COTTON SALES.

Wednesday.—93 bales, 5 @ 5.25.

A small house in the suburbs, occupied by colored people was partly burned yesterday.

The A. Cohn Music House of this city were getting off a shipment of their fine pianos and organs yesterday to exhibit at the Rocky Mount Fair.

A gentleman who heard Mr. Simmons at Trenton says that it was one of the finest speeches he ever heard, and easily classes him with the foremost men of the State.

A JOURNAL representative will be at the Maysville speaking Saturday. Subscribers are warned not to take fright, as he will not ask them to pay more than two years in advance.

Our townsman, Mr. C. R. Thomas will speak at Hull Swamp, Curatoree county, to-morrow night; at Cove, Craven county, Saturday at 12 o'clock, and at Pollockville, Jones county, Monday at 12 o'clock.

The low rates to be in effect Saturday on the W. N. & N. R. R. will give all a good opportunity to hear Senator Jarvis' speech at Maysville and to witness the grand demonstration that will be made in his honor.

At the progressive whist party given by Misses Ray and Lena Schultz, Mrs. Solinger, of New York, won the first prize, and Mr. Benj. Hahn of New Berne, the second.

New Berne will have the opportunity of hearing Senator Jarvis to-morrow night and we hope that our citizens will turn out and hear the issues plainly, soundly and practically discussed.

The old pews in the Presbyterian church have just been taken out and the new ones will be put in at once. A portion of those removed will be sent up to Pollockville for the use of the Presbyterian church there, a new one.

On the 13th a high-class concert will be given in the Y. M. C. A. Hall by the Schubert symphony company. It is composed of four ladies, two gentlemen and one child. A variety of instruments will be used.

Word was brought to the city just at night yesterday that the body of Mr. Howard Gaskill had been found floating near where he was drowned at Baird's creek by Mr. Meekins. A boat was at once dispatched to bring the remains to the city. The funeral service will be held at the grave at ten o'clock, this morning.

The suit of Mr. Jas. O. Gray of Caswell, vs. the A. & N. C. R. R. was tried in the term of Jones county Superior Court just held. It resulted in a mistrial. The suit was for $10,000 damages on account of an engine striking and killing his 18 months child on May 19th, 1893, while it was playing by the railroad track.

New residences continue to go up in New Berne, which is all right and proper, for it makes the city more attractive and inviting, but it is wise to so much neglect the establishment of manufacturing concerns of some kind in addition to those we already have. Give us more puffing smoke stacks and less calamity croakers.

Other delegates left yesterday morning for the Disciples convention at Kinston. They were Rev. Henry Winfield and Messrs. J. S. Basnight, and F. M. Bowden of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Brinson and their daughter, Miss Clara, and Messrs. G. W. Midyette and J. K. Dixon of Pamlico county; Mr. G. M. Silverthorn, of Midleton, Hyde county and Mr. L. F. Murrell, of Onslow.

Mr. J. A. Simpson's Funeral.

A very large congregation assembled in Centenary Methodist church to attend the funeral of Mr. J. A. Simpson. The services were conducted by Rev. R. A. Willis, assisted by Rev. J. T. Lyon.

Coming and Going.

Col. J. D. Whitford left on a Southern business trip yesterday morning.

Miss Mollie Dav's left for a protracted visit to relatives in Greensboro.

Messrs. W. W. Clark and O. H. Guion returned yesterday from Jones county. Court adjourned the previous day, and the hung jury was discharged yesterday morning.

Mrs. Collins of Hillsboro arrived to visit Mrs. Roselle.

Maj. W. H. Chadbourne left for Bogue sound in company with Mr. C. G. Bochman of Charleston. Mr. Bochman is a Charleston contractor who intends to put in a bid for the dredging work that is to be done there. The deepening of the channel is to give better communication with Swainsboro, via Beaufort.

Misquoting Sugar for Political Effect.

When Capt. Swift Galloway was speaking at Vanceboro Saturday, a third party, or two kept interrupting. Among other things, when the tariff question came up, he wanted to know about sugar. Capt. Galloway stated a barrel of sugar could be bought as cheap now as at this period last year—one of the third party would be smart fellows denied and declared it would cost seven cents a pound in New Berne and a New Berne Republican unctuously assented.

New Berne jobbers whose advertisements can be seen in every issue of the JOURNAL, will supply the smart gentlemen or any one else, with all the sugar wanted, by the barrel, at 5 1/4 cents for granulated, and 4 1/4 for other white sugar. The price is substantially the same as at this time last year.

COCONUTS, grated, shelled or sliced free of charge to purchasers, at New Berne Candy Factory, 59 Middle St.

REPEAL THE ALLEGATION.

