COTTON SALES.
Wednesday—77, 5:25 @ 5.76 1/2.

All the wheelmen interested in the club, whether they were at the first meeting or not are requested to meet at the office of Mr. O. H. Guion to-night at 8 o'clock.

Edna Rige an eleven year old girl of Charlotte is in a critical condition from having swallowed a piece of glass along with a spoon full of preserves which she ate.

Mr. John B. Watson of Croatan who had a congestive chill continued in a critical condition through Tuesday. But we are glad to say he was somewhat improved yesterday although he is still very sick.

There will be thirteen races at the State Fair, four of them running races. The trotters entered are from several States and the race will be one of the great attractions of the Fair.

Broad street now has a barber shop and a very pretty and well equipped one as well as a roomy one. It is the barber-shop of Timothy Bow, col., who moved there yesterday from his old stand on Middle street.

Rev. C. C. King of the city conducted services in the Free Will Baptist church at Blount's creek Sunday night and Monday night the 14th and 15th insts. Tuesday he went deer driving with Mr. Henry Stille and others. They secured a fine fat buck which dressed seventy-five pounds.

Three race horses left New Berne yesterday for Raleigh to enter the contests at the State Fair. They were two trotters and one runner. The former were Dr. Lester Duff's Adallah Chief, Mr. M. H. Sultan's Manie Wells, and the latter was Mr. R. P. Williams', Helen 8.

One of the small tenement houses which Mr. D. S. Jones built on the edge of the city a year ago was burned down yesterday morning. The loss was about $350—no insurance. It was occupied by colored people, and they being away at the time everything they had in it was likewise destroyed. The house was at the foot of End street and was the very outside one that is within the city limits.

Much work is in progress at the State Fair grounds. The Wilmington Messenger has a report stating that there will be exhibits from two-thirds of the counties. This is a very large proportion and is very gratifying news. The State Fair should be sustained by every county in the State. The fair opens next Tuesday and holds four days.

The Chattawka's New Cook.
Hotel Chattawka has added to its force as chief cook Mr. Henry Wittenbrink, formerly with the Hollenden hotel, Cleveland, Ohio, one of the finest hotels in that State.

The Chattawka gives first class service throughout, and its guests appreciate it as can readily be determined from the highly complimentary language in which they speak of the pleasure of their sojourn there.

The Vendetta Saturday Night.
This company will appear at the New Berne theatre Saturday night. It was in Charlotte last week, and the Observer of Saturday says of it:

"Theatre-going people went to the auditorium last night, not knowing just what sort of prize they would draw. A surprise awaited them. The Vendetta was great. A more thrilling play has never been on the Charlotte boards. The audience sat spell bound, from first to last. The plot, as the name suggests, is one of intense interest. The company last night labored under great disadvantage, on account of the small stage, but in the really excellent acting and magnificent scenic effects the audience forgot about the stage.

Coming and Going.
Judge A. S. Seymour, who has been spending the summer visiting his daughter in England and taking a foreign tour returned home on the New Berne. His family stopped for a while in New Jersey to visit relatives.

Mr. W. M. Rountree and his bride nee Miss Elizabeth Frost, Maine, of Brooklyn, arrived on the steamer. The New Berne came in with colors flying in their honor. A reception was held last night.

Mrs. J. R. Way, of Haslet, arrived on the steamer New Berne to visit Mrs. J. B. Clark.

The bulletins about the condition of the czar of Russia are contradictory—some say he is worse, others that he is better.

Houston, Texas had a $500,000 fire on the morning of the 16th, in which two sisters of charity were burned to death.

Two men have been arrested in Washington D. C., on suspicion of being implicated in the raid upon the train at Quantico.

The cruiser Charleston has left for Yokohama. She will be followed by the Detroit and Maclaine.

Mrs. Graham Daves, who has been visiting relatives in Wilmington returned home last night.

Mrs. W. P. M. Bryan returned from Washington where she has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Manning of Wrightsville, came up on the afternoon train and left on the steamer New Berne to visit in Norfolk.

