

THE CAROLINA HOME FARM and EASTERN REFLECTOR

(Once a week)
Published by
THE REFLECTOR COMPANY, Inc.
D. J. WILSON, Editor.
GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA.

Subscription, one year, $1.00
Six months, .50
Advertising rates may be had upon application at the business office in the Reflector Building, corner Evans and Third streets.

All cards of thanks and resolutions of respect will be charged for at 1 cent per word.

Communications advertising candidates will be charged for at three cents per line, up to fifty lines.

Entered as second class matter August 20, 1910, at the post office at Greenville, North Carolina, under act of March 3, 1879.

Friday July, 2, 1915.

CONGRESS IS CRITICISED

Yesterday's issue of the Washington Post roundly criticises the Congress for the meagre appropriation allowed the navy yard employees. The Post has the following to say in regard to the cutting of the navy yard employees' salary:

There have been too many economies of this kind. All the departments have been compelled to diminish because of the niggardly policy of Congress. Because of the smallness of the public buildings thousands of janitors and scrubwomen were laid off.

The Post is reminded that Congress by cutting down the salaries of the men, is practicing real economy. That the Congress doubtless has a definite purpose in view. That that view is most likely a view of having more money for the equipment of the navy. That by cutting off some of the useless employees that are always to be found around government work, Congress is saving a goodly sum that can be appropriated to the construction and equipment of vessels for the United States Navy. It is laboring in the navy yards of the generally known that employees United States are well paid in comparison with other public employees. That the average salary of an employee of the navy yard is very much in excess of that paid men on private works.

In the navy yards, men receive salaries as high as eight or ten dollars per day. Do they really earn this amount or isn't the government being lamed out paying out this large salary?

Instead of being criticised, Congress is to be commended in saving of the government funds, which it has made possible by a slight reduction of the wages of men employed in the navy yards.

On account of the critical trend of affairs in government circles, all the money that can be saved the government should be taken care of.

THE MAN FROM HOME

The last night of the Chautauqua and as a feature, the "Man From Home," and the pleasing character which dominated in that wonderful individual captured the admiration of the Greenville audience. Not least in appreciation, was the typical English colony, and the young man who was to have been the groom of the rich American girl, truly portrayed the average English "sport," and his foolish antics were appreciated by "real Americans." The average Londoner, or Cockney, as he is called, is a wonderful fellow. He is as blank and as idiotic in his expression as a savage would be.

We attended a ball game in London once when a group of American players played there. As the game progressed, the players on each side were throwing out what the English thought to be vile epithets at each other, the English spectators grew so excited that the police had to be called out to restore order. They fully thought that the Americans were about to fight. And they could not be convinced that it was a feature of the game.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION

There is much talk of the national prohibition issue which it is expected will be taken up very strongly in the next session of our Congress. National prohibition has always been a source of much argument, or since the question of eliminating strong drink has been before the American people.

National prohibition like the end of time, is a guaranteed certainty though no set date can be fixed for its realization. Gradually the people of this nation are beginning to learn that intoxicants are a menace to our advancement in every respect, gainable, and there is a growing demand for the elimination of whiskey. The anti-saloon league, however, of North Carolina, is not accomplishing very much on account of the prejudice of the people, which it has incurred. The only way for the state of North Carolina to impress upon her congressmen that she wants national prohibition, is by a direct vote. She can never hope to aid the United States with only her anti-saloon league working. The people of the state must raise their voice in the matter, and then we will be aiding those other states that are strongly in favor of national prohibition.

A FRIEND IN NEED

We are indebted to the Kinston Daily News, for today's issue of the Reflector. Owing to a breakdown in our shop, we would have been unable to issue a paper had not the Daily News come to our aid, supplying us with sufficient type to allow us to go to press. The kindness of our esteemed contemporary is greatly appreciated, and if we can ever be of service to them, they have only to call on us.

Greenville owes something to the home folks, and should at least do as much for them as those who are merely here today and gone tomorrow. The man who helps to make your town is the one who stops here, engages in business, invests his money, pays taxes, keeps up the schools, employs people and pays their wages, and in various ways puts motion in the wheels of progress. When you encourage this kind of a man you do the right thing. The home folks are the ones you must depend on, and they should have your hearty support.

Children need plenty of room in which to play, and streets crowded with traffic do not afford that room.

Greenville is going to be just as good a town as her own people make it in standing to each other.