The Populists Advertise a Democrat as One of Their Speakers—He Indignantly Denounces Their False Claim and Advises all to Vote the Entire Democratic Ticket.

The following carries with it no uncertain sounds and needs no explanation.

HON. W. T. CAHO.

"Dear Sir:—It has been reported to me that a notice was posted at Truitt's School House in Craven County, that C. M. Babitt, John W. Brabble and Dudley Paul were to make populist speeches at that place on Saturday Oct. 25th, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Now sir, I want you to say for me, that so far as my name is concerned it is forgery; I am a democrat, have always been as you well know, and I shall continue to be one. I do not know who, or any name on the poster, it was put out there with my knowledge or consent, and is therefore a forgery. In other words the man that says I am a populist lies and he knows it when he says it.

Please tell the people in Craven County and around Truitt's school house particularly that I am a democrat and will vote the entire democratic ticket from the chief justice of the supreme court to township constable, because I believe in the principles of the democratic party. I advise them to go to the polls early and stay late and vote the entire Democratic ticket without a servico or blench on it, that is what I shall do.

Your friend,
J. W. Drabble.
Stonewall N. C. Oct. 26th 1894.

MAYSVILLE HUMPING HERSELF.

In Honor of the Coming of Senator Jarvis.

Little Maysville says she is going to do the thing up brown when Jarvis comes there Saturday to speak. She says it has got to be a rouser in every sense of the word.

There is some talk of getting up four hundred mounted hot-men in red jackets who will take the town by storm as indicative of the great Democratic tidal wave that will sweep through old Jones on the day of election.

The good people of our neighbor county will be doing right for Senator Jarvis, is one of the trust sons of the Old North State. There is no man better acquainted with the affairs of North Carolina, a more grander still, he is one of the few, like also unto F. M. Simmons, that does not tire in working for the interests of his native State. With these gentlemen, and of course some others, it is not just before election time only that they show their hand, but also when you will when they have held public position, it was twelve months to the year that they served their constituents, both ably and joyfully.

Now we say Maysville is exactly right in paying honor to men who have proven themselves of solid worth to the masses as have Messrs. Jarvis and Simmons.

The Barrel, Crate and Basket Factory.

Mr. C. D. Hines, whom we have twice alluded to as intending to establish a manufacturing industry in some town of Eastern Carolina, again passed through yesterday en route from Goldsboro to Elizabeth City.

Mr. Hines recently spent several days in New Berne and was well pleased with many things that he found, and we hope to have been able very soon to make announcement of his selection of New Berne for the location of his plant, but he tells us that as yet he has not come to a decision, and that three towns have held out good inducements to him, while in New Berne no advances have been made.

Centenary M. E. Church Revival.

Rev. G. G. Harley conducted the afternoon meeting and Rev. J. T. Lyon the night meeting in Centenary Methodist Church yesterday. The latter was not quite as largely attended as the previous night, but more interest was shown—several went forward for prayer and a good altar meeting was held.

An experience meeting will be held at ten o'clock this morning, a prayer meeting at 8:30 and the usual service at night.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The resumption of the mills at Fall River is another inconvenience to the hard luck orators.

J. A. Bailey has finally become the exclusive owner of the Forrepaug and Bacnum—the two "biggest shows on earth."

In addition to its big registration, Chicago has just experienced a London fog that New York will never be able to touch.

The Vermont farmers are not holding any McKinley meetings. They go the Louisiana planters several points better, and will bring suit for their sugar bounty.

Don Dickinson has sent the New York Democrats a check for a neat sum, but he refuses to execute a speech.

McKinley should rush back to St. Louis. Tom Reed has just been accorded the largest meeting ever held in that town.

Carl Sturz doesn't think Ma. Cleveland is weak enough to support Senator Hill. That is another way of putting it.

The Washington Post says that the news from North Carolina forebodes the discomfiture of Capt. Buck Kitchin. This will be another black eye for township currency.

Five in a New York basement house on the 30th ult. resulted in death to eight people, one was killed by jumping from a window, seven were asphyxiated to death.

William K. Vanderbilt is in receipt of seven fine coach horses by the steamer Cayle from Liverpool. Wonder will Uncle Sam interpose here as he did in the case of Mr. Morton?

The Fishing Gazette mentions the recent importation into England of two thousand frogs by the Duke of Bedford.

The Jacksonville Times says that in Onslow county there are 2,800 white persons, and 1,385 colored persons between six and 81 years of age.

SUCCESSFUL CAROLINA FAIRS.

The State Fair and the East Carolina Fair.

Now That One is Paid and a Big Success. Let all Work With Zeal for the Other.

