NORTH CAROLINA SECURE.

SEVEN OUT OF NINE CONGRESSMEN
Returned from Raleigh All Night
Long—Reports From Out-of-the-
Way Places Very Mysterious.

Returned from Raleigh All Night
Long—Reports From Out-of-the-
Way Places Very Mysterious.

Forayth county 400 Republican.
Durham precinct for Durham county, 104 Republican.

Pasquotank county gives Skinner, Populist, 700 majority, a gain of about 200.
Four townships in Rowan, including Salisbury, gives a Democratic majority of 900.

Asheboro, N. C., Nov. 6.—9 out of 30 precincts in Randolph county give Republicans a gain of 245—county probably Republican by 900.

Raleigh, N. C.—Gullford county gives Republicans about 100 majority; Chatham County, 800; Vance county, 300.
Two Townships in Wilson county gives Democrats 700.

Raleigh, N. C.—Returns continue slow and Meigs—but indicate that Vance, Chatham, Pasquotank, Richmond, Forayth,
the New Hanover, Guilford, Alamance, Yadkin and Henderson counties have gone Republican.

Swayn, Onslow, Martin, Madison, Haywood, Jackson, McDowell, Johnson, Buncombe and Northampton, are Democratic. In Wake and Levoir indications are that the gain is in favor of the Republicans, though majority may not be sufficient to elect.

Raleigh, N. C.—Returns are coming in slowly and only partial. Indications are that the Democrats will elect seven of the nine congressmen. Advice so far show little change from the vote in '92.

Raleigh, N. C.—Returns from Graham, Cleveland and Davidson counties show large Democratic gains.

Raleigh, N. C., 4:15 A. M.—Returns from Wilkes, Mecklenburg, Moore, Orange, Stanly, Davie and Pitt counties show slight Republican gains.

Skinner's election for congress is about certain.
Onslow county is estimated as having gone four hundred majority.
Carteret county thought to be safely Democratic.

Pamlico county reports a good front and expects to come out all right when returns are all in.

Cotton sales were very light yesterday.
Business suspended on account of the election.

Green peas and string beans were among the shipments on the steamer New Bern yesterday.

News from Trenton indicates a pretty full vote. A few negroes and Populists voted the Democratic ticket.

Wednesday fair, slightly warmer, frost Wednesday morning; was what the weather prediction yesterday said for today.

Mr. A. D. Patterson and her daughter Miss Bessie returned from Nyack, on the Hudson where they have been spending the summer.

On account of waiting to get as complete returns from the election as possible, the Weekly JOURNAL will be delayed one day in its publication.

Mr. T. J. Mitchell will to-day commence collecting the fourth instalment from the subscribers to the road improvement fund. The road has now been worked entirely once with grading and it is now being gone over a second time for finishing touches before putting the rock on. It was first thought that it would be used but the desire for a first-class durable road has caused the desire to use rock as the foundation.

Schubert Concert.
The coming of the celebrated Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette to the Opera House Tuesday evening, Nov.
10th, under the auspices of the Y. M. C.
A. is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by our music loving people, as it will be without a doubt, one of the finest entertainments ever given in New Bern.

The Schuberters are well known in nearly every city in this country and they always draw crowded houses.

Our people are noted for their liberality in patronizing first class musical entertainments, and we trust their reputation will be fully sustained on Tuesday night.

Seeds will go on sale Saturday at 9 a.
m. at Nunn & McSorley's.

Hotel Chattawka Barber Shop.
Mr. Chas. F. Bartling from Georgetown, Delaware has opened a barber shop at Hotel Chattawka. He occupies the rooms formerly occupied by the billiard room, having had the billiard table removed. He has not quite finished up his new place, but he is fitted up sufficiently to receive patrons. He will have a stylish place. All patrons are invited to visit him at the hotel.

THE ELECTION RETURNS.

NOT ENCOURAGING TO DEMOCRATS

All the States show increased Republican Gains—A Democratic House in Congress Assured.

The election returns from nearly all the Northern and Western States show a light vote with decidedly Republican gains.
The South also votes light in comparison with the '92 campaign, and in most instances shows a good Democratic majority.

West Va.
WHEELING, W. Va.—Nothing reliable from Wilson districts; both sides claiming it by small majority.
Congressman Wilson lost heavily. The election of Day, a republican, almost certain.

W. L. Wilson is defeated. The Republican committee claim all four congressmen, and indications are favorable for Republican majority in legislature.

Virginia.
RICHMOND, VA.—Official returns from Botetourt county, tenth district, indicate a very close vote. The Democratic majority in this county in 1892 was 5,904 and Democrats carried the district by 3,000.

Bedford, Va.—Sixth district Democratically 144 a Democratic loss of 370.
Edinburg Democratic majority in Bedford county, 6th district 500, a Democratic loss of 1,000.

