COTTON SALES.

Thursday, 108 Bales 5 to 5.20.

The Royal Arcanum meets to-night at half past seven o'clock.

Next month is Christmas. How fast the years roll around!

We have advices that bids for our Public Building will be advertised for in about a month; the specifications are about completed.

It is hoped that a good many colored voters will hear Senator Jarvis tonight. They are invited to be present. He talks plainly, pleasantly and convincingly to all.

A portion of the delegates to the Disables convention at Kinston returned home last night. Others are expected to-night.

The season up to date has been very pleasant and remarkably mild. At a number of places, and especially the business houses, scarcely no fires at all have been had.

The young men are working very hard upon their specialties for the Naval Reserve Minstrel. They are going to put some specialties which have had no equal upon the stage in New Bern.

New York politicians are figuring on the vote of that State. According to Democratic figuring Hill will be elected; according to the Republican Morton will. Well somebody will soon find a disappointment.

On Thanksgiving day, which is on Thursday of Wilmington's Welcome Week, a Wilmington base ball team will face the team of the Agricultural and Mechanical college. There will also be a foot shooting tournament both that day and on Friday.

The Pope Bicycle Mfg. Co., have announced their intention to reduce their standard machines down to $100. This is $25. less than the price they have been selling them at. The reduction will no doubt very much enlarge the sale of this very popular wheel.

The remains of Mr. Howard Gaskill, who was drowned on the 25th ult., were consigned to their last resting place in Cedar Grove Cemetery Thursday morning Rev. J. T. Lyon officiating. A good company of his friends followed the remains to the grave.

Mr. Chas. R. Thomas went down to Morehead last night to meet Mr. E. L. Franks, the Populist nominee for the State Senate in joint discussion. Mr. Thomas will speak to-night at Hull Swamp, tomorrow noon at Cove and at Pollockville at noon Monday.

Mr. F. E. Hege has brought down the first large lot of his stock from Salem. In it are his dogs, his pheasants, in several varieties, and 200 chickens. Mr. Hege now goes back to Salem to bring moving down the remainder of his stock. Himself and family will be down next week.

Officers of this city and Wagon of Goldsboro, two prominent colored men, are making a strong fight against fusion. We consider their effort in this line entirely in vain, for their few white Republican leaders understand too well how to whip the colored voters into line so as to keep themselves in office.

The Maxton Fair, the border fair of the two Carolina's, opened Wednesday, Oct. 30th, with delightful weather and a good crowd. The exhibits are reported to be excellent in quality and the hall and grounds beautiful and well arranged, and amusements of all kinds plentiful; among them are a balloon ascension, clay pigeon gun contests, and the battle of Gettysburg.

State Fair Premiums.

The premiums at the State Fair, Raleigh, are being distributed and the successful contestants announced.

We are pleased to note that in the ladies department of fancy work, Mrs. Emily Thomas of our city has received two premiums for her lace work, and Mrs. Charles B. Thomas is awarded the first premium for drawn work centerpiece.

The Minstrels.

Seats for the Naval Reserve Minstrel will be on sale Wednesday morning, Nov. 7th, and prices will be fifty cents each, as heretofore announced. The performance will be given at the opera house on the evening of the 9th.

One of the specialties to be introduced, and one, by the way, which is rather a difficult undertaking for an amateur, is a dainty female impersonation, including a song and dance. The olio and numerous other specialties with two fancy pieces will no doubt make up a most capital performance. Watch the columns of THE JOURNAL for the advertisement.

Coming and Going.

Rev. R. A. Willis left yesterday morning for Fayetteville, his home. Mrs. B. C. Gosham of Fayetteville, will remain awhile longer with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Simpson.

Lieut. E. A. Jack of the Revenue Cutter Winona, who has been away for some time, returned yesterday on the steamer Neuse. Lieut. J. L. Davis also returned and is registered at the Albart.

Mrs. P. LaMontagne, who has been off for the summer, returned home last night. Mrs. A. Oestinger and Mrs. D. Oettinger of Kinston, arrived to visit Mrs. M. M. Marks.

The Meetings in Centenary Church.

Rev. G. B. Harley conducted the two meetings during the day yesterday in Centenary M. E. church and Rev. Mr. Lyon at night.

The afternoon meeting was a good experience meeting. Some fifteen or twenty of those present spoke while it was in progress.

At night Mr. Lyon preached upon the healing of Naaman, the leper and gave a good discourse. An after meeting followed. There are still some seeking an interest in the prayers of God's people.

There will be services this afternoon at half-past three o'clock and tonight also. The song service will begin at seven o'clock and the regular service quarter to eight.

COCONUTS, grated, shredded or sliced free of charge to purchasers, at New Bern Candy Factory, 59 Middle St.