Good luck to the newspaper boys in the mountains this week. Sorry we could not be with them.

Today is the last day for June brides to make themselves known.

Who was it that had the audacity to put the "mo" in Democrat?

All the time is a good time to keep floating up.

Dry as a bone comes quite near expressing it.

Long faces don't pay short accounts.

Negro Teachers Pay Tribute

Whereas, we have learned of the death of Ex-Governor Thomas Jordan Jarvis, who for more than a quarter of a century was one of the most prominent advocates of the cause of education and civic righteousness in North Carolina.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we the representatives of the colored teachers of the State, will ever hold in grateful memory the gracious work accomplished for the uplift of our people by the fallen statesman and patriot.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Greenville.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in time of danger.

In time of kidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective.

Plenty of Greenville evidence of their worth.

J. L. Connor, carpenter, 1109 Evans St., Greenville, says: About six months ago I had an attack of kidney complaint. My back ached and I had pains across my loins. I was so sore and stiff I could scarcely bend to pick up my tools. I had headaches and dizzy spells and the kidney secretions were irregular in passage highly colored and contained sediment. Finally I got Doan's Kidney Pills at The Warren Drug Co. and used them according to directions. They soon relieved me and three boxes cured me of all symptoms of the complaint. I have had no return attack.

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Connor had. Foster-Milburn, Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

MEDICAL COLLEGE OF VIRGINIA
MEDICINE - DENTISTRY - PHARMACY
Stuart McGuire, M. D., Dean
College building completely equipped.
Extensive Hospital and Dispensary.
For catalogue and information address
J. B. McCauley, Esq., Registrar,
1122 East Clay Street, Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Wells Browne Dead

Mrs. Sadie S. Browne, wife of Mr. Wells Browne, died suddenly Sunday morning about 6:30. Mrs. Browne had not been sick in some time and was in the best of health all day Saturday. She attended the Chautauqua last week on several occasions and with Mr. Browne the picture show at White's theatre Saturday night. The news of her death Sunday morning was a shock to her host of friends in the city. Mr. Browne, the bereaved husband, says he and his wife had a long talk before retiring Saturday night and discussed plans for the future in regard to their apartment house. About 5:30 Sunday morning he said, his wife got up and talked to their canary bird which was in a cage in the hall. Pretty soon she returned and complained of a depression in her chest. About 6:30 she fell over on the bed and breathed her last. A doctor was summoned, but she was dead before he reached her.

Mr. and Mrs. Browne had been living in Greenville about four or five years and they have been living together fifty years. The deceased was in her seventieth year. Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. L. W. Butler, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Minnie Hallock, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Services were held at the home on Dickinson avenue Monday morning at 10:30 and the interment followed in Cherry Hill Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. C. M. Rock, assisted by Rev. J. J. Walker. The pall bearers were: C. T. Munford, J. R. Mose, W. A. Bowen, C. B. West, E. B. Thomas, N. O. Warren, C. W. Harvey, S. T. White, J. G. Mose, J. B. James and C. S. Carr.

Mrs. Browne was a member of the Baptist church and was a good christian woman. She possessed numbers of friends, who are shocked at the news of her sudden death.

NOTICE

To the creditors of Jno. R. Jenkins, Jr. You are hereby notified that the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Pitt County, made an order in the proceeding now pending in this Court wherein John R. Jenkins, Jr. is petitioner and his creditors are respondents, which said order is in words and figures as follows:

North Carolina. In the Superior Court of Pitt County. Before the Clerk. In Re: Petition of John R. Jenkins, Jr. Insolvent Debtor.

ORDER

John R. Jenkins having filed with the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Pitt County, Petition alleging that he is insolvent debtor, and praying for an order that his estate may be assigned and for other relief may be assigned and for the petition of his creditors, and that his person may hereafter be exempt from arrest and imprisonment on account of any judgment previously rendered, or of any debts previously contracted, and he filed with said petition a list of his creditors with the places of their residence and the amount owing to each together with an inventory of his estate:

It is therefore ordered that all of his creditors, or such of them as desire, of the said John R. Jenkins, shall show cause before the undersigned at his office in the Court House in Greenville, N. C., on the 12th day of July, 1915, why the petition of the said John R. Jenkins should not be allowed, and why his estate should not be assigned for the benefit of his creditors, and his person thereafter be exempt from arrest or imprisonment on account of any debt filed in said schedule of debt.

