

THE CAROLINA HOME and FARM and EASTERN REFLECTOR

(Once a week)
Published by
THE REFLECTOR COMPANY, Inc.
D. J. WHICHARD, Editor.
GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

Subscription, one year, $1.00
Six months, .50

Advertising rates may be had upon application at the business office in The Reflector Building, corner Evans and Third streets.

Communications advertising candidates will be charged for at three cents per line, per line.

Entered as second class matter August 20, 1910, at the post office at Greenville, North Carolina, under act of March 3, 1879.

FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 1914.

When the weather bureau cannot be accurate, it should at least be optimistic.

Snow has given employment to the boys in the hills for the idle rich!

We don't know what they call a hat in Japanese, but that is what they are wearing!

There is one class of man that runs people down, yet liked by everybody. "The elevator man."

Brazil has radium, too, and will probably sell it as genuine Madia and Java radium.

Mexico has succeeded in staging a memorable horror—not that one is needed either.

Some actresses lose their jewels just to show that they are as young as ever they were.

There is one sure thing, no aviators get killed such weather as this, just little too cold to go up.

There is quite a bit of personality shown in dress these days and some times more personality than dress.

Pennsylvania's urgent need at the present political crisis seems to be one of Orville Wright's aerial stabilizers.

Still, if the kaiser wants to visit the United States, why not bring the yonks along—we are fond of the tids.

How would you like to be a linotype operator in Germany? Over there they call a dividing rod expert a metallwuschelrutenforscher.

Those who thought Louisiana would secede from the Union and join Mexico when the duty of sugar was removed have been disappointed.

There is no reason to believe that Andrew Jackson's high temper does not go with his walking stick, which was recently given to President Wilson.

A Missouri man advertises for a wife weighing 300 pounds and who is six feet tall. Some people simply can't get along without a boss.

In Tony Faust's restaurant in St. Louis is kept a book in which famous parsons record their favorite dishes. Secretary Bryan there goes on record as favoring "beef and greens." Thus we use the bond of sympathy established between him and Senator.

Both approximate the "hog and hominy" of pure democracy, and are well for the restoration of the simple life of our customers.

The express companies are not gaining any popular favor in reducing the rate on such shipments as the government handles by parcels post, and raising the rate on the class of shipments that cannot be carried through the mails.

This thing is going to act as a boomerang on the express companies.

March seems disposed to make amends for hitting us such a hard blow right at the start.

It will be no great while before some men in Pitt county see the folly of their action over the stock law question, and be ashamed of things they have done.

March may do her blowing, but you can take consolation from the thought that the bad weather is not for much longer.

Cheer up, you will be reading summer resort advertisements before a great while.

March did not wait to go out like a lion, but came in with a big blow and bluster the first day.

Those journals that are trying to bring on a war, have a hard job on their hands. The country much prefers that peace shall continue.

The fellows who start out after Senator Overman's scalp will find that it is not easy to take.

A Texas editor who has seen much of the "troubled country," says that the Mexicans need most is soap. Going on the theory that cleanliness is next to Godliness, the lack of enough soap to keep clean must account largely for the Mexicans being such an ungodly set.

It is not our purpose to reflect upon the character of any respectable citizen, but we do condemn such actions as these, committed by men living in this civilized age.

While our grand juries are sitting indictments would it not be wise to the law abiding citizen of Pitt county, that these people be brought before the courts, and dealt with to the fullest extent of the law.

The really getting men must have enthusiasm. Some men have enthusiasm thirty minutes some for thirty days but the thirty year kind is the man that wins.

In order to get the best results from a man help him. Even if a man has enthusiasm, if he is continually discouraged, he will certainly fail. Don't be afraid to tell or show the other fellow it doesn't cost you one cent.

A Florida town has an ordinance prohibiting "knocking" the town, and the penalty is fine or imprisonment for any one convicted of speaking evil of property, its value, or the healthfulness of the town.

The annual statement of The Home Building and Loan Association, published in this paper yesterday, afforded interesting reading especially for those familiar with the workings of building and loan associations. An association not quite eight years old, with 4470 shares, loans of $199,680.00, and total assets of $110,680.14, is no small concern. Last year showed the largest increase of any year since the association was organized. It stands to the credit of this association that it matured one of its series in a shorter time than any other association in the State has done and it is entering its shareholders nearly 7 per cent net. The good it is doing the community in helping people to own homes is incalculable.