Richmond, Va.—In the city of Norfolk
there was only a little over the registered vote. Tyler's (Dem) majority is estimated at 800. If correct, there is a Democratic loss of nearly 3,000. Tucker (Dem.) majority, City of Staunton, 186, a Democratic loss of 308.

In 7th district 6 out of 11 precincts in Page county, give Walker, Republican, 94 majority; this county gave a majority of 898 in 1892.

Richmond, Va.—Further returns indicate heavy Democratic losses at nearly every point.
Danville gives a Democratic plurality of 900, a loss of about 150.

Partial reports from Culpeper county indicate that McCaul, Republican, has carried the county by a small majority.

There is a Democratic loss in Blanton county of 988; in the district probably 100.

The returns are slow and while the Democrats appear to have lost heavily, the returns are not sufficiently full to indicate that they have lost any of the districts.

South Carolina.
CHARLESTON, S. C.—Elliott, Democrat for Congress 2886; Murray, Republican, 308.

COLUMBIA, S. C.—Darlington predict—Pope 329; Evans 24.

For convention 21 against convention
218. McLeurion for Congress 128; Wilson 158. Union precinct—Evans 266; Pope 191. Sumpter precinct—Pope
108; Evans 159; Stokes, for Congress, 283; Johnson 65; convention, No. 205, yes, 99. Ten precincts in Spartanburg county, including city, Pope 602; Evans
553. For convention 17, against 886.

Associated Press bulletin from Columbia, S. C., says indications are that the independent ticket for legislature will fall in nearly every county.

COLUMBIA, S. C.—Figures thus far indicate election of Evans by 30,000—Til-manite.

Georgia.
Associate Press dispatch says that Lislie, Democrat, is elected to Congress 1st district Georgia; Russell, Democrat, 1st district Georgia, Crist, Democrat, 3rd district Georgia, and Turner, Democrat 11th district, Georgia.

Savannah, Ga.—Congressional vote; Savannah, Lester, Democrat, 6,937; Brown, Brown, Populist, 87.

Atlanta—Georgia elects a solid Democratic delegation.

Florida.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—Ideal election day, clear and cool. Congressional election, only light vote. The election of Cooper and Sparkman, Democrat, is assured. No figures can be given at this hour.

Washington, D. C.—The Florida Citizen estimates one half vote cast in 21 congressional district. Cooper, Democrat is re-elected. The Populist vote is small.
In 1st district Sparkman, Democrat, is elected by a large majority.

Texas.
GALVESTON, TEXAS.—The news predicts usual Democratic majority for State and Legislature, also the election of Democratic congressmen in all districts, with probably the exception of the 9th and 10th districts. Nothing definite is expected to-night. It is reported that Gm. Sickles is defeated for congress.

Illinois.
CHICAGO.—45 precincts, Claggett,
Democrat, 5,332; Wolf, Republican, 5, 371; Randolph, Populists, 1,179.

Chicago.—70 precincts, Claggett, 8,073;
Wolf 8,333; Randolph, 1,988.

Chicago.—Rep. State Com., claim State by 70,000. 16 congressmen and both branches legislature.

Massachusetts.
BOSTON.—TEN TOWNSHIPS bid from give Greenhalgh, Republican 2160; Russell, Democrat, 558; a net Democratic loss of 242 votes.

Associated Press bulletin from Springfield, Mass., returns first Congressional district, Wright, Republican, defeated Green, Democrat by 1800 to 2000 votes.
Returns clearly indicate that Gillette,
Republican, has defeated Hall, Democrat,
by 2800 in 2d Congressional district.

Louisiana.
WASHINGTON, D. C.—Senator
Blanchard wins to Democratic headquarters that Louisiana sends a solid Democratic delegation to Congress.

Washington, D. C.
The chairman of the Democratic committee claims that the Democrats will have the most house. He says there will be no issue in the South not already counted.

Connecticut.
New Haven—Indications Republican Gov. re-elected. These congressmen and probably six also elected. Republicans claim both houses legislature.

Wisconsin.
Wichita—The Eagle claims Long, Rep., by 1,000 over Simpson, Pop., and that State has gone Rep. by 2,300.

New York.
New York.—The Journal says the New York State election for Republican congressmen and congressmen.

CITY ELECTION.

Light Vote in Most of the Precincts—
Fine Day.

The vote throughout the city was rather light—everything passing off quietly.
There was only a slight varying in the vote of each candidate. The Congressional vote is a pretty fair vote:

First Ward—Shaw, 109; Spears, 16
Second Ward—Shaw 131, Spears 17,
Thompson 2.
Third Ward—Shaw, 188, Spears 23
Fourth " " 24, " 144
McCarthy's prec. " 115, " 191
St. Phillip's " " 8, " 342

FROM THE COUNTY:
James City—Shaw, 4, Spears, 311;
Thompson 4.
Cove—Shaw, 69; Spears, 2; Thompson, 82.

