COTTON SALES.
Wednesday.—71 bales, 5,42½ and 5,45 highest prices.

Attorney General Osborne made a stirring and rousing Democratic speech at Beaufort.

The auction sale of jewelry, watches, silverware, etc., again attracted many buyers yesterday. The sale will be continued to-day.

Col. Harry Skinner, Populist, will speak at Riverdale to-morrow at 11 a. m., and at New Berne to-morrow night at 7 p. m.

The Baptist church at Maysville, was dedicated Sunday, 21st inst, in the presence of a large congregation. Rev. Rufus Ford preached the dedicatory sermon.

To-day everybody who wishes can see the State fair and lose but a day. The fare for the round trip is but $4.00. The train leaves at 6 o'clock this morning.

Capt. W. B. Goodwin, road master of the W. N. & E. R. is about to move to the city from Glencoe stock farm. Mr. Goodwin came up yesterday, preparatory to the removal.

The funeral services of Mrs. O. H. Perry were conducted by Rev. Rufus Ford in Beach Grove church near New Berne. A large number were present, many of them from New Berne.

Capt. Swift Galloway is just back from Swansboro. He reports the skies brightening in Onslow as well as elsewhere. He is delighted also with the beauty of Swansboro.

The New Berne attorneys who have attended Carteret county Superior Court returned, court being ended. Also Solicitor Allen, of Kinston passed through returning home. Court holds next week in Jones, the week after in Onslow.

Superior Court of Carteret County is over. The docket was light and court held but two days. The negro who broke into Mr. Abe Lee's store at Merrimon was sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. This was the only convict.

In the joint discussion at Beaufort between Hon. W. B. Branch and Col. Harry Skinner, even the populists themselves say that Mr. Skinner made a very disappointing speech—not coming up to what was expected of him. The effect of the speaking was good to the Democratic cause.

The Raleigh News and Observer expresses regret that the farmers are showing a disposition to rush their cotton to market when it is not absolutely necessary to do so. It feels no doubt that the size of the crop is overestimated and that the belief that an enormous crop has been raised is largely responsible for the demoralization of the market.

Hotel Chattahoochee Arrivals.
R. Knight, N. Y.; C. W. Wanden, Staunton, Va.; Alex. Fields, Kinston, N. C.

At the Opera House.
The Meyer-Thorne Comedy Company played last night to an audience considerably increased over that of the night before, which is good enough an evidence that they are pleasing their patrons. They rendered the famous play "Rip Van Winkle" to the satisfaction of all.

The excellent Italian band which came into the city the first of the week, furnished the music for the occasion as they will to-night also.

"A Daughter of Ireland," and the farce "Country Cousins" are the plays to-night.

Democratic Speakers.
Friday, October 26, will be a big time for Democracy. Hon. T. J. Jarvis will be in New Berne and deliver an address and it is probable that Hon. W. B. Shaw, of Henderson, Mr. Busbee of Raleigh and Hon. W. D. Pruden will be here the early part of the week.

These are speakers whom it will delight every one to hear and a good crowd should greet them. We hope to make definite announcement of all appointments soon, but for the present bear in mind that Senator Jarvis will be here Friday night of next week. Hear him.

Coming and Going.
General C. A. Battle left yesterday morning to fill appointments in Brunswick county.

Miss Annie Duffy and Miss Lucy Taylor, of Catherine Lake, arrived to spend a short time in the city, and are registered at the Albert.

Among those who went up to the State Fair were President Wm. Dunn and Secretary and Treasurer, Chas. Reizenstein of the East Carolina Fair.

Mr. Thos. C. Daniels went up with the double intention of visiting the Fair and witnessing the match game of football between the teams of Trinity college and the University.

Mrs. D. M. Roberts returned home on the steamer Neuse; she has been visiting her father at Belle Haven.

Misses Lucy White and May Miller of Vanceboro who have been visiting friends in the city left on the steamer Carolina returning home.

Miss Sarah Davis and her sister Mrs. Chris Burmons and Miss Emma Manson of Beaufort passed through enroute to the State Fair.

