WEDNESDAY SALES.

Let the month between now and election be a month of active, earnest perseverance with Democrats for the perpetuation of good government.

Cottage Prayer meetings have been appointed to day at Maj. R. Dennison, Mr. C. E. Potts and at Mr. Ellis on Pollock street.

From a Virginia gentleman in the city we learn that the Vagabond pugilist, Edward Murphy is now in the penitentiary of that state serving out a five years sentence for robbery.

We publish in this issue a beautiful poem "Our White Oak Tree" written by Miss H. E. Greenlee, of Greenelee this State. It took the first prize offered by the N. C. Teacher for the best poem on our State tree—the White Oak.

A special correspondent gives a rating account of the Democratic and Populist combat at Trenton. We hear from others also that it was one of the Biggest days for Democracy that this section has seen for a long time.

The handsome brick residence of Mr. C. E. Slover which has lately had a full length piazza on two sides added to it and other improvements made is now being brightened up by a thorough repainting.

One of our attorneys takes us to task in reflecting upon the delays of the courts, we having made reference to the Mills-murder case at Raleigh. Our idea was to impress the importance of speedy justice in cases where serious crime has been committed and of such a character as to arouse and incense the people.

Tuesday the regular passenger train of the W. N. & N. E. R. put back to Wilmington when it was found that a wash-out on the road prevented passage. The trouble having been remedied this train made her run to the city yesterday but arrived behind time. The wash-out occurred twenty-five miles from Wilmington.

On account of the security of transacting some business relating to the Atlantic Association a meeting will be held at the Baptist church to-night it is however fixed at an early hour, seven o'clock so as to give those attending it an opportunity to attend the meeting in the Presbyterian church also.

Mr. Chas. M. Coston, a young lawyer of Norfolk, who came out last week expecting to make simply the round trip for pleasure on the steamer Neuse, found the city so pleasant that he has prolonged his visit. He intends to remain until next week, making about two weeks spent.

Mr. Edgar K. Bryan has rented Mr. E. W. Carpenter's Hotel Neuse and will move his barroom into it and also run a restaurant and barber shop there. Timothy Bow, now on Broad street will have charge of the barber shop. This is as far as Mr. Bryan has determined. He will perfect his plans for the rooms later.

A drunken white man fell over board in deep water at the market wharf yesterday morning. Though both before and after being pulled out he did not seem to have sense enough left for anything he knew enough while he was in the water to hang convulsively to a post till a rope was thrown him and then to cling to that till he was pulled up. It seems a man has to be pretty far gone before he loses the instinct of self preservation.

A New Teacher.

Mrs. E. S. Hunter has accepted the position of instructor in the intermediate department of the New Berne Collegiate Institute.

Mrs. Hunter recently moved to the city from Richmond and made her home with her son-in-law, Mr. R. A. Richardson. Her husband was a native New Bernian, Dr. Edwin Hunter, who is remembered by many of our citizens. Mrs. Hunter is a desirable acquisition to the Institute, being a lady of culture and also of experience at school work.

Gen'l. C. A. Battle Back from Canvassing.

Gen'l. C. A. Battle who has been off on a canvassing tour in the interest of the Democratic party returned home on the steamer Neuse. He spoke last at Jamesville. He failed to fill his last two appointments owing to the storm.

The canvass was carried on pleasantly up to the time it was interrupted. The General found the Democrats not only interested in the election but satisfied with the prospect ahead.

A Tug and Barge Lads.

Mr. P. Dougherty, of Baltimore, who carries on a very large steam tug and barge freighting business, is at Hotel Chattawka. Mr. Dougherty came prospecting with a view of putting on tugs and barges to run between New Berne and northern ports.

Mr. Dougherty expresses himself as highly pleased with what he has seen of the city. He says he had no idea of finding it such a place as it is. From the tone of his remarks we expect to see some of his barges carrying away cargoes of lumber from our mills and returning loaded with merchandise. Mr. Dougherty says he finds the people want cheap freight and he is in a position to furnish them. He owns indistinctly nine tugs and fourteen barges. He has one coming now loaded with 350 tons of coal.

Wake Forest College will play no intercollegiate football games this season.

THE BEST MEETING YET.

Increased Attendance—A Convincing and Impressive Sermon—Conversions—Appointments To-Day.

Owing to the fact that the Jewish services were being held in the room above the one appointed for the men's meeting in connection with the regular meeting in the Presbyterian church, the men's meeting was changed yesterday morning to the Y. M. C. A. Hall in order that one congregation might not disturb the other. Partially owing to this change to a place unannounced the number in attendance was quite small but Mr. Galis made a good talk to those present.

These meetings will be changed back to the lower floor of the former New Berne engine house this morning. It will be held there to day and tomorrow at 10 a. m. The room has been comfortably fitted up with chairs from the Y. M. C. A. Hall and with an organ from the music house of Mr. A. Colin tendered by Mr. Willie Stallings.

