State attorney General Frank Osborne will speak in Beaufort, Oct. 23d.

The work on Neuse road is still progressing and now shows more than ever the beauty and great advantages of what it will soon be.

Hunting's circus will exhibit to-day on the macadamized road. The afternoon performance will begin at two o'clock and at night at eight. Street parade this morning at ten o'clock.

We learn from the Jacksonville Times that on Sunday the 14th inst., the residence of Mr. C. C. Basden, near Richlands, Onslow county was destroyed by fire at two o'clock Sunday morning. All the family were away from home. The building was insured for $1,000.

Mrs. Florence Richardson, wife of Mr. Wm Richardson died at her home at Florence postoffice, near Stonehall on Monday the 15th inst. She was about sixty years of age and a good member of the Disciple church. Her husband and several grown children survive her.

The Raleigh News and Observer says that the contract has been let to Messrs. Tucker & Co., of that city, for 1,200 army blankets for the National Guard of the State. This is the first time that such a luxury has been vouchsafed, as the appropriation of $7,500 per year for State National troops has not thus far admitted of the expenditure.

A letter to Rev. Edward Bull from Col. Chas. L. Upham, President of the Connecticut Veteran's brings information of the certainty of their arrival in New Berne on the 13th inst. so as to form and be all ready for the dedication of the monument on the 14th inst. Full particulars of the arrangement for the dedication will be sent down when the committee has another meeting.

Have you registered? Is your neighbor properly registered? These are the most important questions that are now to be propounded. The registration books close on the 27th day of October. The only danger to the sweeping democratic victory is a failure to bring out the voters. Do not let neglect or over confidence keep you from registering or voting. Capt. Swift Galloway specially emphasizes the need to avoid apathy. The sentiment of the people is all right but to prove effective, it must be followed by action.

Coming and Going.
Rev. Rufus Ford who has been attending the meeting of the Atlantic Baptist Association which has just been held in Antioch church, Pitt county returned home. He reports a good and profitable meeting with full attendance. Mr. Ford was elected moderator at this meeting. Rev. J. T. Allbritton, of Mt. Olive was the previous moderator.
Mr. and Mrs. Benj. S. Guion, returned on the steamer New Berne yesterday from their bridal tour. Miss Liddle Patterson returned on the same steamer from New York where she has been on a pleasure trip, and Mr. Blumgardt from a northern business trip.

Father P. F. Quinn left on the Neuse on a mission trip in the North eastern part of the State.
Mrs. Hill Humphrey who has been visiting at Jacksonville returned home.
Mr. Sam'l Cohn, of Goldsboro arrived to spend a few days looking after the fresh meat business which he and his sons run in New Berne.
Judge H. R. Bryan, returned home last night.
Rev. J. D. Moore, and Mr. B. Simpson, of Beaufort passed through returning home from attending the meeting of the Atlantic Baptist Association.
Mr. C. W. Munger, of Philadelphia who has been visiting his brother-in-law Mr. S. Woolard, left on the steamer Neuse returning home. He is connected with a furniture factory and has been looking after lumber for the establishment. He is highly pleased with New Berne.
Maj. Graham Daves who has been spending a month or two in Washington city looking up historical records returned home on the steamer New Berne.
Mr. Fred Dixon, left for his home in Durham.

Bicycle Racing.
Norfolk is having a fine time with bicycle races. Nine events were held there Thursday and two State records made in the presence of a large crowd. A one mile novice race was won in 4.37 minutes. The half mile State championship race was won in time 1.10 by F. A. L. Schade, Herndon, Va. After the regular races were over W. T. Robertson of Washington, tried for the mile record on the Washington track and made it in 5.38.
Such races are very interesting and would prove an attractive feature at the East Carolina Fair.

The Democratic County Canvass.
The county Democratic canvass has now begun in earnest. The first speaking was at Morton's store on Wednesday the 17th inst. by Messrs. Biddle & Lane candidates for sheriff and Register of Deeds and on the next day, Thursday the 18th there was a good Democratic gathering at Riverdale.
Speeches at the latter meeting were made by Capt. Swift Galloway, candidate for the Senate, Messrs. J. A. Bryan, C. B. Thomas, W. D. McIver, and the county candidates.
The next county appointment is at Dover, to-day.

