COTTON SALES.

Tuesday—100 Bales, 5.20 to 5.30.

The weather Bureau says there will be showers to-day.

Our townsman Mr. C. R. Thomas will make an address at Cove Nov. 3rd—next Saturday at 12 o'clock also at Pollocksville next Monday Nov. 5th.

A special telegram from Washington City announces that Willett who has been one of the working Democrats has been appointed postmaster of that city.

Mr. J. W. Stewart is starting to erect an additional building 40 x 214 feet on Broad street adjoining his stable on the west. The greater portion of it is for carriage room, but there will be some new stalls at the rear.

Gen. Battle speaks at Gastonia, Gaston county, on Nov. 3rd, and at Newton, Catawba county, on Nov. 5th. Chairman Potts says at the latter place the Dutch Democrats of old Catawba will have a big rally, the biggest of the season.

Again we notify a few of our subscribers that the price is invariably 50c. per month, except where paid in advance. It would be very unjust to charge a portion of our subscribers at the rates of 80 a year, and others 65.

Sheriff W. B. Lane, Messrs. W. E. Daniel and Jas. A. Bryan addressed a good crowd at Cove Tuesday and made a fine impression. The back bone of the Third party there, as in many other places, appears to be broken. The people are talking right and will vote right on election day.

The Revival Meetings.

The meeting in the Centenary M. E. Church Tuesday afternoon was conducted by Rev. G. G. Harley, the one at night by Rev. J. T. Lyon.

Mr. Lyon preached from the text "Be- lieve in the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." He simplified faith by his definitions and by his illustrations. A number made public their profession of having been convicted during these meetings.

The afternoon meeting to-day will be held at half-past two o'clock and will be only three-quarters of an hour in length on account of the funeral of Mr. J. A. Simpson. The funeral will be at half past three.

The night service will be held as usual. The song service proceeding will be conducted by Rev. C. G. Vaneill.

It Is The Same Walters.

The Walters mentioned in yesterday's JOURNAL as the supposed crank that was in New Berne on two or three previous occasions, and now at Washington proclaiming himself President, and Admiral of the U. S. Navy, turns out to be correct.

He is known to be perfectly harmless, and going to see President Cleveland was instigated by a crowd of men at Atlantic City as a joke. They led him to believe that Cleveland had resigned in his (Walters) favor with this double appointment, and made up enough money to send the deluded man to the Capitol on the fool-hardy errand. Fun to them no doubt, but not very gentle.

A Noticeable Light.

An unusually brilliant light in the JOURNAL office last night attracted attention even from passers on the street. It was one of Welsbach's incandescent gas lights put in by Mr. C. E. Stover. It is the first and only one as yet in New Berne. One burner gives a sixty-candle power light and it is said will consume only three feet an hour. An ordinary burner that would consume five feet an hour would give only a twenty-candle power light.

One burner lights up a large room perfectly almost like day with a steady mellow light. It is a matter of surprise that a gas light can't be worked up to so high a degree of excellence.

A Prominent Citizen of Raleigh Dead.

Dr. Wm. J. Hawkins of Raleigh has just died in a Philadelphia hospital from a dangerous operation. He was 76 years of age and very wealthy. For many years he was President of the Raleigh & Gaston Railway and for awhile of the Raleigh & Augusta railway and was the founder of the Citizens National Bank of Raleigh.

Dr. Hawkins owned property in three states and his estate is carefully estimated at $300,000. He is the fourth one of Raleigh's most wealthy citizens who have died in a few weeks. The others were Messrs. Rufus Tucker, Wm. H. Hollman and E. G. Read. The total of their estate approximates a million and half dollars.

A Southern Pleasure Trip.

Mr. Jas. Kay of the firm of Jas. Kay & Co., well known to the butter and lard trade is on a Southern tour accompanied by his wife. They were at the Albion yesterday but went down to Morehead last night. They will very soon, however return to New Berne to spend a short time in visiting friends and will then go on to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Kay both express themselves as well pleased with our beautiful and quiet little city. Mr. Kay who was here nine years ago noticed the marked improvements that have been made since that time.

THE DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING.

Daniel and Busbee Make Sound Demo- speeches at the Court House.

Mr. W. E. Daniel and Hon. F. H. Bus- bee addressed a good crowd at the court house Tuesday night, and made speeches in behalf of Democracy. Mr. Daniel led in a plain and able speech. He calmly discussed the Govern- ment, the Federal pensions, the Tariff and other questions involved.

It those who were so carried away with Mr. Spears the night before had come to this meeting also, Mr. Daniel would have convinced them that there was a side to the tariff question that they didn't hear, as well as to other issues of the campaign.

Mr. Busbee's speech was more of an exhortation than argument—a brief but strong appeal to Democrats to do their whole duty on election day and also to bring now and the day of election.

The Democrats were well pleased with both speeches, and with the candidate for Solicitor, Mr. Daniel. It would be a pity for him to be defeated. Let every Demo- cratic seek to see that not a vote is wasted.

Coming and Going.

