Watson Major As to the Legislature, it may be quite positively said that of the fusionists the Populists are the more numerous. In the division of offices when nominations svere made the Republicans in most cases took the county offices, while the Popu-lists were named for the Legislature. So then there will come up an interest ig question when the Legislature ormizes, or rather before hand. There will be much caucusing. Will the chair nea, Butter and Holton, arrange affairs as they did in this campaign? Say what one will, Mr. Butler was a power, forced his way through n any obstacles. He was the "centre rush" in the big poli-Committee on flowers -- Robf, Han- neal football game. He swept Holton will get the long term. Who will get the other? As to county Government, what? Republicans wild for repeal; Populists, more conservative, perhaps favoring modification of the law. Then as to the election law. That will probably be repealed. The question of appropriations to the university, etc. will be another matter. It may naturally be expected that the "combine" will make a good many changes in the officials of the public institut ons. A Populist known all over the State