Mrs. L. H. Cutler left yesterday morning to visit her daughter Mrs. J. C. Watkins of Greensboro.

Mr. Edward Matthews left for Louisville to visit his mother on account of her illness.

Mr. J. P. Jernigan auditor of the Norfolk and Southern Railroad went down to Wilmington.

COCONUTS, grated, shredded or sliced free of charge to purchasers, at New Berne Candy Factory, 59 Middle St.

There are several Republican Presidential aspirants who incline to the opinion that Levi P. Morton may be overlooked.

NAVAL RESERVES MINSTRELS.

A Gorgeous Stage Setting for the First Part Will be a Feature.
As the time approaches for the presentation of the Naval Reserves minstrels deeper interest is manifested by the public and considerable curiosity developed over what we are assured will be one of the newest and most interesting programs of the kind ever attempted in this city by amateurs.

Probably the very best available talent of the town is interested in the production, and the intense desire of the principals that the entertainment shall be successful, at least, from an artistic standpoint, coupled with the unwavering promptness with which the entire company have attended long and oftentimes tedious rehearsals for the past six weeks, are indicative of that earnestness and perseverance which bodes ultimate success.

Athletic features are to be presented which will be a surprise to the audience, while the singing and comedy parts will be executed in a style calculated to tickle the fancy of the most austere critics of the stage type. The costumes and settings of the "olio," or "first part," will prove themselves equally captivating, for extreme care and taste and no few dollars have already been expended on the proper setting of this part of the programme.

Meyer Thorne Comedy Company.
This troupe will render to-night in the New Berne Opera House, the four act drama, "A Daughter of Ireland!" The performance will conclude with the laughable farce "Country Cousins." A refined entertainment throughout.

A fine Italian Orchestra will discourse sweet music.

General Admission 25 cents; reserved seats, 35 cents, gallery 15 cents. 11.

THE REVIVAL SERVICES.
Two services were held yesterday in Centenary Methodist Church, and three will be held today—10 a. m., 7:30 and 3:30 p. m. From seven until half past seven will be a song service—the regular service beginning at 7:30.

Both meetings held were very interesting. The morning discourse was based upon John 13:35—"By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another."

At night the sermon was upon "Presumptuous Sins," and under this head Mr. Nash expatiated on the various sins of delinquency, whether by fraudulent bankrupting, or otherwise secret sinfulness to hymenal vows, etc.

He spoke also of the opposite sins—sins of despair, the sinner thinking he could not be forgiven. To the presumptuous he spoke words of fraternal, earnest warning; to the latter class words of encouragement. Mr. Nash is loving but plain and unsparring upon sin of any description. We look for great good from his preaching.

Even went forward for an interest in the prayers of God's people.

A Most Excellent Production.
ED. JOURNAL—An unusually good-sized audience greeted the Meyer-Thorne dramatic company at the opera house last night in the melodramatic of "Rip Van Winkle."

Mr. Thorne is a remarkably versatile actor, and not only does he shine with unblemished lustre as a comedian of the first magnitude, but in the more serious roles, such as poor old Rip, he succeeds beyond the capacity of some far more famous actors.

The writer heard a gentleman who has seen Joseph Jefferson, remark that Mr. Thorne, though minus the elegant stage settings of Jefferson, held his audiences quite as closely.

The Meyer-Thorne company is made up of excellent artists and deserve liberal patronage. AN ATTENDANT.

CHEROKEE LAND SETTLERS.

$68,000 Sent From Washington With Preparation for Defence From Robbers.
On the Track in This State of the Great Stamp Robbery Thieves—Attempted Express Shipment Gives the Clue.

Special to JOURNAL.]
WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 24.—Last night George Smathers and a disbursing officer from the Department of Justice left here for North Carolina with $68,000 in checks for the Cherokee land settlers.

Both men were armed to be readiness for any possible train robbery.

The Post Office Department has received notice of an attempt to express a large package of stamps from Laurinburg, N. C. to New York.

Chief Inspector Wheeler wired the express agent of that town ordering the package to be held. Inspector Dickson started for Laurinburg to investigate the matter.