Mrs. W. B. Blount left to visit in Kin- ston and in Pitt county.

Mr. E. G. Roberts and family who have been visiting in the city left for her home in Alabama.

Mr. W. B. Blade returned on the Neuse from Elizabeth City.

Mr. W. E. Patterson returned from a business trip.

Messrs. M. D. W. Stevenson, L. J. Moore, W. E. Clark, P. H. Pelletier, H. C. Whitehurst and J. J. Hines returned last night from Trenton court.

Rev. A. A. Willis of Fayetteville ar- rived last night and will conduct the fu- neral service of Mr. J. A. Simpson to- day. The funeral will be from Centenary M. E. Church at half past three o'clock.

Mrs. D. Bell of Morehead who has been visiting friends in Goldsboro passed through Tuesday night returning home. Her daughter Miss Lillie Bell went down the previous night.

Mr. C. D. Hines of Portsmouth, Ohio who was recently in the city prospecting with a view to establish a truck barrel and crate factory which would also include the manufacture of cheap baskets, came in on the steamer Neuse and took the morning train for Goldsboro. He expects to get back to New Berne soon.

Rev. D. A. Brindle, pastor of the Dis- ciple church, and Mr. C. J. Brown, Mrs. J. W. Messie, Mrs. John Hill, and Misses Maud Land and Rena Bowden, left for Kinston to attend the State convention of the Disciples there. Others passed through for the same purpose; among them being Mr. Barzilia Holton, of Olympia.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The czar's condition is worse.

It is rumored that the empress of China is dead.

All of the inmates of the white house were vaccinated Monday as a precaution against the small-pox.

The case against McCain for murder in the Darlington, S. C. riots has been nolle prossed.

Let me control the conventions and I care not who does the hissing.—Thomas Collier Platt.

Unless Brooklyn comes to her rescue New York will drop into second place and lose the population pennant.

Those Mugwump newspapers which ac- cuse Mr. Hill of peanut politics should give him credit for one thing. He never went so far as to cause the arrest of an opponent's coachman.

Gov. McKinley says he can see no im- provement in business. The great diffi- culty with the governor is that he makes a specialty of seeing but one thing and seeing it but one way.

A disastrous attempt was made Monday night to wreck a train near Frankfort, Ky., by fastening ties on the track. This is the third attempt in that locality.

There is now two and a half feet of snow reported in Colorado and in Ne- braska where the prairie fires have been raging.

Senator Hill is surely to be commended for his pluck and zeal. Despite the dis- ruption in his State, he is making the most gallant fight of his life and appears to be perfectly confident of success.

A negro by the name of J. M. Turner was mobbed in Indiana by his own race for making a Democratic speech at In- dianapolis.

Pennsylvania has an extremely forgetful man if a Richmond paper is to be believed. He ties a knot in his handkerchief to re- member something, sticks a pin in his coat to remember the knot, a pebble in his shoe to remember the pin, makes a dent in his hat to remember the pebble, and even then he carries his wife's letters in his pocket until they wear out.

A negro man about twenty-four years of age is in Wilmington jail under $1,000 bond for the forgery of the name of L. B. Sasser to a check for $40. The forgery was a pretty good one but it was detected. Johnson had been at work for Mr. Sasser and it appears had torn the blank check out of his check book and filled it in and then sent it to the bank by a boy.

Charles Morganfield, the alleged train robber is making a fight against the Adams Express company to recover the money taken from him at the time of his arrest, which it is claimed the express company cannot identify. Morganfield's attorneys say they have abundant proof too, that their client was not engaged in the robbery.

NOTICE.

To the Officers and Members of St. John's Lodge No. 4, A. F. & A. M.:

Brothers: You are requested to attend a special communication of your lodge Wednesday, Oct. 31, 1894 at 2:30 p. m. for the purpose of paying our last ad- tribute of regard to our deceased Brother J. A. Simpson. Visiting Brethren cordially invited to attend.

By order W. M.

J. H. HACKBURN, Sec'y.

The members of Craven Lodge No. 1, Knights of Harmony, are hereby notified to assemble at your Lodge room at 2:30 o'clock, p. m., Wednesday, Oct. 31, 1894 to attend the funeral of our late Brother, J. A. Simpson.

By order of the President,
J. H. SMITH, Sec'y.

FRUITS OF THE PARTIES.

Lessons from Records of the Past.

Disastrous and Terrorizing Rule of Republicanism—The Absorption of Populism by the Former—Democ- racy's Fine Showing in the State Government—The Good Work Star- ted in the National—The Danger to North Carolina—Don't Throw Away the Substance for the Shadow.

The Republican party is and has been from its birth a sectional party. The platform upon which Lincoln was elected, his declarations, the policy of the Repub- lican party and the fact of his election by Northern votes and by a minority of the votes cast left no doubt of his sectional- ities, and so that party has continued.

There has been no lack of talent, of elo- quence or men enlisted in its behalf. It has succeeded mainly in accomplishing what it undertook. Its plans have been well considered, wisely executed and we all see the results. The classes enriched, the masses impoverished.

