NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Lost—A Black Dog. Will H. Mason—In it and at it. Nunn & McSorley—Jobbers. Brodham & Brock—Have you seen it.

The remains of Rev. Jas. Cummings little son who died Friday were taken up to Kinston yesterday for interment.

The Rev. Messrs. Harrison, known as the twin brothers will be at the Free Will Baptist church this city. Tuesday night instead of Monday.

The steamer Alpha, Capt. James E. Clarke, cleared Saturday with 528 bales of cotton from J. E. Latham. The cargo was valued at $14,100.

At all Y. M. C. A. meetings held every Sunday afternoon all gentlemen are invited to be present, and especially welcome are all strangers that may be in the city.

Fall cabbages have made their appearance and very good ones too. We saw some at Mr. J. R. Parkers yesterday that were raised by Mr. W. F. Crockett, well headed and of large size.

The Naval Reserve minstrels returned well pleased with their Wilmington trip, with the people and with their audience. The papers speak well of the boys in half column articles. They think of playing in Kinston soon, and of repeating in this city about Thanksgiving.

Indications point to a very good successful festival Wednesday by our Jewish citizens. The one they held when they first began moving to build a synagogue was well patronized and highly enjoyed, and we hope to see this one equally successful.

The barn and stables of Dr. R. W. Ward, of Verona, Onslow County, together with forty bales of cotton, were destroyed by fire Friday night. Dr. Ward met with a similar loss about a year ago. He has the sympathy of many friends in his trouble.

From all the comments we have seen on Polk Miller's entertainments we believe that all who go will be delighted at having heard him and all who no go will be sorry they didn't. To-morrow night is the time that he will favor New Berne with one of his entertainments.

The effort of our townsman Mr. M. D. W. Stevenson attorney for the commissioners of Onslow county in the suit of the W. N. & N. R. R. vs. that county just tried in Lenoir county Superior court is pronounced a powerful one by those who heard it. It was highly complimented on all sides. Mr. Stevenson won his case. The account of the trial is given in another column.

A Newport correspondent of the Beaufort Herald reports bears plentiful there now. He says: "Messrs. T. D. Hewitt and K. Oglesby killed two yesterday morning and last night Mr. Kirby Mann shot one in a corn field. The Herald also tells of Mr. Sterling Hancock of Beaufort killing a large deer on Bogue Banks. It weighed 150 pounds.

The Penny Press, a weekly paper with two columns to the page, has been started in G.ifton. Though small it gathers in the news. It announces its subscription as one cent a week and furnishes advertising rates on application. It fails to tell intending subscribers how to remit, whether by postal order, registered letter or otherwise.

True Bill of Manlaughter.

The case at Kinston of Geo. Waters for the killing of Chas. H. Brown was sent before the Grand Jury and a true bill of manslaughter was found, and Waters was bound over to the Spring Term of Court in a bond of $750.

Investing in Real Estate.

Messrs. Tomb, Johnson and Company, of Allegheny, Pa., have bought the Ransom farm. We understand that Mr. Johnson will move here in a short time and operate the farm.

Mr. Simmons, of Pittsburg, is also here investigating land, etc.

Boys Modern Minstrels.

We notice the stand paper and litho graphs are up for the above attraction. The paper is first class and bespeaks a good show.

We are requested to call attention to an error in the dates on bill boards which makes it the 19th. This is a mistake as the distinguished Polk Miller will entertain the audience at the theatre on that night. The minstrels will hold forth the next night.

Complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Rountree.

Miss Sadie Eaton's party Friday night complimentary to Mrs. W. M. Rountree, was a very successful and enjoyable affair. Those who received were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Peckler, Mr. and Mrs. Rountree, Miss Louise Dennison and Miss Eaton.

There were 55 invited guests present. The final decorations were elaborate and handsome, of the finest varieties and most elegant specimens of each, and their arrangements as artistic and harmonious as the most critical connoisseur could have wished to have been, and the delicious refreshments were in accord with the other excellent features.

Miss Sadie found time to have a word with everyone and succeeded in making the evening one of the pleasantest that any present had ever enjoyed.

Polk Miller Tomorrow Night.

This celebrated and esteemed young Southerner will be at the New Berne theatre to-morrow night.

The Washington, D. C. Post says of him: "Polk Miller kept his audience in a constant rapture of his risibles."

Chauncy M. Dewey, Esq., writes: "I take pleasure in certifying to the ability of Mr. Polk Miller and the excellence of his recitals."

Joel Chandler Harris: "Uncle Remus" says: "Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character in more faithfully than these negro jokes. There is a fine singer hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's bag and you look for him to bring out and go to dancing when Miller begins a song."

LARGE FISH SHIPMENT.

One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds of Sea Products a Part of the Cargo of the Steamer Neuse.

The schooner Virginia Dare, Capt. Ben Willis, brought up one of the largest loads of fish ever brought to the city from the fishing grounds. There was a good variety of the fish, and the cargo was estimated at from fifteen to twenty thousand pounds. There were in the neighborhood of a hundred boxes of them.