The recent campaign against Breckinridge has resulted in more bloodshed. Buchanan Berry is thought to be dying at Turkey from a pistol wound inflicted by C. B. James. The two were discussing Breckinridge, and James said "Breckinridge is a man I fought through the war with. He carried a Bible on one shoulder and whittled on the other." This enraged Berry, who was a strong Breckinridge man, and struck James with a chair. Berry then drew a revolver and shot at James. James is now in the hospital, and it is thought that he will die.

A freight train on the Chesapeake and Ohio and Northwestern railroad, going east, was wrecked two miles west of Newbern, Tenn., at 1 a. m. on the 16th. Last Engineer McNamee, Fireman Kilsch and a man named Cole were dangerously injured. The train was wrecked by an unknown person who placed a tie on the tracks. There are at least 100 trunks in the railroad yards here and suspicion points to them as the culprits.

MORE CONVERSIONS STILL.

The Evangelistic Meeting's Still Continue With Good Interest.
Another profitable meeting for men only was held in the engine room yesterday morning by Evangelist Gales. This ends the meetings that will be held there through the other meetings continue.

Mr. Gales gave an excellent little discourse in the afternoon meeting in the church. It was on the relationship of real, true disciples to the world. The relationships were given as follows:

1st.—Separation. "And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them and walk in them; and I will be their God and they shall be my people." The evangelist showed that Christians must be in the world but not of it. He used the illustration of a ship; it is well and proper for the ship to be on the water, with the water all around it, but it is destruction for the water to get into the ship. So the place of the church is in the world, but if the world gets into the church it is gone.

2d.—The Light of the World. "Ye are the light of the world; a city that is set on a hill cannot be hid." Matt. 5:14. Mr. Gales illustrated this point by telling of a beacon light on the coast of Scotland which guided mariners into a harbor of safety and told of an old woman who erected a light a short distance from it to lure the mariners to destruction. Even so the worldly minded Christian leads others from the right haven.

3.—Living Epistles. "Ye are our epistles written in our heart, known and read of all men." 2 Corinthians, 3:2. The Christian should be such a living epistle as to show by his walk in life that he is a Christian—there should be no need to ask the question if he is one.

4.—Ambassadors. "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us, we pray you in Christ's stead be ye reconciled to God," 2 Cor. 5:20. All Christians should be ambassadors, not necessarily on the platform but in the home circle and connections outside.

The sermon at night was from the text "Whatsoever a man soweth, that also shall he reap." Mr. Gales showed that this held true in the natural, in the moral and in the spiritual world.

At the after meeting several more professions were made.

At to-night's service a free-will offering for Mr. Gales will be made.

The only cottage prayer meeting to be held to-day is at Mr. Dennison's at 10 o'clock. There will be the afternoon service at 3:30 and the evening service at 7:30 o'clock.

Buck Kitchin on Cleveland.
In 1884 Capt. Buck Kitchin made a speech in Raleigh in which he said:

"Yes, gentlemen, this man Grover Cleveland started as the sheriff of a county you know what it means—and from that in a short time the development of the man, his honesty, his politeness, his manhood, his grace was so manifested that he was made Mayor of the city of Buffalo. But this man was such a brilliant man, that he was such an honest man, that they did not let him remain but six months and they made him Governor of the great State of New York, and before his time expired in New York he is taken up by the people of the United States and made the candidate of the grandest party that ever lived upon this earth. This is the man we present to you, and this is the man we are here to ratify the nomination of to-night. A man without spot and without blemish."

NEWS IN BRIEF.
Vermont is having a big blizzard with a driving snow storm.

Labor leaders that pass on the Pullman's is the latest.

The war with China is said to be costing Japan $1,000,000 a day. What it cost China is not given.

The purification of Mr. Breckinridge's district goes on. His constituents have just lynched a desperado who killed a sheriff.

From the most reliable sources we ascertain that the Czar is suffering from an acute misunderstanding on the part of his physicians.

G. W. Cannon, ex-republican post master at Asheville is behind in his accounts three or four thousand dollars with Uncle Sam and the bondsmen have been called on to dance to the music.