Officers are on the trail of the men and expect to catch them to-day. After shipping the stamps two of the thieves went to Wilmington, N. C.

The money spoken of in the above telegram is to buy off settlers who are upon the Cherokee lands. A suit about them has been pending for years, and a compromise has been effected by which a partial value of the lands is to be paid to those who are upon them.

The Wilmington papers speak of three post-office robbers having been in that city. The office robbed was the one at Bennettsville S. C. It is said that many thousands of stamps were taken. Laurinburg is only 25 miles from Bennettsville, S. C. The package of stamps put in the express office at Laurinburg were of several denominations, from 1 to 10 cents. From Bennettsville they went to Wilmington. It is to be hoped that the clue will lead to the speedy capture.

THE MACADAMIZING WORK.
Good Progress on New Road—Collecting Another Installment of the Subscription—What Good Roads Indicate.

Mr. T. J. Mitchell is again making the rounds collecting from the subscribers to the road improvement work. Rapid progress is being made on the road considering the excellence of the work that is being performed. The road has been completed in a number of places, the work involving the removal of hundreds of large stumps, the filling of old ditches and the opening of new. Bridges are being done away with by the substitution of brick aqueducts or other good drainage and the road in every way is being left in a condition that will be appreciated.

There are two other main roads leading into the city and some of the subscribers have already voluntarily remarked that they would like to have a chance to do the same towards contributing for the improvement of those other roads near the city as they have for New road.

It gives us little to see such an interest taken in the work. It can be noted that to a very large extent the condition of roads is an index not only to the character and progress of the inhabitants as well. Wherever man has put his hands and means at work and constructed good roads it is an almost invariable rule that the people will be found intelligent, progressive and prosperous.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

North Carolina Personal—Senator Faulkner Goes to New York To-morrow—A Trip Across the Continent—A Pleasant Reminiscence of Grant.

Wm. S. Davenport, of the Treasury Dept., and Thos. S. Ruffin, of the Interior Dept., both of North Carolina, have been promoted from $1200 to $1400 and from $1000 to $1200, respectively.

Senator Faulkner, Chairman of the Congressional Campaign Committee, goes to New York to-morrow to confer with the party leaders in that State. Mr. Cleveland and all his friends will support Hill unqualifiedly.

Senator Bausom, Chairman of the Commerce Committee, will leave here on a special train November 11, for the Pacific Slope, accompanied by Senators Gorman, Culom, and a party of 100 men and gentlemen friends. The object of this transcontinental tour, for which $5000 was appropriated during the last session of Congress, if I remember aright, is to find out whether a certain harbor in Southern California needs deepening.

When Grant was President he was accustomed every morning to walk down Pa. Ave., smoking his cigar like any other citizen. He would even stop the school children on their way to school to ask about their parents and their lessons. Consequently he was very popular here. I wish Mr. Cleveland would follow his example. Instead of this he drives in the suburbs with Thurber, or Lamont, in the carriage with him, and two armed detectives at a safe distance in the rear.

THE STATE FAIR'S SUCCESS.
The Exhibit Declared The Best Ever Made—Opening Ceremonies—Elegant Horses and Cattle From This and Other States—2,000 Entries.

The Wilmington Messenger has a special from Raleigh telling of the opening day of the Fair. It says that the weather Tuesday was simply perfect. The result was the largest attendance on record at an opening day of the State Fair. The incoming trains were all well filled with visitors. All who see the fair agree in declaring the exhibition the best ever made. Indeed it deserves that praise.

The procession, under the direction of Chief Marshal James H. Holt, went out to the grounds just before 11 o'clock. Gov. Carr formally opened the thirty-fourth annual fair, in a pleasant fashion.

Afterwards an address was delivered by Dr. J. L. M. Curry agent of the Peabody fund, and several hundred children of the city's public schools sang "The Old North State."

Governor Carr was introduced by Col. Julian S. Carr, president of the fair. The latter is greatly pleased with the great success of the fair, and Governor Carr took occasion to compliment it warmly.

The show of horses, cattle and sheep is