It is therefore adjudged that this order be published once a week for three successive weeks in the Greenville Reflector, a newspaper published in the town of Greenville, North Carolina.

This June 11, 1915. J. D. COX, Clerk Superior Court.

WILL MOVE OFFICE
I wish to announce that after July first I will occupy offices on the third floor of the National Bank Building. 617-27d Don Gilliam.

STRAYED: One black cow with white spots, heavy head of horns and unmarked. Been in my field and vicinity for three months. W. J. Briley, Greenville, N. C. R. F. D. 4. 6-25-15 14d 27w.

MOUNT OLIVE EDITOR GOES TO TENNESSEE NEWSPAPER
Mount Olive, June 29.—J. R. Felts, for the past two or three years connected with the Mount Olive Tribune, a weekly paper published here, has severed his relations with the Tribune and gone to Bluff City, Tenn., where he assumes the editorship of the Sullivan County Developer, a weekly newspaper of eight years' standing published at that place.

WATER TOYS OF THE EAST

Ingenious in the Extreme Are the Contrivances Devised for the Amusement of the Youngsters.

Europe and America turn out for their children many ingenious toys, but they do not compare in ingenuity with the strange expanding water toys with which the children of the far East have amused themselves for centuries.

These curious toys are placed in small wooden boxes, similar to the little paint boxes often seen in our own country. They have the appearance of soiled shavings, broken matches and dilapidated toothpicks, but when thrown into the water the ingenious playthings at once exhibit properties that show them to be more than mere toys or bits of stick.

The wood of these toys have been kiln dried, and immediately it touches the water it begins to absorb the water and to expand almost indefinitely. As it increases in size it separates and suddenly opens, becoming a very pretty toy. One stick will change into a flower pot, containing a rose bush in full bloom. Another becomes a fat mandarin carrying an umbrella. Still another will take the form of a sea serpent, very ferocious in its tiny dimensions. Then, too, there are toys which show as whales, tigers, crocodiles, etc. The figures are colored, and present a bewildering variety in design and treatment. Their manufacture is a trade secret kept by the guild that turns them out by the thousands.

For older children there are provided larger and even more artistic figures, consisting of historical characters, rulers, poets and soldiers, and dwarfed trees and tiny houses, whose doors and windows are full of inmates, are also among this class. The more ordinary kind cost a mere song, but the finer toys are quite expensive.

The Dutch differ from the Chinese in announcing to the world the birth of children only in the article displayed. The Chinamen hang a piece of ginger over the main entrance to the house, while the Hollanders indicate the event by a piece of lace, combining with the lace a pink background for a boy and tinsel for a girl. The orphans of some of the cities of Holland are quite conspicuous, and especially so when seen on the streets of Amsterdam dressed in what might be termed half-and-half clothing. The east half of a boy's coat, including the sleeve, is red, while the west half is black. The dresses of girls are divided in a similar manner, but are topped off by becoming white caps, which make the young misses look very neat and attractive. This singular style of dress is said to have been adopted to enable the railroad officials, as well as the authorities, to keep track of them, says the National Geographical Magazine. As the orphan asylums of Holland have the control of children committed to them until they are of age, the more mature of the unfortunates (wearing those odd garments in public) present a very striking appearance.

DRESS OF DIVIDED COLORS

Peculiar Garments That Are Allotted to Inmates of Holland Orphan Asylums.

The Dutch differ from the Chinese in announcing to the world the birth of children only in the article displayed. The Chinamen hang a piece of ginger over the main entrance to the house, while the Hollanders indicate the event by a piece of lace, combining with the lace a pink background for a boy and tinsel for a girl. The orphans of some of the cities of Holland are quite conspicuous, and especially so when seen on the streets of Amsterdam dressed in what might be termed half-and-half clothing. The east half of a boy's coat, including the sleeve, is red, while the west half is black. The dresses of girls are divided in a similar manner, but are topped off by becoming white caps, which make the young misses look very neat and attractive. This singular style of dress is said to have been adopted to enable the railroad officials, as well as the authorities, to keep track of them, says the National Geographical Magazine. As the orphan asylums of Holland have the control of children committed to them until they are of age, the more mature of the unfortunates (wearing those odd garments in public) present a very striking appearance.

Royal Cafe

We serve the best of regular dinners for 35c

Change of Menu Daily by a Man who has had Fifteen years Experience

Royal Cafe

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's
The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; unless it comes out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.
Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

MARKETS.