The State Fair has just held the grandest and most successful exhibition in its history, one which would have done credit to any State and due meed of praise has in accordance been awarded by the press of the State both to the Fair and its managers, especially to its head, President Julian S. Carr. Mr. Carr has accepted the Presidency for next year and announces that with the backing and help of the press, the active co-operation of the farmers, manufacturers and others, the fair will be better next year than this year. We believe it can be done by proper, strenuous effort, and we believe it will be done. Good representative fairs are good educators for the people and good advertisements for the State, and we are glad that Eastern North Carolina was so well represented in the exhibits.

Now that the great State Fair has come and gone let us turn our attention with zeal to the next exhibition of the East Carolina Fair, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association, which will be held in this city next February—the time is only three and a half months off. Let us determine that as every succeeding exhibition has been better than the preceding one, so the coming one shall eclipse all others.

The officials are making a strong move in this direction. They have increased the race premium list till it is the largest ever offered in the State (it aggregates $3,000) and are now at work increasing the regular premium list. The entire result of their labors on this line will soon be made known.

In the meantime also attractions are being sought for and contracted with. New ones will be secured which will be enticing to all.

We wish now to impress particularly upon the farmer the importance of making their selections of exhibits from their crops at this time before the best is used or injured. This can be done better now than later. Let not only farmers but all others be thinking and preparing so as to make this East Carolina Fair continue to hold the high position it has attained and which has been accorded to it by all visitors.

O'HARA AT WINSTON.

Opposes Fusion—A Rabble Tried to Howl Him Down, but Others Listened Attentively.

WINSTON, N. C., Oct. 30.—Ex-Congressman O'Hara, ex-senator of New Berne, in a speech at the court house here last night, a large audience was present, composed mostly of colored people. The burden of his speech was opposition to the fusion movement in this State and he advised his colored friends to stand by the Republican nominees, but to refuse to vote for any Populist candidates.

Many of the colored people behaved like folks and listened attentively to the speaker, but there was a rabble that raised a pandemonium that was a travesty on civilization. It appears that this rabble, savage-like rabble was instigated to this disturbance by Republican leaders who were displeased with the speakers criticisms of the Populists, upon whose backs these Republican leaders hope to ride into office. In the midst of this rabble stood J. P. Stanton, ex-register of deeds, encouraging this disorderly conduct and taking part himself in the savage yells.

The Populist speakers and writers have a great deal to say about the low price of cotton now, and charge that the Democratic party is responsible for it, but they know better. The fact is cotton has been declining in price for twenty years. The crop of '73-'74, brought 17 cents a pound; of '74-'75, 15; of '75-'76, 13; of '76-'77, 11.73; of '77-'78, 11.28, and it has been steadily declining since. The Democratic party was not in power until March 4, 1893, and it would be just as reasonable and just as honest to hold it responsible for the decline in all these twenty years as it is to hold it responsible for the low price now.—Wil. Messenger.

"Tis not the Clothes which make the man, but they help."

Hats, Clothes and Shoes civilized men cannot do without. We've got to have 'em. Now we want your trade on them. When you need anything in this line see us. We don't expect to suit every body and we don't get mad if you don't buy, but we think we can come as near suiting the majority as any one in New Berne. We are constantly receiving New Goods. 63 POLLOCK ST.

TO SOAK THE SOD WITH BLOOD.

A Tennessee Populist Editor Placed Under a $2,500 Bond for Incendiary Utterances.

E. F. Tapley, editor of the People's Advocate, a Populist newspaper, of Ripley Tenn., was arrested October 30th, on the charge of sedition growing out of the publication of an article in the last issue of that paper. The article in question is as follows:

"After considering the matter, it has been deemed to hold a mass meeting to which all honest people are invited to attend, in the court house next Saturday, November 3rd, at 1 p. m. The object of this meeting is to give expression to the determination now formed in the minds and hearts of the people to die rather than submit to anything but a fair election on Tuesday, November 6th. That they have all come to this conclusion, it does not require much time or conversation to demonstrate. To submit to such glaring frauds as were practiced in the August election is to surrender all manhood and patriotism and this the honest people of old Lauderdale are not yet ready to do, and before they will do it they will soak the sod with their blood. Every honest man who desires a fair and honest election is earnestly urged to quit his daily avocation and come out on that day and show that he is at least on the side of justice and right. Come everybody."

Editor Tapley was arraigned before a magistrate, waived a preliminary examination and was admitted to bail under a $2,500 bond. The law under which he was arrested is a section in the revised statutes prohibiting the calling of meetings or mobs together for the purpose of inciting a riot. Tapley has frequently been in trouble on account of his fiery utterances and was recently found guilty of libel and compelled to pay $1,000 damages.
