Radolph Hemmings, of London, is writing an epic poem which, when completed, will contain 2,000 as from 500 to 700 words each. It is a history of England from the time of William the Conquerer up to the time of James II.

In its financial article the Lonon Times says that the Board of ade returns for October are beter than those of any previous south of the year. The exports largely increased mainly by the rger American demand.

They know how to treat wifesaters in Germany. The brutal seband has to work all through e week, turn over his wages to his wife on pay day and go to jail aturday night and Sunday. About wo weeks of his sort of fun takes all the wickedness out of a fellow.

Protessor Drummond accompaned D. L. Moody in that famous ompaign in Great Britain twenty rears ago, and he delivered his ddresses like "The Greatest To Agents A. & N. C. R. R.:-Thing in the World," at Mr. Moody's conference, at Northfield. He has written a study of Mr. Moody's career for McClure's for December, in which he calls Mr. Moody "the most truly great man living." There has been an absurd confounding, in the minds of many copie, of the South Carolina exaveten of controlling the liquor tariff. Points of similarity do exist, but modes of operation and effects are quite different. The cardinal principle of the South Carolina plan is State nonopoly of the sale of drink; that of the Norwegian plan is local control through commercial companies organized often by the best and most patriotic citizens, who renounce all profits and take merely the ordinary rate of interest on the small amount of capital ivested. Wherein both of the plans agee, and where both, in my judgment, strike at the root of the whole matter, is in eliminating private profit from liquor-selling. But here the parallel cesses. These local companies in Norway engage in the tariff in order that they may control it and restrict it until such time as municipalities may do away with licensing altogether. So well has their aim succeeded that the great majority of inhabitants of Artistic Hair Cuts and best of service in great majority of inhapitants of Artistic Hair Cuts and best of service in the Boandinavian peninsula are every way. A clean towel for every patron. Ladies and Childrens' work a In South Carolina the profits go to the State, and the very con-ception of the measure reposes on the idea of relief to taxpayers, Indeed, Governor Tillman apolgetically remarks that the revenues are not yet as high as they will be. A State monpoly makes liquorselling a part of the machinery of the government, and therefore gives to it a more or less permanent existance. The essence of the other plan is liberty to abolish the traffic whenever a community is ready, but, in the mean time, to ill the Democratic majority do when Congress meets? There should be no besitation or this subject. Because a party is so go from power is no reason for its abandonment of it principles and purposes. Indeed the fact that its should impel it to the fulfillment of its promises.

It is of great importance that the supplemental tariff bills passed by the House be passed by the

It is reported that Secretary Carlisle is preparing a currency bill that will be introduced in the House and receive the support of the Administration.

If the Demucratic party is to die, which we do not believe, let it fold the drapery of its couch around it and lie down to gentle dreams, without a sin on its soul.

We can imagine no more serrowful picture than that of an old man throwing off the robes of office with a lie on his lips, and we would rescue the Democratic party from a kladred degradation. When a man wilfully violates a promise, or other sacred obligation, he disrobes himself of all his greatness and sinks where honor's plummet can never reach him. From such infamy, "Good Lord deliver us."

We have no idea that the days of Democracy are numbered, but if its retirement is but for a single Congressional term, let it be with no blot on its name:

FOR SKIN DISEASES

And Blood Pohoning. Doctor Re-commends Cuticura Because It Has Never Falled.

Cured in 3 Mouths, Salt Rheum 20 Years' Standing Where All Other Remedies Falled.

It gives me pleasure to recommend your Cutta-Cutta Reschuss to all who are troubled with the various forms of skin diseases and blood poison. I have prescribed your Cuttorna on several occasions, and it has never failed to give good results. I remember of one special case I had, where all other remedies failed until I tried your Cuttorna Reschuss. After being Cuttorna, Cuttorna Soap, and Cuttorna Reschuser, the patient was sound and well. She was troubled with salt rheum, and had been a sufferer for over twenty years. After beginning the use of Cuttorna Reschuss, she was cuted sound and well in three months. Du. M. R. JENKINS, 238 Houston St., Atlanta, Ga.

Acted Like a Charm. My wife had cossma on her hand for about five years, tried a great many so-called remedies, but has all utterly failed. I at last induced her to try your Curioura Rementers, and am pleased to say they acted like a charm, and although it was a year ago, it has not troubled her since. I will strongly recommend your Curioura Remiseration of much disease.