The shipment was from Portsmouth, N. C. and belonged partly to Messrs. Fernie Gaskill & Co., and partly to Mr. C. T. Watson.

The steamer Neuse on her Friday trip took out for the northern markets eighty tons—in round numbers—100,000 pounds of perishable water products—fresh fish, clams and oysters. This is a good showing.

The steamers are so nearly taking out good cargoes now, better even than they bring in, although it is the fall season when people are purchasing more lively than usual.

If you wish to investigate our immense fish and oyster business the next exhibition of the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association to be held in this city during the week commencing February 18th, will give a good opportunity to do so. All varieties of fish and all appliances used in taking them will there be shown in shape for every one to examine easily.

Coming and Going.

Mrs. Bettie Stevenson Huntington of Mobile, Ala.; and Mrs. Kate Stevenson Latham, of Washington are visiting at Mr. M. De W. Stevensons.

Hon. F. M. Simmons came down from Raleigh last night. He is en route to Pamlico county to attend Superior court which meets there this week.

Mr. S. H. Thomas and family of New York and a friend of his left on the W. N. & N. train yesterday. They are on a pleasure trip and the gentlemen intend to have some sport after North Carolina game.

Mr. E. S. Street has left to purchase a supply of western horses and mules.

Mrs. M. S. Willard of Wilmington arrived to visit her father Mr. W. H. Oliver.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dossow returned from Wilmington.

Messrs. M. DeW. Stevenson and W. W. Clark of this city and Mr. T. E. Gilman of Onslow county, who have been at the leading Lenoir county Superior court came down last night. Mr. Gilman is registered at the Albion.

Mr. F. M. Bolannan and Mr. J. H. Miller, two prominent tobaccoists of Winston are registered at the Chattawka.

Mr. James E. Catlin, a most genial "Knight of the Grip" is in the city quartered at the Chattawka.

Hotel Chattawka Arrivals.
J. Q. A. Wagley, Pittsburg, Pa.; M. Dunnett, N. Y.; T. D. Turner, N. C.; J. W. Lyons, N. Y.; Wm. E. Ashley, Raleigh, N. C.; J. E. Cotton, Greensboro, N. C.; J. S. Bains, Atlanta, Ga.; J. E. Vanhook, Richmond, E. M. Simmons, city; Spring Brent, Cincinnati; F. M. Bolannan, Winston, N. C.; Will Badham, N. C.; A. M. Waldell, Wilmington, N. C.; H. A. Whiting, Wilmington, N. C.

BUILDING OPERATIONS.

Some of the Work in this Line in Progress Around the City.

The work on Messrs. M. Hain & Co's, new brick livery stable and on Dr. N. H. Street's three story brick store is progressing well, the front of the former is almost completed and the walls of the other have reached the last story. It looks lively to see two such good buildings going up side by side.

Improvement to real estate can be seen in every part of the city. On the Union Point block Mr. J. C. Whitty is just adding a two story L to his residence; Mr. J. A. Meadows has greatly improved his residence adjoining, which before was one of the finest in the city, by double piazzas on two sides stylishly finished and by the erection also of a new dining room. Mr. Warren Ellis is painting up, building new fences and making other improvements to his recently purchased residence, and Messrs. James M. Howard and W. H. Pearce have made their homes look like new with a liberal use of paint in well selected colors—all this on one block.

Capt. N. W. Jones is putting up a very handsome building on Pollock street near Eden, and on the same block fronting on Broad street, his brother-in-law, Mr. Caffee, is also erecting a large and attractive home for himself.

Dr. Geo. Slover's new residence on Union street is an elegant one, as are also the two which Messrs. W. R. and B. S. Guion are building for themselves on the macadamized road just outside of the city, and Mr. F. E. Hege's home near by is another great addition to that locality.

These are only some of the leading improvements in progress. Erecting buildings and working on old ones can be found in any part of the city visited. New Berne is going right ahead, sunny and steadily in spite of the cry of dull times, financial depression, etc. Few places can be found that have stood the depression like New Berne. Our diversified industries account for this, but there is chance to still further diversify and it should be done. We should have more manufacturing. Let this be borne in mind and no opportunity lost of increasing such enterprises.

Hebrew Festival.
The Ladies' Hebrew Aid Society will give a Festival Wednesday, Nov. 21st, in the vacant store formerly occupied by Mr. L. S. Wood and adjoining the store of Mr. M. E. Whitehurst. A large variety of refreshments will be served, beginning in the afternoon at three o'clock for children till six o'clock. Adults invited afterwards. Cordial invitation extended to everybody. 188t.

United States Post Office.
NEW BERNE, N. C., Nov. 17, 1894.

Notice is hereby given that from this date an additional mail will be received and forwarded by the A. & N. C. R. R. Mail from Goldsboro and north of Winston will arrive every day (except Sunday) at 12:30 p. m., and will be forwarded every day (except Sunday) at 3 p. m. The hour of closing the afternoon mail for the A. & N. C. R. R. westward will be 2:30 p. m.

W. M. MARLY, Postmaster.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.

A Liberal Contribution From One Transportation Line to the Road Improvements.

