Misses Beulah Wilson, of Morganton, N. C.; Annie Fields of Kinston, N. C.; and Lucy Taylor, of Catherine Lake, N. C.; are at the Albert. Misses Wilson and Fields are passing through to visit Miss Taylor and she came up yesterday to meet them.

Mr. Robt. F. Gaskins, one of the crew of the schooner Wu T. Baker, was up to the city yesterday and left on another schooner for his home at Hatteras. She is now at Wilmington for repairs.

Two Fires—But Small Damage.

There were two small fires about dusk yesterday afternoon, neither of which resulted in any damage of consequence. A family was moving into the house of Mr. H. B. Duff's near Hon. C. C. Clark's and in some way the kitchen caught. The alarm was given, the department responded and the fire was quickly ended. Just afterwards a fire was discovered in one of the rooms of Mr. C. E. Nelson's residence. It was extinguished without an alarm being given. It probably caught from a match being thrown down before being properly extinguished.

Jailor Dave Barham, Col. Dead.

Dave Barham, col., jailor for Craven county, died yesterday morning after being ill nearly two months from an abscess of the liver. The deceased had held the position of jailor under both Republican and Democratic county administrations 18 years, ten years under Sheriff Hubbs, two under Sheriff Stinson and six under the present sheriff, W. B. Lane. Dave made a good jailor. He was attentive and kind to the prisoners, and steady in performing whatever duty devolved upon him.

Cyclone Below Jacksonville.

A cyclone went through the woods about half way between Jacksonville and Wilmington during the storm. Its path was about a hundred feet wide. The most of the trees were twisted off as it went. Here and there a small one was left. A stable of Mr. Winbury's was blown down. A flagman of the W. N. & N. R. R., who was making his way along to stop a train approaching the washout was caught in it and he says he only saved himself from being blown away by lying down and holding on to one of the rails of the road.

The Services To-Day.

The mens meeting in the New Berne Engine House will be held as usual at ten o'clock. The appointments for the cottage prayer meetings are as follows: Mrs. B. F. Cason's, Mrs. M. S. Smallwood's, Mrs. S. K. Eaton's, Mrs. Sterling's and Mrs. Elizabeth Hargett's. Those will all be held at 11 o'clock. The meeting in the Presbyterian church at 3:30 p. m., will, to-day, be one especially for children, but the older people also are invited to be present. Regular services in the church as usual—song service at 7:30, regular service 7:45 p. m.

New Berne a Good Place for Buying.

Along with his other fall goods Dr. Geo. Slover, one of our enterprising hardware dealers has just received what is probably the largest single shipment of stoves that ever entered the city. Their aggregate weight is twenty five thousand pounds. That our merchants buy in such large quantities sustains the position which the Journal has always held that New Berne is one of the best markets that the user or consumer can find in which to purchase his supplies. The large and well assorted stocks give good opportunities for selection, and the purchasing in large orders enables the merchant to purchase at low figures and the low freight to New Berne, owing to our having such convenient facilities of transportation as both rail and water gives still further advantages all of which work to the benefit of the first owner.

Fourth Ward.

The fourth ward registration books are open at my office in Cooke Grove cemetery. Registration will close Oct. 27th at 12 o'clock m. D. B. STALLINGS, Reg.

WATER WORKS SALE STANDS.

The Supreme Court Upholds the Action of the Supreme Court in Condemning the Sale.

The Supreme Court has rendered its decision in the New Berne water works case, in the action taken opposing the confirmation of the sale. The supreme court affirms the action of the superior court in confirming the sale.

The case was argued by Messrs. O. H. Gilson and W. W. Clark of the city in favor of confirming and by Mr. W. McEvers of the city, Mr. Israel Meares of Wilmington in person and Mr. C. R. Thomas in brief on behalf of creditors opposing the confirmation.

THE EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS.

Large Attendance and Encouraging Interest at the Meetings—Requests for Prayers.

Between fifty and seventy-five people attended the men's prayer meeting in the former New Berne engine house yesterday morning. It was a very encouraging meeting. Mr. Gales has taken for his subject at these meetings the reasons why men should accept Christ, and he takes one reason a day as his subject. The reason which he dwelt upon yesterday was that the wages of sin is death—death in this world to moral character and happiness and eternal death in the world to come. After speaking with great earnestness upon the subject he asked the hearers how they liked the wages.

In the afternoon Bible reading, Mr. Gales spoke upon the honors that God bestows. God honors those who serve his son by calling them his sons. 1st John. 3:1, 2. He honors them by dwelling and walking with them. 2 Corinthians 6:16; He honors them by giving his angels charge over them to keep them in all their ways. Psalms 91:1, 12; He honors them by being with and comforting them when they walk through the valley of the shadow of death. Psalms 23:4.

Another very large congregation assembled at night. The sermon was a solemn one from 2d Hebrews, iv: 1-4. It showed that the soul would be certainly be lost from simple neglect as from positive rejection.

An after-meeting for Christians and those desiring to be Christians was held. Very many remained to it and fifteen or twenty sought interest in the prayers of the congregation.