NAVAL RESERVES MINSTRELS.
Friday Night at the Opera House—
Great Preparations Being Made.

Elaborate preparations have been made by those in the Naval Reserves Minstrels for the production on next Friday night.
The olio will be brimming full of fun and melody as well as dressed, in popular phraseology, "out of sight." Six big end town will indulge in topical songs and bring new jokes, while the others in the half circle will render new sentimental songs.

After the olio a varied programme of specialties, farces, etc., will be introduced.
Some real good tumbling and trapeze work is expected.

Sets will be on sale this morning at 10 o'clock at Nunn & McSorley's, price 50 cents, no charge for reserving. Gallery tickets will be 25 cents. Get your seats early.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.
To the Memory of the Late Howard Gaskill, Drowned Oct. 25th.

Our community having been deeply saddened by the accidental drowning of Mr. Howard Gaskill, and he being a member of the Centenary M. E. Sunday school of this city, we his class-mates were appointed a committee to draft resolutions in his respect, therefore we offer the following:

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from our school our dear friend, and

Whereas, We do feel his loss more than words can express, and feeling that our loss is his gain, therefore we, Resolved, 1st, That although we can not understand the mysteries of His providence, we do bow in humble submission to His divine will, knowing that at the last day all things will be made known.

Resolved 2nd, That we will profit by his untimely death, and strive to live better and higher lives on account of his having lived among us so that when our summons may come (though it may be like his, when we least expect), we may be ready to answer that call.

Resolved, further, That we tender to the bereaved relatives of our brother, our heartfelt sympathy, and look to the future where the sundered ties of earth are reunited.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family and a copy be sent to the NEW BERNE JOURNAL for publication, with request that Christian Advocate copy, also that they be spread upon the minutes of our school.

more; H. Jones, Philadelphia; A. Mitchell, Kingston; Alex. Harrison, Raleigh;
M. C. Robinson, Philadelphia; Kelley E.
Terry, Stella.

The Elizabeth City Fair.
The Elizabeth City Economist Falcon
says of the Fair just held there:

The crowd at the Fair was quite large and socially and financially it was a gratifying success.

The side shows were attractive. Thriving of various kinds were good and attracted much attention. Take it altogether the Park Fair of 1894 was a success in attendance, social enjoyment in the side shows, racing and financially. The weather was all that could be asked.
"Jim Kid's Wild West Show" was a success and we are all encouraged for the future.

A Fine Boy Gone From Earth.
Died, on the 10th, day of Oct. 1894 at 5 o'clock p. m. Simeon A. Wise son of Edward G. and Susan F. Wise of Pamlico
N. C. "Simeon" as we called him was about 12 years old and for his age was very intelligent.

He died of that terrible destroyer of children, hemorrhagic fever, after an illness of only two days.

It must be sad indeed for parents to lose so nice and bright a boy.

NEW YORK GOES REPUBLICAN

MORTON HAS 150,000 PLURALITY

New York City and Brooklyn Make Big Inroads into their Former Democratic Majorities—Outside these Cities the Change not Near so Great —Tammany Dejected.

New York, Nov. 6.—Weather clear and cold. Full vote reported in the State outside of this city. Numbers of votes unable to get their votes in this city owing to numerous tickets. Vote of State outside of this city will be compared with 1891.

Returns from New England will probably be meagre owing to general prostration of wires. There are 3,352 election districts in New York and 682 in Brooklyn.

Brooklyn.—Quietest election in years.
New York.—Comparison on 89 districts show Republican gain of 4,572.

The New York World bulletin says that Strong leads in nearly every district.
The Tribune bulletin says Strong is running ahead of his ticket.

The Mercury bulletin says that Grant's majority will be about 10,000.

For Governor, 410 districts out of 1,141 give Hill 40,931; Morton 39,583; Wheeler 3,687. For mayor, 120 districts give Grant 8,921, Strong 18,708.

New York United Press says a comparison of 320 districts this city for Governor shows Republican gain of 18,908.

New York, 620 districts, Hill 69,046;
Morton, 67,003; Wheeler 5,279.

Rochester, N. Y.—Rega township complete, Hill 191, Morton 267. United Press bulletin says comparison on 100 districts show a Tammany loss of 8,095.

New York, Governor, 500 election districts out of 1,141 give Hill 80,388;
Morton 49,138; Wheeler 4,326.

The Commercial Advertiser bulletin says it looks as if Hill would be beaten by 150,000.

The United Press bulletin says that the comparison of 380 districts in the city shows a Democratic loss of 14,661 for Governor
