had been expected hourly for some days, yet it was a distinct shock to the community. Tuberculosis of the brain, an incurable malady, was pronounced as the cause of her death and the end came like one going to sleep. The funeral was conducted from the Baptist church last Sunday afternoon, by Rev. J. O. Fulbright, the pastor, assisted by Rev. C. M. Pickens, of the Methodist church, Rev. E. N. Joyner of the Episcopal church, and Rev. C. T. Squires of the Presbyterian church. Regardless of the cold damp, disagreeable afternoon, an immense throng gathered to pay tribute to the deceased lady. The church was packed even to standing room, the large out pouring of people, being a high tribute to the popularity of the deceased. She was of that friendly, cherry disposition that wins and holds friends and was a favorite among a large circle of acquaintances, many of whom showed their love by exquisite floral offerings. She is survived by her parents, seven brothers and three sisters, all of whom were with her when the end came. The pall-bearers were, Messrs. E. L. Steele, S. L. Tuttle, J. Clarke Smith, C. L. Robbins, O. L. Moore, C. B. Reins, S. A. Richardson and Thomas White. The Maids and Matrons Club, of which the deceased was a member, attended in a body and were the flower bearers of the occasion.