Services as usual will be held today. More particular notice of them is given elsewhere.

GENERAL BATTLE'S CANVASS.

He Used Up the "Plow Boy Orator" and Captivated the Audiences Wherever He Went.

We copy three press notices of speeches delivered by Gen'l. C. A. Battle of this city, during his trip just ended.

Gen. C. A. Battle, of Newbern, made a Democratic speech of an hour and three quarters at Woodington Tuesday. There came a barbecue dinner. The speech and barbecue both were good and were greatly enjoyed. Gen. Battle makes a rattling good speech and we hope to have him in our county during the canvass.—Kinston Free Press.

A gentleman who heard a discussion down east between Gen. Cullen A. Battle and Dr. Cy Thompson, and who was a stranger to both, remarked: "I tell you, sir, that old Gen. Battle out talks any man to his looks I ever saw."—Durham Times.

The following correspondence is from the Wilmington Messenger:

ELM CITY, N. C., Oct. 9.
EDITORS MESSENGER:—Gen. Cullen A. Battle had an appointment to speak here on October 4th, and the Populists through this section had said the Democrats were afraid to meet them in joint discussion. So arrangements were made for John D. Meares, of this county, a Populist, and known by the Populists as the "Plow Boy Orator," and so introduced by Rev. J. T. B. Hoover, to meet him. There were about 200 persons present, including a good many from Wilson.

Meares opened in a one hour's rambling, nonsensical and abusive speech, and Gen. Battle followed in a one hour's speech and completely captured the audience, and to say that he completely wiped up the floor with Meares and Populism is putting it mild. All those who heard it, and there were good judges, said Gen. Battle's speech was more suited for the occasion than anything they had ever heard. He so completely demoralized Meares that in his thirty minutes' rejoinder, he could only speak ten minutes, and then in a nervous and rambling manner.

Hon. F. D. Winston was present and was called for by the audience and he made a speech of an hour. When he was called Meares gathered his documents and left the hall in a half run with the intention of carrying his "third party" friends, but they were so disgusted with him they would not follow him. Mr. Winston made a fine speech and it was well for Meares he did not hear him.

Mr. Meares says please excuse him from any more joint discussion. He did not know the Democrats had kept a single promise. Gen. Battle told him he was not responsible for his ignorance.

Both Winston and Battle's speeches have done good here.

W. P. Chestnut, the negro candidate for Congress, spoke here Friday. While he was here, he in company with another negro, Hall Ellis, held a consultation at the house of Rev. J. T. B. Hoover (who is a candidate for the State Senate on the Populist ticket) with Jim, Jno. D. Meares, and Henry Williams, all white Populists. What the result of the consultation was no one here knows. The presumption is they were making a deal with Chestnut to endorse him. The convention at Rocky Mount to-day will tell what the result was.

DR. NORMAN DECLINES.

And President Dred Peacock mentioned for the G. P. C. Presidency.

Advice from Greensboro says that Dr. W. C. Norman, who was tendered the presidency of the Greensboro Female College, to succeed the late Dr. Reid, has declined to accept, giving as his reason that he cannot conscientiously give up the ministry.

Professor Dred Peacock is mentioned as being a very suitable selection for the place.

WELCOME WEEK.

Wilmington to Have Her Fall Festival During the Week Beginning November 26th—The Subscriptions Sufficient to Carry Out the Plans.

The Messenger tells of the Wilmington Welcome Week committee meeting and receiving a report from the subscription committee to the effect that they had greatly increased the amount of subscriptions and on motion the executive committee decided to have the Welcome Week at the time heretofore named—the week beginning November 26th.

Committees were appointed on finance, advertising, decorations, reception, and information, parade, transportation, music, gun shoot, fire works and buyable demonstrations.

There is to be a grand inauguration parade, on Tuesday night of that week, it is to be seen whether two good football teams can be induced to play a game or so during the week and other amusements and attractions are to be arranged for.

A Plain Tariff Illustration.

The first promise was to repeal the McKinley bill. It has been done. I am going to talk tariff. It is simply an indirect tax, laid on everything around us. Suppose a merchant in Kinston wanted to sell flour at $3 a sack but millers just out of town brought it in and sold it at $2 a sack. The merchant would have to sell at $2 or not sell any.

Now suppose the merchant induces the commissioners of Kinston to make a law so the millers will have to pay $1 on each sack of flour brought in the town. Then the merchant would put his flour at $2.95, just below what the millers outside could afford to sell at. If this law was then repealed the price of flour would fall from $2.95 to $2 a sack. That is the way with the tariff.

The government says we can't buy from other countries without paying a big tax, which is for the benefit of the manufacturers. One-fifth of the population is not protected, fifteen-fifths are not protected. Is it right or just to tax four-fifths of the people so that one-fifth may grow richer and richer?—Extract from R. B. Glenn's speech.

PENALTY OF COWARDICE.

Visited Upon a Private of the Ohio National Guard—A Lesson to Other Members of Military Organizations.