FACTS CANNOT BE DISPUTED.

Monday afternoon we were asked by one of the county officials to accompany him to the building that all true Pitt county citizens look upon with pride—the court house, to view the condition of the court room was left in when vacated by the crowd that assembled there with their leader W. E. Evans, for the purpose of drawing up resolutions containing their views relative to the stock law question, to submit to the county commissioners then in session.

We wish it was possible that every citizen of the county could have viewed these conditions, in order that they may be convinced as we, that every man that lives within the boundary lines of Pitt county is not civilized, because the heathens of darkest Africa even uncivilized as they are, would not doubt have more self respect, his fellow man not considered than to spit and smear tobacco pipe and other filth upon a carpet and floor when cuspidors are plentiful and convenient. Why it is doubtful if even the criminals within our prison walls, while guilty of many things that would imprison them for years, would be guilty of such acts.

President Wilson talks about the Mexican situation like a man who knows what he is doing.

Jimmie Cowan will be promising all kinds of bathing suits if the editors go to Wrightsville next summer.

A year ago today Woodrow Wilson was inaugurated president of the United States. He has more than made good on every point, and the country may expect much from his administration.

More than sixty employes and fifty of their girls of the Lynn Paper Box Co., of Lynn, Mass., were driven in to the streets yesterday by a 150,000,000 fire.

George Newberry, holder of the avation records, was killed yesterday in Buenos Ayres and Lieut. Lastra, his passenger was seriously injured.

The executive committee of the North Carolina Press Association will meet in Raleigh on the 10th inst. to select the place and date for the annual meeting of the association next summer. Wilmington is already bestirring herself to secure the meeting for Wrightsville Beach. The meeting usually alternate from the mountains to the sea-shore, and as Asheville had the association last year Wrightsville Beach stands a good chance for it next time.

BOOSTING YOUR TOWN.

It isn't all when you talk for your town. What every man should do is to spend at home every dollar he spends.

Remember that every time we secure a big store, a successful merchant, he builds a building or rents one that you or some other man has built, he pays taxes here and he employs clerks. He consumes gas and electric lights, he supports the newspapers, he pays occupation tax, he assists in all the charities and supports the churches and public organizations. He increases the value of your real estate, he makes it possible for the professional man to exist, he builds a city, in a word, and without the merchant we would have no town. We would have no newspapers and no printing offices, no banks, no anything—but just a community where there were a few houses, and land wouldn't be worth as much per acre as it is worth a foot in a growing town.

Buy everything at home you can buy. Do let the parcels post and cheap goods allure you. Build up a city by purchasing things at home. Give your merchants a living profit. In these days of close competition he isn't going to rob you, if he were inclined. He helps you. He helps you in a thousand ways, and you get back more than you ever pay him. He becomes a collective force and you are only the individual. —Fairbrother's Everything.

Michigan Democrats will renominate Governor Woodbridge M. Ferris, who is the first representative of their party to occupy the executive office in more than twenty years.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Everett are in sympathy with every good work in the community and throw their influence to uplift every one with whom they come in contact.

Besides a number of guests from Palmyra, Scotland Neck and Hoggood, there were present Mr. R. O. Everett, of Durham, Mr. Justus Everett and Justus Everett, Jr., Misses Blanche and Ethel Everett and Mrs. Kate Beckwith, of Greenville, Mrs. C. H. Baker, Miss Nellie May Baker, Mrs. Nellie May Baker, Mrs. Sherrod of Salisbury, and Dr. B. L. Long of Hamilton, Mrs. J. B. Ewing, of Boston, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. H. B. More, Mr. Norman Moore, and Miss Bet Moore, of Rocky Mount, Mrs. Justus Everett, Miss Caroline Berry Phelps and Miss June E. Ward, of Raleigh, Miss Blanche Nicholson, of Bath, Mr. Warren Watson, of Wysocking, Miss Mary Cotten Johnston, of Plymouth, Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Martin Bellhaven, Mrs. R. R. Owens, of Baltimore, Md., Mr. Gulon Everett, of Robersonville, and Mr. E. B. Josey of Tarboro.

