GERMANY'S HOLY WAR.

It seems that Germany is doing its very best to bring about a holy war in Europe and Asia. The selling of the two German ships to Turkey was but an act to create favorable sentiment in Turkey toward Germany. There has been many other acts clearly done to urge and hasten such a war in Germany's favor. At present, however, all efforts in such directions have failed. It is true that Turkey is at war with the allies but the war was not brought about in such a manner as to cause a holy war. Turkey started the war itself and is having authority in getting his own troops to fight, by some other Muslim people. There are rumors of uprisings in India and other countries peopled by Muslims but these are started by agents everywhere by Germany and of course nothing else could be expected from them. From reliable sources the general consensus of opinion seems to be the effort to bring about a holy war has failed. The uprisings reported are, when they are true, nothing more than those which are generally occurring in such countries and are not due to the present war. It seems that Germany will have to fight her battles with the help of Austria and Turkey, neither of which are in a position to give much help just now.

ANOTHER ROBBERY

There has been several hold-ups and attempted robberies in this county this fall. Most of those reported have been at night and in lonely places but the one reported this week occurred in broad daylight and just out of town. It was one of the boldest robberies attempted in this part of the State and it shows that there are desperate men in this county. This robber did not hesitate to use his gun and it is a wonder that his victim was not killed instantly. The robber has not been found although blood-hounds were used.

It seems that unless some of these robbers are caught and punished there will be no stop put to their operations. They know they can escape and consequently do not hesitate to attempt a robbery. Dogs should be kept within easy reach to put on the trail at the earliest possible moment after such an attempt. Now it requires some time to get the dogs and the negro generally has a good start on his pursuers.

With so many such attempts being made no man who is out at night or in the country is safe. Whether a man has any money or not he is liable to be held up and shot. There are tremors coming to this market every day and they should have protection. They are not going to get the proper protection until some of these negroes are caught and punished and every citizen of this county has the right to ask or demand protection. We would certainly like to see some of these negroes apprehended and given long terms in the penitentiary or punishment suitable to the gravity of the crime committed.

The parcel post has made it so easy to get things from the cities that it has forced the merchant who would hold his trade to be progressive and be up-to-date. The man who pays the bill has a right to get what he wants.

FARMERS' UNION.

The North Carolina Farmers' Union is doing things. Not only do we have the word of North Carolinians in attestation of this fact but visitors from other States make the same statements. The Union is educating and uniting the farmers as never before, the spirit of co-operation is everywhere present. The farmers are just beginning to realize that they have been made the goat all these years. As was aptly brought out at the meeting here the farmers are supporting the other part of the people better than themselves. They let the other man fix the price and weight their produce and let him also fix the price and weight of what they buy. All of this is wrong and thanks to organization and co-operation it is being changed. The Union is one of the greatest factors bringing this about and it is just starting.

The farmers themselves are not to blame wholly for this State of affairs. They have in many cases felt that they were imposed upon but to whom could they turn for help. They are not less intelligent than other people although they get credit for being such, they have just lacked concerted action. When the farmer begins to realize that in union there is strength things are going to happen. This is just what the men of the Union are trying to do, organize the farmers so they can act in concert.

There has been more this fall to foster the union of farmers than ever before, the wisdom of such a policy has been forced on them and they are learning it rapidly. The farmers have been taught that they must look out for themselves if they would succeed. And they are beginning to do this too, because they have done before. They are looking to the educated and well-read farmers, officers of the Union for aid and advice and they are following this advice. It is bringing about results already.

The Farmers' Union is destined to become one of the strongest powers in our country and if properly directed and controlled will be of untold benefit to the whole country. Watch the progress of the Union and by all means get in it if you are a farmer.

USE COTTON BAGS.

One of the largest packing houses and fertilizer firms in America, Swift & Company, has just announced that hereafter they will use cotton bags instead of jute bags formerly used for their goods. They are doing this to help the sale of cotton and to increase the home consumption.

This one company uses 10,000,000 yards of bagging material a year and it can be seen that this amount of cotton goods will materially aid in the demand for cotton. It has been estimated that if all those manufacturers who have been using jute goods were to change to cotton it would increase this country's consumption of cotton by 3,000,000 bales.

As this company depends largely on the farmers for the sale of their goods, especially their fertilizer, this policy shows they are desirous of helping the farmer. This is just another case in which it is as easy to use a home product as an imported one and this change is in line with all of the moves for the aid of the cotton situation.

