Col. Skinner Attends Meeting of Bar Association Executive Committee

(From Raleigh News and Observer.)

The 1914 annual convention of the North Carolina Bar Association will meet at Wrightsville Beach. This was decided at the meeting of the executive committee of the association, which was held in Raleigh, and which was attended by a number of the members of the committee. Those present were: A. W. McLean, chairman, Lumberton; J. Crawford Biggs, Raleigh; Harry Skinner, Greenville; A. B. Andrews, Jr., Raleigh; Thomas W. Davis, Wilmington; and Thomas S. Rollins (ex-officio), Asheville.

The date set for the meeting is June 29-July 1, which will make three days in all, the first session to be held on Monday.

Nothing has as yet been done toward the selection of the speakers, nor in making out any sort of a program for the occasion. All of this will be left until later. The committee having in charge the preparation of the program is considering several speakers and subjects, and it is supposed that the principal address will be delivered by some of more than statewide reputation. It has been announced, however, that there is as yet nothing to be given out in regard to the speakers or the program.

No decision has been reached as to which of the Wrightsville hotels will be made headquarters for the convention, it being considered that this is a matter of minor importance at this distance from the date for the convention.

The meeting of the association was held last year in Asheville at the Battery Park hotel, and was one of the most largely attended in the history of the organization. It is expected that the 1914 convention will be a record-breaker.

JETTON'S TRIAL SET FOR NEXT THURSDAY

Name of Dr. Wooten's Slayer Drawn With Special Verdict of One Hundred.

CHARLOTTE, Feb. 17.—All efforts to obtain the release on bail of R. M. Jetton, held here for the alleged murder of Dr. W. W. Wooten last Tuesday, today were ceased, when Jetton was arraigned in superior court on a charge of murder and the trial set for Thursday of this week. Both the state and the defense expressed readiness to begin the trial on that date. Jetton entered a plea of not guilty and the court ordered a special venire of 200 drawn.

A singular circumstance arose when in the drawing of the veniremen the name of the defendant was called. It was soon noticed by the court and the name passed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—A bunch of the champion New York Giants gathered in town today preparatory to starting tomorrow for the training camp at Marlin, Texas. Among those who will make the trip are nearly all the young players, the entire catching staff and Pitcher Christy Mathewson. The majority of the old players, excepting those who are on the world tour with Manager McGraw, will start for Marlin in another week. The world tour will join the club the second week in March and then will commence a series of exhibition games which will continue until the regular season opens in April.

Mrs. H. W. Whedbee and son, Will, are visiting relatives in Raleigh.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Scribe Realizes the Benefit Derived From Reflector Advertisements.

AYDEN, Feb. 14.—Mr. Joseph Tyson, who lived at Mr. C. H. Lancaster's died Tuesday morning with pneumonia, being sick only a short time. Mr. Tyson was an excellent farmer.

Be your own veterinarian. Buy you a salt brick of J. R. Smith and Bro., and your horse and cow will do their own doctoring.

Messrs F. Clayton Turnage and S. Alphonso Jenkins left for Raleigh last Sunday on their auto and bought a nice herd of Jersey cattle. They will conduct a dairy farm near the suburbs of the city this summer.

Mr. Richard Wingate tells us he will in short ship a car of horses and mules to Atlanta. Mr. Wingate is to Ayden what Mr. Bob Smith is to Greenville and Mr. Charlie Bevel is to Fayetteville, hustling all the time.

We are informed that Mr. D. S. Jackson, the famous mole killer, will soon open a fancy grocery in Ayden and if he succeeds in proportion to catching moles we bet on his success.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good, this cold snowy weather has created a good demand for rubber and other winter goods.

It surely pays to advertise in The Daily Reflector. We wrote an ad for Messrs J. R. Smith and Bro. advertising Lihuid Fargaro, or smoke to take the place of smoking meat with oak chips, and Mrs. Ed. Munford of Greenville came to Ayden the next day and purchased a quart of liquid smoke and returned on the same day.