An unusual interest has been felt in this wedding, not only in this community but through the State. For years the two have been close neighbors, and as the years passed this friendship ripened into something deeper. The bride is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Baker, well known for their hospitality and graciousness, and has added to her disposition many other charms. From childhood she has enjoyed every educational advantage from which has come a mind of rare culture and wisdom.

The groom is a son of the late Justus Everett, of Martin county, a member of one of the oldest families in the State. He is a direct descendant of John Everett, who at the Hillsboro convention in 1775 represented Martin county. His education is none the less thorough than that of his bride. In 1907 he received a degree from the A.M. College North Carolina, and in 1911 received the M. S. degree from the University of Wisconsin.

The dining room was beautifully decorated with smilax, pink sweet peas and pink tulpe, and a course luncheon was served, the ices and cakes carrying out in an unusually attractive way the color scheme of green, pink and white, which prevailed through the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett left on the noon train for some place unknown to their friends.

At the Christian Church

Rev. J. Fred Jones who for eighteen years was state secretary of the Christian church in Illinois but was transferred to North Carolina filled the pulpit of the Christian church last night and was heard by just a medium size congregation, due to the severe cold weather.

Mr. Jones announced that it had been his intention to speak on the work that has been accomplished by the State Mission throughout North Carolina, but on account of the small congregation he would change his subject taking the life of John from his earlier days with the leadership of Jesus to the notable character that he became. The early life of the apostle was compared with that of the man of today, and the speaker urged that men of this generation should follow the steps of Jesus as John did and become more Christ-like day by day and by so doing press onward to the prize of the high calling.

Mr. Jones is a very interesting speaker and his work through the state will no doubt be a great aid to the Christian churches.

Mr. Vernon Priddy Dead.

Mr. S. V. Priddy, who was a buyer for the American Tobacco Co., on the Youngsville market, died Saturday in a Klemm hospital. Some years ago Mr. Priddy was located on the Greenville tobacco market and is well remembered by many friends here. He married Miss Mollie Parham, who survives him.

A Cambetti, United States Commissioner General of Immigration, may decide to enter contest for the Democratic nomination for governor of California.

Life-Long Friendship Culminate Marriage at Palmyra

SCOTLAND NECK, Feb. 28—In midst of a gathering of warm personal friends the culmination of a life-long friendship was witnessed on Wednesday, February 25, in the marriage of Miss Sallie Spruill Baker to Mr. Benjamin Bryant Everett. The home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Baker, at Palmyra, was the scene of this wedding, distinguished in every feature by simplicity and informality. In the hall the decorations of southern smilax carried out this idea artistically, the stairs and newel post being entwined with this. At the head of the stairs Cecilia's orchestra, of Greenville, produced sweet music, which promptly at high noon melted in to strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The guest list was not very long, but was invited into the parlor which was beautifully decorated with smilax, white carnations and tulpe.

An improvised altar in the room was lighted with beautiful silver candleabra which shed a soft glow over the scene. At this Dr. R. F. Bumpass, of Lenoir, a former pastor of the bride, took his place, while Misses Blanche Nicholson, Mary Cotten Johnston and Blanche and Ethel Everett, all attired in white carrying white ribbons to form an aisle entered. Then in the midst of a loving quiet the two about to join their lives advanced to the altar, Dr. Bumpass in a ceremony impressive on account of its sacred solemnity, took their vows. Little Justus Everett, Jr., carried the ring with which their fortunes were linked together, then they were pronounced husband and wife.

The bride was attired in a handsome white satin gown enriched with rose point and venetian lace she purchased at Bumpass on a recent trip abroad. The court train, hand embroidered in fleur de lis, was exceptionally handsome, and with the veil caught with orange blossoms made a picture long to be remembered. The bridal bouquet was of bride's roses and lily of the valley.

After the ceremony an informal public reception was given in the sitting room many handsome presents attested the popularity of both bride and groom.

EVERETT-BAKER

Life-Long Friendship Culminate Marriage at Palmyra

SCOTLAND NECK, Feb. 28—In midst of a gathering of warm personal friends the culmination of a life-long friendship was witnessed on Wednesday, February 25, in the marriage of Miss Sallie Spruill Baker to Mr. Benjamin Bryant Everett. The home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Baker, at Palmyra, was the scene of this wedding, distinguished in every feature by simplicity and informality. In the hall the decorations of southern smilax carried out this idea artistically, the stairs and newel post being entwined with this. At the head of the stairs Cecilia's orchestra, of Greenville, produced sweet music, which promptly at high noon melted in to strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The guest list was not very long, but was invited into the parlor which was beautifully decorated with smilax, white carnations and tulpe.