Episcopal Baptists Association Meeting.
On Friday, the 19th inst about fifty delegates to the White Oak Primitive Baptist Association passed through on route to Newport to attend the meeting. The meeting begins Saturday and holds three days.
The association embraces about twelve or fifteen counties.

REVIVAL MEETINGS END.

Interest Deep Unto the Last—Many Professions—Century M. E. Meeting Next Week.

The last of the series of meetings conducted by Evangelist W. R. Gales of Greensboro in the Presbyterian Church of this city was held last night. The church was filled with an attentive congregation.
From the parable of the Great Supper in the 14th, chapter of Luke the Evangelist solicited the "sentence" "They all with one accord began to make excuse" the basis of his remarks.
He showed to begin with by analysis that the excuses rendered by those who were bidden to the supper and who failed to come were flimsy of such a character that the makers of them were simply hunting and wishing for an excuse. He then proceeded to show that the excuses rendered by those who turn back from giving their hearts and lives to the saviour were such as would not stand before even their own good judgment and yet they were offering these silly unreasonable excuses to Almighty God.
He made an earnest plea to settle the matter of "What Will ye do With Jesus," right then.
During the singing of the first hymn after the sermon, those who had made a profession of religion during the meeting went forward and at Mr. Gales request shook hands with him.
The after meeting was the best one of the entire series; the spirit of God was present with convincing and converting power and over a score of souls made a profession of faith in Christ.
The total number of professions, including both conversions and re-claimations, was 108. Of this number the greater portion were new converts.
The free-will offering to Mr. Gales was $111.75.
Thus closes one of the best revival ever held in the city, but the interest is deeper than at any time since the meeting began. It may be that the work will be carried uninterruptedly forward in the series of meetings that begin tomorrow night in Centenary M. E. Church and still grander and more glorious results follow. So may it be.
Mr. Gales leaves this morning for Greensboro.

Mayor's Court.
Alex Hill col., was tried before his Honor Mayor Ellis yesterday on a state warrant for assault and battery on Jos. Scott, col., and fined $5.00 and cost; Scott was tried for disorderly conduct and fined costs.
Matthew Daniels col., was fined $5.00 and costs for disorderly conduct and not being able to pay he was ordered to work on the streets for 20 days in striped suit.
John Simpson, for disorderly conduct was fined $5.00 and cost.

The State Fair.
The State Fair opens next week under most auspicious circumstances. The effort to make this exhibition surpass any ever yet held has been carried forward by President Jule Carr and Secretary Ayer with unbounded zeal and energy.
It is indeed a pleasure to know that North Carolina has such men as those who give their time and attention to the advancement of the interests and development of our good old State.
New Bernians well know the many advantages that accrue from a creditable exposition. Our Winter Fair has attracted attention far and wide, and every year it moves up to a still higher plane of merit, until it has attained much more than local reputation, but the Exposition that is now on the eve of throwing open its gates to the public, is a State affair, and we hope to see the grandest meeting at the Capitol City that has ever yet been held within the borders of the Old North State.

Fair Poetry.
Say, at the New Berne Fair Will be sights rich and rare; Dunn and Reizenstein are a pair Who will draw many people there. The above is the joint production of general Battle and Sheriff Lane of New Berne.
The above is taken from the Durham Times. Although the paper credits the verse to two of New Berne's best known citizens but we think it was trimmed out by A. H. Hatchett and one not quite so old as G. W., is either.
The Durham Times which is pretty closely identified with New Berne and Craven county and is always eager to say in any form,—either in serious or light vein, a word that will benefit the place.

Other Kind Words.
We had thought of saying nothing further in reference to the kind words from the State papers, but when it is from so near a neighbor as the Beaufort Herald and the Kingston Free Press, and through a source that is not given to "affy" we can appreciate it in the proper spirit. This is from the last issue of the Free Press:
"The New Berne DAILY JOURNAL has been improved lately by the addition of new type and a new heading. The Free Press considers THE JOURNAL about as good a daily as can be published without the press dispatches, which a town the size it is published in will not afford. The JOURNAL always strongly advocates whatever is for the best interest of the section in which it is published."