The penalty of cowardice is being visited upon private Dearth, a member of Company C, Fourteenth Regiment Ohio National Guard, in a peculiar manner. When the regiment was ordered by Gov. McKinley into active service in Belmont county to subdue the rioters in June last, Dearth hastily left the city and succeeded in being discharged from the commanding officer's service. A court martial found Dearth guilty and he was dishonorably discharged from the service and sentenced to fifteen days imprisonment.

The authorities not wishing to send the man to jail erected a pen six by nine feet in the centre of the armory building, and Dearth is now serving his time under the eye of a guard. He is not allowed to leave the coop even for exercise, and his presence in the improvised prison serves as a warning to others who regard lightly their obligations as soldiers when entering the service of the State.

The Big Circus.

The Walter L. Main's big three ring Circus will show in Wilmington next Monday and to enable the people of New Berne and vicinity to see it the W. N. & N. R. will sell a round trip ticket to Wilmington and return for $1.50. You leave here on the regular train at 8:35 in the morning and arrive in Wilmington in time to see the grand street parade which is purposely delayed until the arrival of this train.

The show takes in about 2 o'clock and lets out at 5 o'clock; and returning to New Berne you leave Wilmington at 6 o'clock and arrive back home about nine that night.

If any one should wish to remain over in Wilmington until next day they may do so, their ticket being good on any train on the 16th.

The cost of entrance to the show is but 50 cents and consequently this is an excellent opportunity for a great deal of pleasure at small cost.

STORM DAMAGE IN OUR STATE.

Washouts on Several Railroads—Other Harm Done.

The most of the following facts in references to the storm of Tuesday 9th inst are gleaned from exchanges: Four washouts occurred on the Wilmington, Newbern & Norfolk Railroad between Scott's Hill, Pender county and F. Likstone, Onslow county. The largest washout was at Annapdale, Pender county where there was a breach of 75 feet in the track.

All the railroads suffered more or less by the dreadful storm of Tuesday. There was high water in all directions, and there were washouts on most all the railroads for hundreds of miles around.

Washouts occurred on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railway, the Wilmington, Newbern and Norfolk railroad and the Atlantic Coast Line, causing a delay to the trains.

The Carolina Central had fourteen hundred feet of trestle washed away at Brown Marsh, two miles east of Clarkton, and forty miles west of Wilmington. A mill dam above the trestle gave away and caused the disaster during Tuesday night.

In Southport the severest wind and rain storm of the season prevailed, the wind blowing in gusts of a velocity ranging between forty and eighty miles an hour. Shortly after noon the frame of the Odd Fellows building was blown down, the loss amounting to $1,000 and is a total one. There was no damage to shipping in the harbor. Heavy seas are rolling outside.

On the Clinton section the rains were the heaviest ever known in there. Many bridges and mills were swept away in Sampson county, and much damage done to unharvested crops. Three hundred feet of the Clinton Branch Railroad was washed out at Six Runs and trains cannot pass for several days.

DIED.

In this city on Thursday morning, Oct. 11th, of cholera infantum, Reginald Edward, infant son of J. W. and Natalie Watson.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

President to Return—North Carolinians Going Home to Vote—Wm. L. Wilson Back—West Virginia Safe—A Pleasant Trip.

Private Secretary Thurber has brought his family back to Washington. The President is expected between the 15th and the 20th of this month.

I am told that when Captain Howgate is tried he can tell some very damaging things about high officials who figured during the administration in which his delation occurred.

Messrs. Josephus Daniels, W. W. Scott, J. W. Tomlinson and numbers of other Democrats now holding official positions in the Departments here are preparing to go home this month to remain until after the election in November. The Fusionist will find every Democrat doing his duty when it comes to voting for good government and honest politicians.

The falling off in the Democratic vote in Georgia, is attributed to the zeal with which the fusionists worked and the over confidence of the Democrats.

Hon. Wm. L. Wilson has returned from his trip to Europe very much refreshed. He received an ovation when he reached West Virginia.

Senator Camden is here and says he regards West Virginia as safe for the Democrats.

Ex-Congressman Brower is here. Ewart's senatorial aspirations are said to have encouraged the fusionists, somewhat. He is regarded as a strong man by the Republicans, but I cannot imagine how an ex-democrat can vote for him.

The Whitney letter pleases all true Democrats in this city and cannot fail to have an effect on New York politics. Mr. Cleveland says he will take no personal part in the New York campaign, but I hear he will contribute a good sized check.

A recent trip to North Carolina by the Atlantic Coast Line gave me an opportunity to enjoy one of the most beautiful scenes I have beheld since I saw the "White City" with a golden sunset for a back ground. As one leaves the N. C. Railroad for the Washington steamer there are the Twin cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth, the broad Elizabeth river, Fortress Monroe, the magnificent stretch of Hampton Roads with the crested waves of the Atlantic, all in full view.

Under ordinary conditions it is enough to inspire artist or poet. But when the lustrous harvest moon shines out in half orbed beauty from the eastern horizon and the setting sun illumines the west with blending colors of crimson, yellow and opal, it is one of the choicest bits of scenery in America. Any one who has an opportunity to see it, ought to do so.