An improvised altar in the room was lighted with beautiful silver candleabra which shed a soft glow over the scene. At this Dr. R. F. Bumpass, of Lenoir, a former pastor of the bride, took his place, while Misses Blanche Nicholson, Mary Cotten Johnston and Blanche and Ethel Everett, all attired in white carrying white ribbons to form an aisle entered. Then in the midst of a loving quiet the two about to join their lives advanced to the altar, Dr. Bumpass in a ceremony impressive on account of its sacred solemnity, took their vows. Little Justus Everett, Jr., carried the ring with which their fortunes were linked together, then they were pronounced husband and wife.

The bride was attired in a handsome white satin gown enriched with rose point and venetian lace she purchased at Bumpass on a recent trip abroad. The court train, hand embroidered in fleur de lis, was exceptionally handsome, and with the veil caught with orange blossoms made a picture long to be remembered. The bridal bouquet was of bride's roses and lily of the valley.

After the ceremony an informal public reception was given in the sitting room many handsome presents attested the popularity of both bride and groom.

The dining room was beautifully decorated with smilax, pink sweet peas and pink tulpe, and a course luncheon was served, the ices and cakes carrying out in an unusually attractive way the color scheme of green, pink and white, which prevailed through the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett left on the noon train for some place unknown to their friends.

At the Christian Church

Rev. J. Fred Jones who for eighteen years was state secretary of the Christian church in Illinois but was transferred to North Carolina filled the pulpit of the Christian church last night and was heard by just a medium size congregation, due to the severe cold weather.

Mr. Jones is a very interesting speaker and his work through the state will no doubt be a great aid to the Christian churches.

Winterville News

The debate last evening between representatives of the Columbian and Desperian literary societies of the Winterville High School was heard by a very good audience, despite unfavorable weather conditions.

The query selected was: "Resolved that the existing conditions in the United States points to its downfall as a nation." The affirmative was supported by the Hesperians and the negative by the Columbians. Each speaker had made careful preparation and acquitted himself with credit to his society, making the debate one of the best that has ever been heard here.

The judges rendered their decision in favor of the negative.

Much interest is now being taken in the debate with Dell High School at Delway, N. C., which will take place on March 14, and will probably be held here.

The boys here feel that they will not worthy foe and are making careful preparation for the contest, which promises to be lively and interesting.

Dr. Gibbs the presiding elder of this district will be here Sunday to hold conference Monday.

See R. W. Dan for your fresh meat oysters sausage and beef.

A good sewing machine can save the madam a lot of worry. The very best can be bought at Harrington's Barbers & Co.

Miss Jannita Whickard is spending the week-end at Bethel.

We still call your attention to our up-to-date transportation. It is one of the best on the market. Come and examine it. H. D. Forrest & Co.

Miss Metilissa Phillips is spending the week-end at Weldon.

See J. Cox & Son for your best cream and root drinks of all kinds. Miss Lizzie Parks is spending the week-end at Tillery.

Keep in mind that for a limited time only we are redeeming tickets from the cash register at 5 per cent for cash value. Come spend your cash with us and get your ticket.

If you want a good sewing machine examine the Will C. Free at A. W. Ange & Co.

Miss Ruth Shearin is spending the week-end with her parents at Rocky Mount.

See Harrington's Barber & Co. for your straw or felt hats.

If you have a beef cow, hogs or chickens for sale see or write R. W. Dail.

A concert will be given by Miss Juliette Lovin, pianist, Miss Kate Johnson, vocal soloist and Miss Louise Pittrell, violinist, of Raleigh, in the Winterville Auditorium Saturday night, March the seventh at 8 o'clock. The admission tickets are 15c and 25c.

Mr. L. L. Leary, of Morehead N. C., is visiting his daughter here in school.

There will be preaching at the Baptist church tomorrow.

Pandora, the beautiful apportion, goes not hence before the Greenville public is given a chance to see her.