SPEAKING BY SENATOR JARVIS.

At New Bern to-night—At Maysville To-morrow—Let Everybody Hear Him.

The time for Senator Jarvis to address the voters of New Bern has arrived. He will speak at the court house to-night. Ladies as well as gentlemen are invited to be present and hear this favorite son of the east.

The hour for the speaking to begin is eight o'clock. Let every one be on hand in time.

To-morrow Senator Jarvis will be at Maysville. He is to commence his speech there at half-past eleven o'clock. The occasion is expected to be one of the biggest demonstrations Maysville ever had, and the W. N. & N. R. R. is working to make it so by selling low round trip tickets from each direction. It is only fifty cents for the round trip from New Bern, and twenty-five cents from Pollockville.

Hear Senator Jarvis to-night, and then as many as can, go down, and join with the concourse that will be gathered at Maysville from Jones, Onslow, Carteret and Craven counties. They will all be represented in the audience.

The speech at Maysville will end Senator Jarvis' appointments; the campaign being finished he will go home to Greenville to vote. It will be sought however to have him make a speech at Swift Creek which is on his way home if it can be managed. We hope it will be, for all the 15-mile around there will hear Senator Jarvis with pleasure and the speech would not fail of results on election day.

Be on hand at 8 o'clock to-night.

A Rare Treat.

It is a pleasure to announce the coming of the celebrated Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette including Master "Tommy" Purcell, the wonderful six year old violinist, singer and whistler, to the Opera House Tuesday evening, Nov. 13th, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. This will be without a doubt the greatest treat offered our people in a long time. In order to secure them the Association was compelled to give them a heavy guarantee, and it is hoped that our people will show their appreciation of their efforts and greet the company with a full house. No company on the American stage can boast of a finer reputation, and those who attend may rest assured of a treat seldom heard in our city.

Mrs. Louis Ulrich Dead.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ulrich died at Mt. Airy on the 29th inst., to which place she and her husband had recently moved from Henderson. Mr. Ulrich having established a bakery in the latter place. She leaves three children. She was originally Miss Hayes of Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich were formerly of this city. The former is a brother of our townsman Messrs. Ferdinand and Rudolph Ulrich. They have many friends here who sympathize with the afflicted ones.

Hotel Chastawka Arrivals.

J. D. Hofmeister, Norfolk, Va.; H. G. Williams, Norfolk, Va.; Kelley E. Terry, Stella C. E. Matthews, Providence, R. I.; J. M. Richards, N. Y.; B. Kurtz, N. Y.; Mrs. B. Kelly, Phil. Pa.; Wm. Douglass, Charleston; F. M. Specht, Chicago, Ill.

Professor Peacock Elected President.

Professor Dred Peacock has been elected President of the Greenboro Female College. The selection gives great satisfaction.

Professor Peacock has been connected with that institution for some years and his election was unanimous. The whole Board of directors was present when the vote was taken which was on Wednesday Oct. 31st.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Otto Ziegler, Jr., of California recently rode a flying mile on the bicycle in 1 minute 50 seconds, a new world's record.

Every workman in a jacket wears on his cap and on his back an inscription giving his business and his employer's name.

The Michigan Democrats wonder why Don M. Dickinson doesn't do all of his talking through his check book.

We understand that Mr. Morton has registered a solemn vow that he will not have his hair cut until he shall be elected Governor.

Stop this talk of Harrison not being a candidate for re-election. His $1,000 contribution to the New York Republicans has settled this particular point.

Chauncey Depew is now on a rear platform specializing trip through New York.

Governor Flower talked his way to Buffalo from the rear platform of a car Wednesday. At Buffalo he spoke to a big crowd at the depot.

Vice President Stevenson, ex-Governor Campbell and Hon. Wm. R. Morrison had the largest demonstration of the campaign at Peoria, Ill.

Capt. Dreyfus, an officer in the French army, has been arrested for treason, it being alleged that he sold plans of frontier forts to the Italian War Office.

The New York Sun has calmly reviewed the situation, and awarded the Mayorally plan to Higby Grant. When the tiger sees it in the Sun it hopes it is true.

"If we do not keep our business," says Gov. McKinley, "it will not keep us." This reminds us that the Governor is neglecting considerable business at the capital of Ohio.

A well in Salisbury, N. C., which until recently supplied cold water, is now reported to be giving forth a hot kind exclusively.

The Union Line steamer Wairana from Sydney, N. S., for Auckland, N. Z., was wrecked Sunday night on Great Barrier Island and 112 passengers drowned.

A young French officer lately, on a wager, made his way on a bicycle to the top of the Pic du Midi in the Pyrenees 9,540 feet high, and then down again.