Norfolk Markets Quoted by Cobb Bros. & Co.

TODAY	YESTERDAY
July wheat	1.06 5-8
Sept wheat	1.02 1-2
July corn	73 1-2
Sept corn	72 3-8
July hard	9.42
Sept hard	9.67
July ribs	30.40
Sept ribs	19.97

J. C. LANIER
MONUMENTS AND HEAD STONES
AND IRON FENCES
GREENVILLE, - NORTH CAROLINA

FOR SALE!

Bunch Virginia and Wilmington Peanuts
Mixed, Unknown, Iron and Speckle
Peas. Sweet Potato plants

HALL & MOORE

Carr & Atkins Hdw. Co.

Cool in Summer

Warm in Winter

Detroit Vapor Stoves Burn Oil or Gasoline Like a City Gas Stove

For Sale By

Carr & Atkins Hdw. Co.

GREENVILLE, N. C.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

E. W. CARTER, M. D.
Practice limited to diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
—and—
The fitting of Glasses
Office with Dr. D. L. James, Medical College, every Monday.
Home Office. Washington, N. C.

HARDING & PIERCE
Lawyers
Practicing in all the Courts
Office in Wooten Building on White street, fronting Court House.

J. F. THIGPEN
Veterinary Surgeon
Office: Winslow's Stables
Phones DAY 11 NIGHT 664-3.

DR. PAUL FITZGERALD
—DENTIST—
Office over Frank Wilson's Store
Greenville N. C. — Phone 607

D. M. CLARK
Attorney at Law
Land and Drainage Cases a Specialty
In office formerly occupied by F. S. James & Son.

S. J. EVERETT
Attorney at Law
Office in the National Bank Building
Dickinson Avenue.

PARKES ART STUDIO
Corner Fourth and Evans Streets
Photos Made Both Day and Night
Send us Your KODAK WORK

B. F. TAYLOR
Office on Fourth Street near Frank Wilson's store
Insurance

ALBION DUNN
Attorney at Law
Office in Shelburn Building, Third St.
Practices wherever his services are desired.
Greenville North Carolina

M. BENTLEY HARRISS
Sole With "OLD RELIABLE"
The Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York.

J. E. MARSH
Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist
Treat All Animals
Calls Promptly Answered Day or Night
Day Phone 304 — Night 395-L

R. C. CAUSEY
—Attorney-at-Law—
Office: Winterville, N. C.

DR. ANNIE L. JOYNER
Osteopathic Physician
Office in the National Bank Building
Dickinson Avenue.
Office hours
10 to 12 and 2 to 4.

MARRY SKINNER
Attorney at Law
GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

SCHEDULE OF PASSENGER TRAINS

Atlantic Coast Line.
North Bound	South Bound
No. 58 8:18 a. m.	No. 72 1:18 p. m.
No. 72 5:22 p. m.	No. 58 6:30 p. m.
Norfolk Southern
East Bound	West Bound
No. 4 1:08 a. m.	No. 3 3:02 p. m.
No. 2 9:40 a. m.	No. 17 7:54 a. m.
No. 18 6:30 p. m.	No. 1 5:25 p. m.

Norfolk Southern Railroad

New Short Route

Schedule in effect April 11th 1915.

N. B. The following schedule figures published as information ONLY and are not guaranteed.

TRAINS LEAVE GREENVILLE—EAST BOUND

1:08 A. M. Daily, "Night Express" Pullman Sleeping Car for Norfolk

9:40 A. M. Daily, for Plymouth, Elizabeth City and Norfolk—Brotler Parlor Car Service Chocowinity to Norfolk. Connects for all points North and West.

6:30 P. M. Daily, except Sunday, for Washington.

WEST BOUND

3:02 A. M. Daily for Wilson, Raleigh and West. Pullman Sleeping Car Service Connects North, South and West.

7:54 A. M. Daily, except Sunday, for Wilson and Raleigh. Connects for all points.

5:25 P. M. Daily for Raleigh and all intermediate stations.

For further information and reservation in Sleeping Cars, apply to J. L. Hassell, Agent, Greenville, N. C.

J. D. STACK, H. S. LEARD, Gen'l. Superintendent, Gen'l. Pass. Agt.

Invigorating to the Pale and Sickly
The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC, drives out Malaria, enriches the blood and builds up the system. A true tonic. For adults and children. 50c.