Mr. Edward Wilkins, of Wilson, was in town Friday and tells our reporter that he never saw the like of preparation being made for tobacco. All the way from Raleigh to Ayden he could see farmers skinning pine poles and erecting new barns.

Everybody works but father, is what our Chief of Police told three tramps as they alighted from the train the other morning and father only had one hour to look him a job, one of them went to currying horses and the others went to unloading a car with a vim. Chief Smith told them this was no town for loafers, and they took him at his word.

Mr. Guy Stokes, of Timothy section, Clayroot, N. C., has accepted a clerkship with J. R. Smith and Bros., and will be glad to have his many friends call on him.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. D. R. Holloman to Miss Annie Edwards on the morning of Wednesday 25th. At home after 10th of March.

NOTICE.
All those owing the town of Ayden tax for either 1912 or 1913 are notified to come and settle same, as I shall proceed to collect by law promptly.

CHARLES S. SMITH,
Chief of Police and Tax Collector.

Officers Arrest Two Negroes Wanted in Other Towns

Two negroes giving their names as Walter and Charlie Williams, but later identified as Walter Davis, wanted by the Kinston authorities, and Ellis Fagan, who the officers of Elizabeth City, Norfolk and Washington have been in search for was taken into custody last night by Officer Geo. Clark and Deputy Sheriff Ernest Dudley.

The officers were notified some time ago that these negroes were thought to be in or near Greenville and warrants were sent here for their arrests. Upon receipt of this information the local officials got busy and was but a short while landing them, being located in the southern part of the town near the big mill.

Walter Davis was preparing to make Greenville permanent quarters for the future, having yesterday bought furniture and other things to furnish a home.

Fagan is being held for the Elizabeth City authorities from which place he escaped from the chain gang during May of last year. He is also wanted for the shooting of a negro in Washington last month. It could not be learned for what charge the Davis negro is being held.

They are securely confined in the county jail awaiting the arrival of officers from the above mentioned cities.

Case Again Jim Capps in Asheville Takes New Turn With Arrest of Branson Mathews.

ASHEVILLE, Feb. 17.—The case of Jim Capps, who is charged with shooting his wife with intent to kill a short time ago after which he turned his pistol upon himself and fired two shots into his own body took an unexpected turn yesterday when the arrested Branson Mathews, who is alleged to have furnished the pistol with which the shooting was done, urging Capps to kill his wife and end it all. The woman who was injured still hovers between life and death at a local hospital with slight chances for recovery while the man has been removed from the hospital to the city jail. Mathews is being held without bond, as is Capps, awaiting the outcome of the wounds of the latter's wife.

Two Young Men Drowned at Belhaven in Pantego River

BELHAVEN, Feb. 17.—The town of Belhaven was shocked Sunday afternoon by the drowning of Leon Greene and Augustus Anthony, young men about eighteen years. They were both fine young men and were held in the highest esteem by all who knew them.

While rowing in a frail craft up the river toward the cooperage plant to see the big dredge recently built here to drain Lake Mattamuskeet, the boat was capsized for some cause.

In company with the two young men was Carrie Lupton, but his endurance to the cold was greater, and he held to the up-turned boat till assistance came. He was rescued in an almost unconscious condition by Mrs. T. E. Powell, her son Mark, and Johnny Burgess, who were crossing the river and were attracted by the cries for help.

Heroic efforts were made to rescue the bodies of the two young men but without success. Drag nets, oyster tongs, ropes and rods with fish hooks attached were used. Hundreds of people flocked to the scene with the hope of rendering some assistance in the recovery of the bodies. A crew worked all night to find them but to no avail.

Young Mr. Greene was a student in the high school and stood well in his class. He was admired by every one for his genteel manly qualities, and only recently he had been chosen to represent Belhaven graded school in the state triangular debate with Plymouth and Edenton.

Mr. Anthony was a student last year in the same high school class, but had stopped school this year to accept a position with the Interstate Cooperage Company.

The people of the town are in the deepest sympathy with the parents of the young men.