Do you love a love story? See "Pandora."

At the Christian Church

Rev. J. Fred Jones who for eighteen years was state secretary of the Christian church in Illinois but was transferred to North Carolina filled the pulpit of the Christian church last night and was heard by just a medium size congregation, due to the severe cold weather.

Mr. Jones announced that it had been his intention to speak on the work that has been accomplished by the State Mission throughout North Carolina, but on account of the small congregation he would change his subject taking the life of John from his earlier days with the leadership of Jesus to the notable character that he became. The early life of the apostle was compared with that of the man of today, and the speaker urged that men of this generation should follow the steps of Jesus as John did and become more Christ-like day by day and by so doing press onward to the prize of the high calling.

Mr. Jones is a very interesting speaker and his work through the state will no doubt be a great aid to the Christian churches.

Mr. Vernon Priddy Dead.

Mr. S. V. Priddy, who was a buyer for the American Tobacco Co., on the Youngsville market, died Saturday in a Klemm hospital. Some years ago Mr. Priddy was located on the Greenville tobacco market and is well remembered by many friends here. He married Miss Mollie Parham, who survives him.

"INCREASE YOUR SELLING POWER."

Get your business adds read by people who are prospective customers.

The printing press multiplies your selling power by taking your message to thousands in a quicker time and at less cost.

The value of the message and business it brings in depends entirely upon the way it is presented.

So much printed matter when printed and handed out, takes a direct route to the waste basket, and it is of the highest importance that you let The Reflector Co. do the work and get your right.

To have the sale idea of cheapness will never accomplish anything.

The small amount you save on a piece of work because it is cheap may be dear to you in the long run and will be no recompense for the dollars worth of business you may lose by not getting your work done with us and have it read.

We print adds that attracts attention and hold interest in other words get you a hearing.

Our job work is also of the highest class and at prices in keeping with good work, so why not give us your next job or add and let us convince you of the importance of advertising. The service we may give you will certainly improve your business—pulling power.

Give us a trial.

THE REFLECTOR CO.,
"The Action Shop."

NEGROES IN CUTTING SCRAPE.

Sam Brown and Alex Harris, two negroes employed by Mr. G. W. B. Hadley, and Dr. E. A. Move, while in a playful frolic Saturday became angry with one another and as a result Harris received a bad cut across the left temple, requiring ten stitches to close the wound.

The coons claim to have been life long friends and through some misunderstanding Harris hurled two or three bricks at Brown who soon grew tired of taking such punishment, and drawing his pocket knife he did the cutting act.

The negroes were soon taken in charge by Officer George Clark and will probably be given a hearing tomorrow morning before Mayor James.

Shad are Late

Shad are late getting up stream this season. None have been caught in the river here yet and likely will not be until the snow gets out of the waer.

BOLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Five candidates are contesting for the governorship in Alabama. The Republican ticket in Maine will be selected at a convention to be held in Augusta on April 9.

On April 7 the voters of New York will decide whether a convention shall be held to frame a new State constitution.

Twenty-three amendments, initiative and referendum measures will be voted on at the California election in November.

A special election will be held in the seventh district of New Jersey on April 7 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman Brommer.

Former Governor Myron T. Herrick, now ambassador at Paris is mentioned as a possible candidate for governor of Ohio on the Republican ticket this year.

Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara, of Illinois is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States senator to succeed Lawrence Y. Sherman, Republican.

Socialists of North Dakota met in Grand Forks recently and nominated a full State ticket to be submitted to the voters at the general primaries to be held in June.

Representative C. O. Loback of Theodore Douglas Robinson in going to Europe is to meet Col. Roosevelt and consult with him concerning the political situation in New York. Mr. Robinson is a nephew of the former President and chairman of the New York Progressive State committee.

Two candidates are in the field for the Republican nomination for governor of Michigan this year. They are Alexander J. Grosbeck, chairman of the State committee, and Frederick C. Martindale, present secretary of state and a defeated candidate for the gubernatorial nomination two years ago.

Beaten Restored
Thousands Who Have
Is Recommended and Praised By
May's Wonderful Stomach Remedy
SUFFERERS
STOMACH
For Sale in Greenville, N. C., by
THE JOHN L. WOOTEN DRUG CO
and Druggists everywhere