There was a good congregation in the church at the meeting held at 3:30 p. m.; the ladies largely predominated. The Bible reading was on what God expects us to give him, Romans 12:1. Our hymns; 1st Chronicles 29:5, our services; 1st Chronicles 29:14, offerings from our worldly possessions, and Psalm 45; "That which is of the greatest importance of all—our hearts."

Remarks apt and impressive were made by the evangelist upon each of these verses. The meeting at night was the most largely attended of any since Sunday—the congregation was a very large one. The sermon was pronounced the most impressive one yet delivered since the meetings began.

An after meeting was held to which many remained and two professions by young men resulted.

The sermon was based upon the incident of Nicodemus coming to Christ narrated in the third chapter of John. The Evangelist said he was glad the one of whom this was told was the kind of man he was, a leading man, a representative man, a man of the church, if it had been the adulterous woman or the man of Gadara people would have said they needed to come. The coming of such a man as Nicodemus showed that every one who had not been born again needed to come.

Regeneration was then spoken of as the work that God does in a man; it is not understood and not needed to be understood; there are things not understood in natural world, and we need not expect to understand all in the spiritual, but that should not keep any one from coming to Christ. God's readiness to save is shown by his great love. He so loved the world that he gave His only begotten son that whosoever believeth on him should not perish but have everlasting life.

The meeting today will be at the usual hours. Mens meeting at old New Berne Engine room 10 a. m. Afternoon meeting in church 3:30, and at night 7:30.

Coming and Going.

Rev. F. D. Thomas, of Rocky Mount is visiting relatives in the city.

The family of Rev. C. P. Jerome, who have been visiting relatives in Randolph and Mecklenburg counties, arrived on route to their home in Hyde county. Mr. Jerome also is in the city, having come up to meet them.

Miss Glennie Mooly returned home from a visit to relatives at Core creek.

Miss Lottie Roberts has returned from Beaufort and is back at Mrs. Bettie Whaley's millinery establishment.

Messrs. E. H. & J. A. Meadows returned on the steamer Neuse from a business trip.

Mrs. W. H. Howerton who has been visiting relatives in the city left for her home in Morehead.

Mr. W. B. Boyd left for Washington city to attend the annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrews.

Mrs. W. J. Stany of Grifton is visiting her brother Mr. W. F. Rountree.

Mr. J. C. Watkins, of Greensboro, is in the city visiting his father-in-law Mr. L. H. Outler.

A Comparison of Yam Potatoes.

Capt. E. F. Carraway from Adams Creek was up to market with very fine sweet potatoes, Norton yams and Pate-saw yams. The latter is a kind new around here which Mr. Carraway is introducing and which he likes better than with the Norton or the red yam. They can scarcely be told in appearance from the red yam but they are considered better. They have the color and flavor of the red yam but cook firmer and give larger yields than either the red or Norton yam.

Capt. Carraway in digging tested a few rows of each which were 300 hills long. The Norton average some what the largest in size but from six rows of the Norton he got only thirty bushels while the Pate-saw yielded at the rate of forty bushels to the six rows.

Glorious Revival Near Trenton.

Rev. W. W. Lewis who recently had a protracted meeting in the Free Will Baptist church of New Berne left from here on the 27th ult to attend the union meeting in Friendship Baptist church near Trenton, and conducted a protracted meeting there lasting through the next week which resulted in a glorious revival and nineteen additions to the church.

Among the number who joined was an old lady 86 years of age and one man aged 70, another 77, all but one of the nineteen were baptised.

Many were left asking for prayers when the meeting closed.

BIG DEMOCRATIC TRIUMPH.

POPULIST SPEAKERS NOT IN IT.

Trenton the Seat of War—Two Populists, Frank's and Koonce of Onslow Tackle Beddingfield and Burkhead and Come Out Badly Worst.

Communicated.]

Messrs. Beddingfield and Burkhead who were billed to speak here yesterday were met by Messrs. E. L. Franck's and F. D. Koonce, of Onslow county who asked for a division of time which was cheerfully given. Each was to speak an hour. Mr. E. L. Franck's was the first to speak who made a very plausible speech from a Populist stand point which appeared to give great satisfaction to the few Pops present who were not informed on the political issues of the day no doubt, but that they considered his argument unanswerable, their faces wreathed in smiles and their enthusiasm appeared unbounded to the very close of his effort.

But when E. C. Beddingfield arose, commenced pulling down the man of straw that Franck's had builded and exhibited so successfully and which pleased them so much, showing them the marked deformities and the fallaciousness of the arguments of the gentleman of Onslow, even calling upon him if he did not know that such statements were not as he had stated they were, and then turning, proving satisfactory to every one, even to the hard-shell Pops, by the record that his whole argument was fallacious. We could not tell which looked the most like subjects for a first class funeral, Mr. Franck's or the Jones county Pops, both white and colored who had cheered and made such loud demonstrations previously.