Trotter who a few days ago spoke resultingly to President Wilson has been repudiated by the better element of negroes. It is said that his ideas are directly against Booker T. Washington's which explains to a certain extent why he balled things up so. Booker has won the respect and admiration of many people because of his sound views on race relations and we hear nothing about social equality from him.

The University has recently sent out a booklet on county clubs which should be in the hands of every man in this State. It is right in line with the community service work which promises to work wonders for our State.

On reading some of the papers we wonder how they were filled up before the European war started. The war certainly saves a lot of running around to get up news.

The advice to farmers from nearly every source is diversify your crops next year. One of the strongest advocates of this policy is the farmers' Union whose advice is probably worth more than all the rest put together.

Some papers have an inclination to air their troubles and difficulties a little too much it seems to us. If everybody else is like we are they have neither troubles of their own without bothering about the other fellows. The fellow who is always complaining about hard times usually has them all the time too.

Greenville's tobacco market has made a splendid record so far. The number of pounds sold to date is just a little behind the total sales for last year. With a good deal more tobacco expected this market is going to push some of the candidates for first place or second place.

It is reported that a fire inspector had, just a few hours before the fire occurred, warned the owner of the building burned recently in Winston-Salem that his building was a fire trap. He also had several doors unlocked which had formerly been locked all the time. Others should profit by this man's mistake.

A Wilson county woman had been saving up her egg and chicken money for some years, until the nest contained $65. She put the money in a pocket book and hid the book in a post-board box. Last Saturday she went visiting to a neighbor, and returning home found that a thief had been in the house, and among other things had stolen her money. And there are plenty of banks in Wilson that would have gladly kept the poor woman's money in safety and also paid her interest on it.

That negro who escaped from the cops yesterday and succeeded in getting away temporarily although ten shots were fired at him could tell from his own experience how it feels to be in a hail of bullets which we hear so much about these days.

It is said the boll-wool has been a blessing to the farmers, it has forced diversification of crops. This war situation will also be a blessing if it forces the same thing.

It is to be hoped that the American public is saving its money while the stock exchanges are closed.

Uncle Joe Cannon refused to commit himself as to women suffrage the other day. His questioner was evidently a pretty girl.

The famous Luther Burbank is a genius of course but the more new vegetables he develops the higher the cost of living goes. There is no telling what was the cause of the trouble.

Military men engaged in censorship are naturally impatient as they find that the work of giving out news could be performed by a clerk with a series of form letters.

The American Flag will be hauled down today at Vera Cruz and our troops will evacuate that city after a seven month's stay. We venture to say that the city will be returned in much better shape than it was in when received.

The color line is clearly drawn in the South and from present indications is being more clearly drawn in the North.

It will be remembered that this band of men operated about or after the civil war and their exploits were many and daring. They were the last to carry out such a great number of robberies for since their time a new order has come into force and such a course would not be tolerated.

With the number of accidents in handling guns that the newspaper are reporting it would be safe to cut hunting off the Thanksgiving day program.

Rumors as to Germany's war intentions offer as extensive a series of thrills as a serial story.

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.
A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For yaers the following statement from a Greenville resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

Mrs. L. E. Mangum, Fifth St., Greenville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are not a new remedy to me as I have used them on different occasions and have found them to be a remedy of great merit. I had been troubled with kidney complaint and a lame and aching back. Finally I procured Doan's Kidney Pills from the J. L. Wooten Drug Co. and used them with beneficial results. I feel justified in recommending this remedy for the benefit I have received. I have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills for the past three years as the cure they made for me has been a lasting one."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mangum had. Foster-Milburn, Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

CONSERVATION CAUSED BY SHERIFF'S VISIT TO GAMBLERS.

Kinston, Nov. 24—Sheriff Taylor and Deputy H. V. Allen threw conservation into the camp of a bunch of young gamblers Sunday afternoon while they were strolling through Parrott's Park just beyond the river bridge. There were between 60 and 100 engaged in every kind of small games of chance and the ages ranged from "so high" to grown-ups. A number of names were secured and some witnesses that will be called upon to tell about it to the grand jury at the December term.

For many years the place has been a popular resort for the sportingly inclined on Sunday afternoons and some who are not out of their "teens" are frequently found among them.

He is the only man who ever held office as register of deeds of Orange county. Laws was twice married the second time when he was eighty-six year old. He is survived by his second wife and three children by his second marriage.