A rattlesnake, owned by Arthur Hayes, of Erin, Tenn., has not tasted a particle of food during the nineteen months of its captivity.

A man who was assaulted in New York made a bee-line for a photographer's after the affray and had his damaged face recorded for future reference in court.

The Lexow investigating committee of New York are bringing to light more of the police rascality, such as drunken policemen arresting innocent parties, taking bribes for "protection" selling whiskey to prisoners, selling "privileges," &c.

The Charlotte Observer tell of an attempt to wreck the morning train from Atlanta to that city. The attempt was made not far from Gainesville. Several iron rails had been placed across the track and fastened. Strenuous efforts will be made to catch the guilty parties.

A Boston young man has gotten into trouble by advertising to furnish a receipt by which ladies may keep their hat in place without the use of a hat pin, mailing the secret for 50 cents. His idea was simply a rubber band or string which loops under the chin.

The Goldsboro Argus reports the finding of the dead body of a colored man Simon Faison, by the railroad near the coal chute in that city. His head was split open and the brain exposed. It seems impossible for the train to have killed him, and the closest investigation will be made.

A freight train on the Chesapeake and Ohio and Northwestern railroad, going east, was wrecked two miles west of Newbern, Tenn., at 1 a. m. on the 16th. Last Engineer McNamee, Fireman Kilsch and a man named Cole were dangerously injured. The train was wrecked by an unknown person who placed a tie on the tracks. ### CLARK BAKING COMPANY.

Enlargement Decided Upon—Will Move to the Street Building.
Upon the completion of the two new stores which Dr. N. H. Street is building on Middle street, the Clark Baking Company will move from their present quarters at the market dock into one of them. The bakery department will be in the basement, the selling room just above; confectionaries will also be sold in the bakery, and connected with it will be an oyster restaurant in winter and an ice cream parlor in summer.

The removal of the bakery is due to the fact that its business has outgrown its present capacity and quarters, although it has two large ovens in use. The new location will be a very convenient one owing to being central and also in respect to its interior arrangements.

Dr. Street will make the building a handsome one. It will be three stories in height besides the basement. The first floor will be stores. The next offices for lawyers and others, while the third one will be the Old Fellows Lodge—they have already rented it for the purpose.

EXCURSION FROM MOREHEAD
To New Berne on the Day the Circus Shows.

The A. & N. C. R. R., gives low rates from Morehead City to New Berne on the regular train Saturday to bring parties who desire to attend Hunting's circus which exhibits here that day.

The fare for the round trip from Morehead City to New Berne and return is $1.00; from Wilmwood 90 cents; Newport 80; Havelock 70, Croatan 50, and Riverdale 35.

The tickets are good only for the one day and will not be extended.

CIRCUS MORALS.
Press Comments Showing Greater Regard for Public Opinion Than Was the Case in Former Years.

The Wilmington Star says that no less than ten thousand people visited the Walter L. Main circus when it showed in Wilmington.

Our exchanges speak in superlatively high language of every feature connected with the show but the position that strikes us most forcibly is that which relates to the character and standing of those connected with them.

The Richmond Dispatch gives this same circus two columns of praise and not a word of disapproval in it. The Wilmington Messenger says of it:

"It was particularly noticed that all of the circus folks were courteous, obliging and well behaved. It can be said for them that no circus that ever came South can compare with the Main show in the class of people in its employ. They seem to be a real genteel set of folks. The loud-mouthed, swaggering, tough looking specimens were conspicuous by their absence."

An attaché of Hunting's Circus tells us more regard is paid generally to the characters of men connected with shows than was the case formerly. There are bound to be shows and it is pleasing to see that the better ones are giving heed to the growing public sentiment against that which is vile and debasing.

Good Canvassing by W. R. Henry.
A special to the Wilmington Messenger from Southport says that a crowd which fairly filled the court house gave good attention for two hours on the 16th, inst. afternoon to a speech delivered by W. R. Henry, Esq., of Vance. The speech was a forcible one and was interrupted by frequent applause. It was pronounced by many the most convincing Democratic speech ever delivered there. It has materially helped the Democratic party in this section.