Mr. F. D. Koonce arose and proceeded to reply but every one acquainted with Koonce knew him to be a sharp debater, witty, and a wonderfully strong man to tackle, but Beddingfield's dissection of Franck's made the gentleman very liberal in his arguments at first and he approached every proposition with caution, trying to cover up every little defect and stop up every little crack that Mr. Burkhead could see through, quoted scripture and went back and raked up old history to sustain him, then delved into a pile of news papers which from the size of the bundle must have contained all the Populist literature of the day, read three or four extracts from them which appeared to warm him up and he pitched in to the promises of the Democrats, told their failures in every one, told the great blessings in store for the people should the Pops get in possession of the government, and then closed by asking every lover of reform to help them in the cause.

Mr. Burkhead then arose and proceeded to address the audience, and in a few minutes time he had the gentleman company interested; turned all his arguments against him, and had the Democrats all in an uproar. Cheers continued to pile on him during his speech. Some of the Pops, we know from their looks, won't be able to smile any more for a long time, while poor F. D. Koonce with all his faults of being in all parties and on all sides of every question, we could not help pitying him. He certainly felt the "sledge hammer" blows of Mr. Burkhead. Why even some of the Pops acknowledged that Burkhead is by far the best speaker that they ever heard.

We regretted that we did not have every man in the county to hear the joint discussion here. The same speakers will have joint discussion again at Tuckahoe.

HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY.

The wind during the storm at Southport blew from 40 to 80 miles an hour. The Old Fellows hall was blown down.

The Georgia Medical Convention, now sitting at Atlanta, has brought out for discussion the proposition to inaugurate surgical operation for the crime of rape instead of hanging.

Old Fellowship pays to the sick, the needy, the widows and orphans more than $10,000 every twenty-four hours says the Companion and American Old Fellow.

It was a Brazil, Ind., farmer this time who put $200 in an old stove pit and it was his wife who lit the fire later on. A Indiana certainly should be explored.

In the third Congressional District in Louisiana, says the States, the fight is on and Krice and principle is going to win against bounty and bolting.

A New York policeman had much difficulty in arresting a large Irish woman. She weighed nearly 300 pounds, and resisted all of his efforts. Gradually, however, as he advanced upon her she would back away, and little by little in this manner he backed her to the station house.

Coffee will be cheaper next year. The world's crop for 1894 is estimated at 12,500,000 bags, the largest on record, and about 2,000,000 bags in excess of the average annual consumption.

The fastest time ever made on freight between Chicago and Raleigh, N. C., has just been accomplished by the Southern Railway company bringing a car-load of meat for delivery in Raleigh in four days. This fast time was made by regular schedule freight trains.

The foot ball season of the State will be opened next Friday at Chapel Hill by a game between the University and the Agricultural and Mechanical College. The University eleven is crippled this year by the loss of all except one of the veteran players who brought last year's team up to the high standard it attained. The A & M team has also arranged for games with Trinity college.

CANNOT STAND FUSION

And Wants a Republican Convention Called to Put Out a Ticket.

Isaac H. Smith, col., of New Berne has a card in the Voice, a paper run by colored people in Goldsboro from which we make the following extract:

I wish to congratulate the Republicans of Wayne county in the highest possible terms, for their manly act in coming to gether in a Republican mass meeting and entering their solemn protest against the white so-called Republicans endeavoring to transfer the color vote of the State to the Third party. This, Mr. Editor, on the part of the colored Republicans of Wayne county, is the grandest, the noblest and the most patriotic move ever fostered by colored Republicans.

The Republican party, if you please, is the party the colored man belongs to and should he ever desire to leave it he desires to be led to another party by his own race and not by a handful of white Republicans whose only object and purpose of being in the Republican party is to get office.

I will give one penny a head for all the so-called white Republicans in North Carolina who have never had an office, never applied for one and never wanted one; and I will give five mills for every Third party man in the State who is honestly trying to bring additional blessings to the colored race.

The Third party candidate for Congress told the colored people in his speech at Newbern they were not fit to hold office.

Now, right in the face of these two great big truths and in the light of the Nineteenth century, the Third party people and their milk and cider white Republicans expect the colored voters to vote them in power.

I have just learned that the Republicans of Pitt county have made straight-out Republican nominations. Good for the Republicans of Pitt.

Let us keep the organization of the Republican party solid, and under the next national administration we will be the Republicans who have not left the party, and therefore will control the patronage.

I move that colored speakers be sent in all the Eastern counties to enlighten the colored vote. The colored people will be told by the fusionist-confusionists that the ticket out is a regular Republican ticket. I move that we call a State convention of the leading Republicans at once and organize or select a State Republican executive committee, for the reason the Republican party which contains about one hundred thousand colored voters has no organization to-day. The last State convention merged itself into a Third party.

Now, I hold as a legal proposition no political convention has a right to go outside of its own party to make nominations. The last State so-called Republican convention did go outside, therefore what it did does not bind Republicans."