Mr. M. K. King, General Manager, in behalf of the consolidated E. C. D., and O. D. S. S., lines, made a liberal cash contribution, fifty dollars, through Mr. Geo. Henderson, agent, to the road improvement work going on about New Berne. The contribution was given to be divided equally between the work of macadamizing Neuse road and the similar work on the road to the Oak's Farm.

The transportation lines represented by Mr. King no doubt recognize the fact that good roads are great developers and that the more the country is developed, the more freight in each direction there will be for them to handle. The work is still going on and there is a good opportunity for others to do likewise.

Church Services.

Resolutions of Respect.

John Archibald Simpson was born in the lower part of Craven county, May 26, 1827. When fourteen years of age he came to New Berne, where he died Oct. 22, 1894, in the 67th year of his age. His occupation through life was that of builder and contractor.

Honest in his dealings, exact and fair-minded in his methods, amiable and exemplary in his deportment, appreciative of his relation to his family and the community, his character and citizenship are well attested.

In early life he professed "preference towards God and faith toward the Lord Jesus Christ," and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, in whose communion he died peacefully, in the good Christian faith, he having fought the good Christian fight, he lived consistently and died triumphantly.

In the year 1848, as soon as he was of age, he became a Mason, and to all appearances, was ever faithful to the first lesson he was taught in Masonry "to be good and true." He recognized the fact that the moral law was the modus vivendi, and so well ordered was his walk according to its precepts, that he never suffered from the shifts of fortune or the fangs of calamity. He was "a good and true" man.

He has crossed over the river; yet what a shining, though humble, example he has left to Citizen, Mason, Christian! Let us emulate it.

Masonry and Christianity accompanied him all along his pilgrimage, and as the one built him firm as the portals of the tomb, the other, through the merits of the "Lion of the tribe of Judah," translated him to the Celestial Lodge above, where the Supreme Grand Master presides, and shall at the glorious resurrection morn, with a strong grip, raise his body from the grave and make it incorruptible as his soul.

Therefore, Resolved, That St. John's Lodge No. 3, A. F. & A. M., laments the loss it has sustained in the death of Bro. Simpson, and will cherish the memory of his fruitful life and peaceful death.

Resolved, That the Lodge ten less its heartfelt sympathy to the family of Bro. Simpson in their profound and poignant grief.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the New Berne JOURNAL, recorded, with proper dings of this Lodge and the Secretary transmit a copy thereof to the widow of Bro. Simpson, with the assurance that Masonry rejoices in the remembrance of the widow and the orphan.

ONSLOW COUNTY WINS.

In The Suit Brought by the W. N. & N. R. R. to Compel the Issuing of $60,000 in Bonds as a County Subscription to the Road.

The case of the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina R. R. Co. vs. Board of Commissioners of Onslow Co., which was removed from Onslow to Lenoir county for trial at last Spring term of Onslow court, 1894, Judge Bryan presiding, came up for trial Saturday.

The plaintiffs were represented by Col. Waddell, of Wilmington, N. J. Rouse and A. J. Loftin of Kinston. The defendants were represented by our townsman M. De W. Stevenson and Gilman and Thompson of Onslow. The case was hotly contested by both sides.

The main question seemed to be whether or not the popular will of the qualified electors or voters of Onslow county had been expressed for or against the subscription of $60,000 to the R. R. Co. in a legal and proper way. His Honor Judge Boykin decided that the election held in 1888 was illegal for several reasons.

The plaintiffs, the W. N. & N. R. R. company, based their right or cause of action upon said election. The decision of His Honor therefore did away with the plaintiffs case.

Mr. Rouse alluded in pathetic terms to the fraud and injustice that was being done the plaintiff in a refusal to issue bonds and subscribe to the capital stock.

Mr. Stevenson, counsel for the defendants, presented the stigma endeavored to be placed upon the fair name of Onslow county and argued strongly that if any fraud had been committed, it had been done by the managers of the scheme in its inception, and that the present management had not retrograded the road for more than its full value any subscription to its capital stock would be an idle ceremony financially.

The issue on which the case was won was that the election was held at a later date than the time within which the acts authorizing it specified that it should be.

Court will probably continue most of this week.

HURRAH FOR WHITE POINT.

A Place in Which a Republican Ballot Was Never Cast—To be Presented by Ladies With a Silk Banner for its Democratic Solidity.

"The editor of this paper has seen some of the ladies of Beaufort and they have promised to make a silk banner to be presented to the Democrats of White Point for their constant fidelity to the Democratic party. From the best information we can get, there never has been a Republican vote cast there. What place can beat it in North Carolina?"

The banner is to be made of pure white silk with suitable inscriptions upon it. The Democrats around here are much amused over the idea and are all in for it. The voters of White Point precinct have made for themselves a reputation of which they may be proud. The time has been appointed yet. A time best suited to the citizens of White Point will be decided upon later.—Beaufort Herald.

Notice to Firemen and Others.

The Superintendent of the Fire alarm system will commence on Monday at 12 o'clock to regulate the striking of the fire bell. The different fire companies and the citizens generally will take no notice of the alarm until after three taps are given which will denote the completion of the work.
