THE RESURRECTION.

"Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee.

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembered his words.

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest."

The idea of Vocational Education, is gaining in popularity in the south and it is a good indication. That is a boy or girl is educated along the lines they expect to follow in their life work. If a boy is to be a mechanic he is given special instruction along the lines of work he will undertake when grown. This training should begin in the public schools and taken along with the regular school work. Of course it is impossible to give actual instruction in mechanical trades, farming etc. in all schools, but the text books bearing on such subjects should be studied by the pupils and then when the school course is finished they are better prepared to pursue their studies in the technical and demonstration schools of the country. There are many things about animals, grains, forests and domestic science that can be taught in the regular public school course and it is gratifying that these matters are attracting more attention all the time. The County School Commencements being held in various counties of the state and tie one to be held here on the 4th of April, do much to stimulate this vocational educational idea and they should be encouraged.

Let the Glorious Easter-tide, be a season of Good will Thanksgiving and Praise. The resurrection of the crucified Saviour is an event of equal or greater importance to human man than His birth, therefore the season should be celebrated with equal reverence, praise and thanksgiving.

The woman who will deliberately place a chair where her poor beleated husband will be certain to stumble over it may be sure that she'll never climb the golden stairs.

Let Them Have New Suits.

(The State Journal.)
Probably nine out of every ten towns in North Carolina are groping along with inefficient administrations, due, not to the personal failure of their officers nor to anything which may justly be blamed for it. The truth is that town government needs a new suit of clothes. Some of them know it and some do not, and even those who do, don't know just what kind of new suit they need. More than two hundred and twenty-five towns throughout the United States have found that the commission form is what they need and that it fits the to a T. The size of these towns range all the way from Arkansas Pass in Texas, with a population of 1,061 to New Orleans with four hundred thousand, and are situated in thirty-one States. The modern town with its many public utilities, demanding expert and careful management, is a co operative business enterprise, and the old aldermanic government, with its diffused responsibility, jangling jealousies, and lack of cohesive purpose, is dead. It is the suit that fitted us when we were half grown boys with nothing more in administration than to keep the cows off the sidewalks, but we have out grown it. The sooner the towns wake up to the fact the better.

We ask our readers to look up the new advertisements in this issue and among them will be found those of Bernhardt Seagle Company, The Racket, Thompson Lyerly Shoe Company, G. W. Cloer & Son, Johnson & Smith, Lenoir Hardware & Furniture Company, Courtney Clothing Company, Bank of Lenoir and our Business Locals.

Woman's Institute of Anson.

(Wadesboro Messenger.)
The annual exhibit of the women of Anson, which will be held this Fall, will be supplemented by the canned products of the girls' tomato club, and the boys' corn club and the women's potato club. The work of the Woman's Institute of Anson County is known all over the State. The list for which premiums will be offered will be published soon. The executive committee hopes to be able to offer some good premiums. Our premiums have always compared well with the premiums of the county fairs of the State.

The Same Old Children.

In a book written by Bartholomew Anglicus about 1260 one of the most amusing chapters is on the children of his day. Of these he writes: "They dread no perils more than beating with a rod, and they love an apple more than gold and make more sorrow and woe for the loss of an apple than for the loss of a heritage. They desire all that they see and pray and ask with voice and with hand. They keep no counsel, but they tell all that they hear and see. Suddenly they laugh and suddenly they weep. Always they cry and jangle and jape; that uneth they be still while they sleep. When they be washed of filth, anon they defile themselves again. When their mother washeth and combeth them they kick and sprawl and put with feet and with hands and withstand with all their might." All of which sounds very modern and up to date.

The sad expression often worn by old men is probably caused by their having forgotten the things they thought they knew young.