The Vendetta.
From a clipping taken from an exchange we extract the following:
The famous prison at Toulon, France, is shown in the second act, and the tortures and sufferings of les miserables in the galleys is depicted with flesh and blood reality. This portion of the play reminds one of a page from Hugo. One can easily imagine "Jean Valjean" to be among the convicts. The prison is blown up, and the convicts revolt and make a heroic dash for freedom. A powerful scene of maritime realism is the collision of the big steamers of the Mediterranean. Right in full view of the audience the machine monsters crash to pieces and go down. The search light effect that is used in this scene is the same as used in our navy in searching for the victims of disaster.

Hotel Chastawka Arrivals.
Samuel E. Levy, Baltimore; H. L. Finlayson, N. C.; Miss Margaret Dismore, city; Wm. Richardson, N. C.; W. H. Owen, Washington; D. C.; M. Hohenberg, Baltimore; John Barclay, Philadelphia; J. P. Grandy, Norfolk, Va.

FIRE AT STONEWALL.

Fowler's and Ferbee's Warehouses and Contents Burned—Also a Lot of Lumber.

On Wednesday, the 17th inst. at noon there was a serious fire at Stonehall. Sparks from the saw mill of Messrs. Lukens & Co., ignited the warehouse of Mr. C. L. Fowler which was near to it and that warehouse and also Mr. Sam'l Ferbee's was burned, to gether with their contents of general merchandise and also a considerable quantity of lumber belonging to the mill.
Mr. Fowler was the heaviest loser. Everything that was in his warehouse was destroyed, and Mr. Ferbee saved only a few barrels of flour.
Mr. Fowler's loss in merchandise was about $450; while Mr. Ferbee's was upward of $400, and others had goods in the houses sufficient to have run the loss in merchandise up to about $1,000. The warehouses themselves were worth two or three hundred dollars apiece.
There was no insurance either on the buildings or stock.

NEWS IN BRIEF.
Some people attain prominence by having themselves suspected of train robbery.
The Adlai E. Stevenson boom should lose no time in securing the services of a more competent advertising man.
According to the views of Candidate Morton the New York Democrats are taking unfair advantages on the coaching lines.
We are quite confident that the wicked Democrats are responsible for the outbreaks of lynch law in Gov. McKinley's State.
"Good clothes open all doors."
So says a Danish proverb, and in a measure it is so. Now when you want GOOD CLOTHES call at Howard's and buy a suit. Our aim is to sell only good ones and at the right price. ### FAMLICO POLITICS.

Third Party Convention—Republican Battle—Also by Branch and Skinner—Skinner Skinned.

A Pamlico correspondent writes us as follows:
The Third party held their convention on the 13th, at Bayboro and the following nominations were made: For the Legislature, John B. Martin; Sheriff, Joseph Caroon; Clerk of Court, Jackson Brinson; Register of Deeds, Edgar Spain; Coroner, Mr. Phipps; Surveyor, Walter Brinson.
One week ago the Republicans held their convention and nominated I. Abbott for the Legislature and Alexander Lee for Register of Deeds and stopped at that, and on Friday before the Pops held their convention Dr. Abbott threw up the sponge; this puts a new face on the political outlook.
General Battle of New Berne addressed the citizens of our town to-day on the political issues of the day and told the Democrats to be vigilant and be up and doing, and don't you forget they will do it.
Hon. W. A. B. Branch and Harry Skinner spoke to a large crowd of citizens on the 17th. Branch got the best of his opponent.
Skinner and the Pop chairman with one Pamlico county Republican and one New Berne Republican had a secret caucus after the speaking at Bayboro to-day and I would not be surprised if they concluded to unharness Mr. Martin and give the Representative to the Republicans. It would please a few Pops and Republicans and displease a great many Pops and the greater majority of the Reps.