The Indianapolis people are getting a little more excited over politics than the occasion warrants. Rotten eggs and potatoes are not dignified campaign arguments.

Republicans are said to be making plans to buy votes in New York like so many sheep. They must be getting desperate in the Morton cause, and find it easy to take the hoops right off his "tail."

THE TELEPHONE SYSTEM.

The Line Will be Located in a Few Days—Each One who Intends to Subscribe Requested to do so Before the Work is Started.

Within ten days the line for the New Bern Telephone exchange will be located and it is desired that every one who wants the service will let it be known at once, because after it is located no one else will be taken in until it is completed and thoroughly tested. The subscribers are not required to pay anything until the line is completed and proved satisfactory. It is to be finished in about 90 days.

There are now 65 subscribers to the exchange, about 40 of these are at business places.

The greater the number who take the service the more satisfactory it will prove. There are numbers of others who would find it a great convenience. Let each additional citizen who desires to become a subscriber inform Mr. Pelletier at once. The cost will be thirty dollars per year in business places, fifteen dollars per year elsewhere.

DROPPED DEAD IN CHURCH.

Mr. W. F. Kornegay of Goldsboro Expires Without Warning While Engaged in Divine Worship.

Mr. W. B. Boyd left yesterday morning to attend the funeral of Mr. W. F. Kornegay. His wife who is a sister of Mrs. Kornegay's left the previous afternoon.

Mr. Kornegay has been in failing health for some months but no serious apprehensions were felt, nor any sudden ending of his life expected but he dropped dead in St. Paul's Methodist church of Goldsboro Thursday while setting by the side of his wife.

Mr. Kornegay was 62 years of age was a farmer and was also President of the North Carolina railroad. He was for a part of his life an editor and a believer in good government for which he labored until he died. Strong praise is given him for his sterling traits of Christian character and godly life.

ANOTHER RICHMOND.

The Republicans Nominate Mattheson For Congress in The Wilmington District.

The straightout Republicans have now put a nominee for Congress in the field in this district, and he will contest the honors with James A. Leckhart, the Democratic nominee and the Rev. C. H. Martin the Populist.

The following card addressed to the Messenger was received yesterday: MAXWELL, N. C., Oct. 30th, 1894.

Editors—Messenger—Please make a note of the fact that Hon. John L. Mattheson, of Anson county, has been named by the Republican Congressional committee for Congress from this district.

R. B. RUSSELL, Chairman Republican Congressional Committee.—Wilmington Messenger.

PRESBYTERIANS IN COUNCIL.

A Pleasant Methodist Mention of the Synodical Meeting.

The Raleigh Christian Advocate has this brotherly mention on the recent meeting of the Synod of North Carolina, the representative body of the Presbyterian church of the State:

The Synod of North Carolina met in Greensboro, Oct. 23rd. Dr. Peyton Hoze, of Wilmington, presiding. Moderator, preached the opening sermon, which was very fine indeed, and constituted the Synod. About 100 ministers and elders were present at the opening. Rev. W. R. Arrowood was elected Moderator.

In the Synod there are 138 ministers, 321 Churches, and 30,095 members. They have had in the past year an increase of 22 Churches, and considerable increase in membership.

They are a body of strong, earnest men, and are planning moving on an aggressive campaign. They are giving much more attention than formerly to Home Mission work, and have inaugurated some successful work in different parts of the State. They are establishing mission schools and building churches, and putting some of their best men to the front. This is a great work, and we are glad they are taking it up. An excellent spirit was manifested in their deliberations. There were evidences of brotherly love, and great harmony. They have a few colored people, and are beginning to take up work among the colored people, though as yet they have but few Churches.

The Presbyterians in North Carolina have had a long and successful history. They are pleasant co-workers and we wish that they may multiply many fold and be very successful in all their undertakings.

Respectfully,
H. B. DUFFY.

WILMINGTON'S WELCOME WEEK.

The Grand Parade and Great Sham Battle Between Land and Sea Forces.

Wilmington's Grand Welcome Week parade will be on Wednesday Nov. 27th. It is announced to move promptly at 8 p. m., pass in review before the Mayor and other officials. After the procession, composed of such organizations as the military and fire companies, bands, trade floats mounted division etc., has duly paraded the principal part of the city, a naval sham battle, an attack upon a fort by gun boats and the subsequent landing of the attacking party will follow.

The landing is however preceded by the spiking of the fort's cannon, the blowing up of the fort and the retirement of its defenders, leaving the victors only the dismantled fort, finding which they return to the Nantuxet.

The Star devotes a column and a half to a description of the parade, the sham battle and mention of the companies and boats that will be engaged. Two-thirds of the account is given to those things which pertain to the battle.
