Applicable. We want some of the aspirants for political honors in this part of the moral vineyard to read an article on first page of this paper headed "Newspapers." It is useless to add that the cap therein described fits some of them beautifully. On a Swell. The meandering Tar was again beside itself last week, and being enraged at the heavy and continued rains sent a deluge of water over all the adjacent low grounds to its course. The result of this was a total destruction of much corn and other crops. Thanks Returned. The members of the Rough & Ready Fire Company and Eolian Brass Band of Greenville, N. It is to be hoped the boys will remember the words of Col. Cameron, at his last visit here, and turn out with full ranks. It is true the weather is very warm, but a soldier—to be all the name implies—is expected to stand hot things now and then. Hamming His Board. A letter from Seven Springs to a gentleman in Greenville contains the following: "A man from near Bethel (as he said) calling himself James Rollins, came here about three weeks ago, engaged board for a month, stayed about a week, left while we were at supper, turned up next day at Whitehall, stayed ten days and left sometime in the night, jumping his board and doctor's bills at both places. This man said he lived 5 or 6 miles from Bethel and was a farmer. Will you please inform me if such a man does live in your county, and if so, who is he, and how he stands financially, etc." Good Sermon. Rev. F. A. Bishop preached a splendid sermon on Sunday morning in the Methodist Church, from the text "My house shall be called a house of prayer." He spoke of the reverence with which many people would enter the Holy Sanctuary, and of their disposition to engage in idle, careless conversation while within its walls. He also made several Biblical illustrations of where sudden and severe punishment had befallen those who showed not proper reverence for God, and wondered that people could sit in His presence with careless, indifferent spirits. Having had occasion to lately reprove several parties for misbehaving in Church, the application of his sermon was timely, and we hope will result in much good. From the Lost Steamer. On last Saturday Mr. Patrick Matthews, of this town, received a letter that had been recovered from the wreck of the steamer Oregon. The letter was originally mailed at Perth, Scotland, on the 4th of March and on the back of the envelope was a label signed by Henry G. Pearson, Postmaster of New York, bearing date of July 6th, which read: "This piece is a portion of the mail forwarded from Queenstown, Ireland, per steamer Oregon on March 7th, and damaged by the sinking of that vessel off Fire Island on March 14th. Recovered from the wreck July, 1-4." Two bags of mail matter were washed ashore near Hatteras Light, this State, about two weeks ago, and sent to New York. Sunday School Conference. A Sunday School Conference will be held at Bethel on the 23rd and 24th of July in the interest of the Sunday School work for the Western part of Washington District, M. E. Church, South. Rev. W. H. Moore, P. E., will be present and take part in the proceedings, also the pastors and three delegates from each pastoral charge. Rev. F. A. Bishop, pastor, and Miss Bettie Warren, Messrs. J. Of Interest to Business Men and Others. We acknowledge the receipt of a new publication, entitled "The Law in North Carolina of Notes and Drafts," published by Messrs. Edwards, Broughton & Co., Raleigh, N. C. M. N. Amis, Esq., well known to the legal fraternity as the author of "The N. C. Criminal Code and Digest," and Col. J. A. Williamson, of the law firm of Coke & Williamson, Raleigh, are the authors. The work is designed for business men and others who may have occasion to handle notes and drafts, and contains much valuable information concerning these subjects. Among the more important features of the book are the law concerning the statute of limitations, or when a note "runs out of date," what will prevent its so running, how it may be made good after out of date, &c. Forms of every kind of notes and drafts are contained in the work. The business man will find this a valuable book. Sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents. Address the publishers, Messrs. Edwards, Broughton & Co., Raleigh, N. C. School Advertisements. An advertisement of Norfolk College for Young Ladies appears in this issue. The Management announce that arrangements have been made for greatly increased advantages the coming session. Every department is in charge of thorough and accomplished teachers, and terms are as low as the expenses will admit. Greensboro Female College is advertised in this issue. The number of young ladies in our community who have graduated at this College goes far toward recommending it to the public. The next session of the school promises even greater advantages than any former one. Some new and important additions have been made to the Faculty—which now numbers 18—and the College offers every advantage to patrons. We are glad to see the University offering free instruction to its graduates and those of the other Colleges. Students who desire special training in Latin or Greek or Engineering or Chemistry or any study will find it at Chapel Hill. Professional teachers are offered the advantages of a special course under Prof. Henry, while they may at the same time pursue any other studies. Considering the size of the Faculty, the equipment of the laboratories, the method of imparting knowledge, the number and character of the students, and the cost, we can unhesitatingly recommend our University as not excelled by any in the United States for our boys. For an announcement, see our advertising columns. To "out of sorts" with headache, stomach disorder, torpid liver, pain in back or side, constipation, etc., a medicine may be had.