At every cross roads for a whole gen- eration the opposite party has not ceased to warn the people of the certain coming of the present calamity. No surprise is felt at the situation. The wonder is that they were continued so long in authority.

Those who lived in the 10 years from '66 to '76 who saw the carpet bag legisla- ture with 19 negroes, its dusky allies, most of them unable to read and write, voting themselves $3.00 per day, in- dulgences in a reckless and cruel saturnalia at the expense of the already impoverished State; a regular bar supplied with best liquors was set up at the capitol and the carnival went on. Bonds were issued; the credit of the State being at 10 cents on the dollar with a debt piled up to $42,000,000 dollars. The delinquency and crime perpetrated against the State by this gang of plunderers with swarthy and uneducated as leaders, was never equalled in the United States. Not- withstanding was made to defend it, but upon discovery an exposure the leaders all took refuge and left the State devastated and despoiled. By their fruits they must be judged and every Southern State has long since repudiated the party.

We have no complaint against our State government on the contrary; it is a model of excellence with good credit, good laws, good Executive, good Judi- cary, good schools, good order and good morality. It was the reverse under Re- publican rule.

The Populist party is a monster, born out of time, in short dress, cranky, vain; a noisy stream with no depth; a lame horse with one eye; it wants this or some- thing better, fickle, fault-finding, coy and hard to please. Young and inexperienced, recently wedded and the shrew to tame. This party wants office and honors. It is a party to do the will of the grocer and is likely to embrace and make a full sur- render to him. It has no claims to the country's support, never having proposed a single measure worthy the consideration of statesmen, or set up candidates for office who could be relied upon to advocate any fixed and acceptable policy in the interest of the people.

Can any voter in casting his vote for a Populist or for a Republican or for a Fusionist, feel sure he is not voting a straight Republican ticket? Does any friend to the people and to the State desire a return to the disastrous and terroriz- ing rule of Republicanism unless you desire to defy the warnings of the grand old chief, who now lies peacefully at rest, who stood at the helm all through our perilous voyage with other distinguished comrades and fought to victory against Republican misrule and despotism? The answer must be negative.

Against this combination of negroes, socialists, malcontents and office-seekers the solid, well tried, interested, thinking men of the country stand under the im- mortal, untarnished flag of Democracy, with a record whose pages are covered for a century with line upon line of the grandest triumphs, most acceptable ex- amples and successful experiments ever conceived by statesmen in the interest of republican government. They ask that you inspect the exhibit of their labors in the State government, minutely in every department and file your bill of objec- tions. Not that they feel less concerned about the National, but loss of the home government implies utter ruin and blight to our institutions and our civilization. Go back to '68 for proof of it.

Much has been done in Congress which promises better in the near future. All money is taxable, our currency is solid, our people can live cheaper, trusts are shattered, incomes of the rich help to pay the taxes, elections are made free, govern- ment expenses are lowered; it has fought a good fight but the end is not yet.

Have we seriously considered this ques- tion? Can we cite a single instance in the history of the government where bene- fit to the people has resulted by tempo- rary defeat of the Democratic party. It has always to be reinstated and a big job of repairs to accomplish. We see no cause to neglect the Democracy.

We hear a great deal of sophistry and falsehood and error, such as low prices for produce, etc. Is this to deceive the unwary and lead them astray? Let's see. It is asserted and some misguided believe supply and demand have nothing to do with prices. Take nature's own free gifts and most of them are necessities, air, earth, water, fire, the grasses, etc.; there is a demand for all these. Often the supply is in excess or short of the demand from one point of view. So with other fallacies, they would impose upon us. There is really nothing in them, and too late we may discover we have lost the substance and have only the shadow.

A few last words I wish to say before the election. The outlook is not en- couraging, but I trust there is enough good sound sense in the community to save the State. People sometimes lose their balance.

W. D. H.

Republicans Free to Choose.

The Republican party has not put any candidates in the field for State Senators against Dr. F. A. Whitaker and Capt. Swift Galloway the able standard bearers of the Democracy. Therefore Republi- cans are perfectly free to vote for these gentlemen, and it is believed that hun- dreds, and perhaps thousands of Repub- licans will vote for them in preference to the third party candi- dates.

Let every Democrat do his duty, and work to bring wavering voters to a right decision.

NOT THE SAME SPECIES.

Mr. Butler Publishing Made-up Speeches as Those Delivered in the Discussion Between Himself and Mr. Simmons Instead of the Real Speeches.

The Goldsboro Caucasian, Marion But- ler's paper, has been publishing what purports to have been the speeches made by Hon. F. M. Simmons and Mr. Butler when they met in joint debate at Jordan's store, Wayne county. The serious charge is made against Mr. Butler that he is not publishing the speeches as delivered, but has himself made up a speech for Mr. Simmons and then made up his reply to what he says Mr. Simmons said, (neither speech hardly having a resemblance to those delivered,) and of course making victory fall on his side, while those present say that Mr. Simmons fairly demolish- ed the leader of the Populists using him up in such a style as he will not forget in years.
