THE JOURNAL THE DAY IS DONE.

LONGFELLOW. The day is done, and the darko l'alls from the wioga of Nig As a feather is walled downwa From an eagle in his flight.

A feeling of sadness and longing; That is not akin to pain. And resemi-less sorrow only As the mist resembles the rain.

Come read to me some poem, Some simple and heartfelt lay. That shall soothe this restless feeling And banish the thoughts of day.

Not from the grand old masters. Not from the bards sublime, Whose distant footsteps echo Through the corridors of Time.

For, like strains of martial music Their might, thoughts suggest Life's-endless toll and endeavor: And to-night I long for rest.

Read from some humbler poet,
Whose songs gusts from his heart.
As shadows from the clouds of summer,
Or tear from the eyelids start;

Who, through long days of labor, And night devoid of ease, Still heard in his soul the music Of wonderful melodies.

Such songs have power to quiet The restless pulse of care, And come like the benediction That follows after prayer.

Then read from the treasured volume The poem of thy choice, And lead to the rhyme of the poet The beauty of thy voice. and the night shall be full of music And the cares, that infest the day, Shall fold their tents, like the Arabs,

And as silently steal away. holesale Market Country Produce leet-4a5c; dressed. Hind quarters 5c. Beeswax 20c.
